Nation Of Heroes:

The Nation's Hero.-- Jonas Mills Bundy,1881      Heroes of the Nation Evelyn Abbott,1895      Joseph, the Nation's Hero Hawa Crickmore,2024-05-15 The thought of writing for children was when I started to have grandchildren I wondered how the little brains can develop their creative world I decided to write stories creating scenes that will nurture creativity through fantasy All the characters are fictitious the towns and villages are imaginary but may have characteristics of actual villages and towns The book has 6 chapters of different short stories designed to allow children to ask questions about some cultures that they may have no idea about but which they can relate to It s aimed to stimulate children s thinking and for them to be able to differentiate from fiction to real life Scenes created maybe outside some children s environment but this allows them to appreciate the different environments that may exist in other parts of the world The stories are aimed to stimulate children s imagination and also contribute character building Each of the story lines has got unique morals relevant to character building It s also expresses the way of life of some people More importantly it s the identification of the positive moral of the stories that are relevant for children to emulate For example the story about how the tortoise won the race It s shows that with determination one can succeed Like the tortoise he won the race being tactical and serious      Mobilizing the Russian Nation Melissa Kirschke Stockdale,2016-12-13 This study of Russian mobilization in the Great War explores how the war shaped national identity and conceptions of citizenship      The Nation's Cause Elizabeth A. Marsland,2012-11-12 As we approach the centenary of the outbreak of the First World War this timely reissue first published in 1991 evaluates the function of poetry in wartime Europe arguing that war poetry must be understood as a social as well as a literary phenomenon As well as locating the work of well known French English and German war poets in a European context Elizabeth Marsland discusses lesser known poetry of the war years including poems by women and the neglected tradition of civilian protest through poetry Identifying shared characteristics as well as the unique features of each nation s poetry The Nation s Cause affords new insight into the relationship between nationalism and the social attitudes that determined the conduct of war      Daily Graphic Elvis Aryeh,1993-04-16      Inventing Baseball Heroes Amber Roessner,2014-06-09 In Inventing Baseball Heroes Amber Roessner examines herocrafting in sports journalism through an incisive analysis of the work surrounding two of baseball s most enduring personalities Detroit Tigers outfielder Ty Cobb and New York Giants pitcher Christy Mathewson While other scholars have demonstrated that the mythmakers of the Golden Age of Sports Writing 1920 1930 manufactured heroes out of baseball players for the mainstream media Roessner probes further with a penetrating look at how sportswriters compromised emerging professional standards of journalism as they crafted heroic tales that sought to teach American boys how to be successful players in the game of life Cobb and Mathewson respectively stereotyped as the game s sinner and saint helped shape their public images in the mainstream press through their relationship with four of the most prominent sports journalists of the time Grantland Rice F C Lane Ring Lardner and John N

Wheeler Roessner traces the interactions between the athletes and the reporters delving into newsgathering strategies as well as rapport building techniques and ultimately revealing an inherent tension in objective sports reporting in the era Inventing Baseball Heroes will be of interest to scholars of American history sports history cultural studies and communication Its interdisciplinary approach provides a broad understanding of the role sports journalists played in the production of American heroes The Ideal Book of Elocution, Oratory and Entertainment ,1902 The Ark ,1911

Congressional Record United States. Congress,2001 No Citizen Left Behind Meira Levinson,2012-05-08 While teaching at an all Black middle school in Atlanta Meira Levinson realized that students individual self improvement would not necessarily enable them to overcome their profound marginalization within American society This is because of a civic empowerment gap that is as shameful and antidemocratic as the academic achievement gap targeted by No Child Left Behind No Citizen Left Behind argues that students must be taught how to upend and reshape power relationships directly through political and civic action Drawing on political theory empirical research and her own on the ground experience Levinson shows how de facto segregated urban schools can and must be at the center of this struggle Recovering the civic purposes of public schools will take more than tweaking the curriculum Levinson calls on schools to remake civic education Schools should teach collective action openly discuss the racialized dimensions of citizenship and provoke students by engaging their passions against contemporary injustices Students must also have frequent opportunities to take civic and political action including within the school itself To build a truly egalitarian society we must reject myths of civic sameness and empower all young people to raise their diverse voices Levinson s account challenges not just educators but all who care about justice diversity or democracy Heroes of the Army in America Charles Morris,1919 Proceedings of The Disabled American Veterans 2007 National Convention, August 11-14, 2007, 110-1 House Document 110-77 ,2008

Disabled American Veterans ... National Convention Disabled American Veterans,2016 The Bible Study Union Lessons ,1914 Manliness and Militarism Mark Howard Moss,2001-01-01 Euphoria swept Canada and especially Ontario with the outbreak of World War I But why were people excited by the prospect of war What popular attitudes about war had become ingrained in the society This book examines the cult of manliness as it developed in Victorian and Edwardian Ontario revealing a number of factors that fed the eagerness of youth to prove their mettle on the battlefields of Europe

Defending Memory in Global Politics Erica Resende,Dovilė Budrytė,Douglas Becker,2025-01-27 This book explores the securitization of memory in times of crisis using overlooked cases from the Global South and the Global North Instead of focusing exclusively on national identities and state actors it explores various identities including substate and transnational actors and their role in defending memory during times of crisis Embracing a broad definition of conflict that includes mnemonic societal and armed conflicts the expert contributors engage with political trauma demonstrating its power to evoke commemorations and other shared practices of collective remembrance shaping and perpetuating collective memory the construction of national and transnational identities national interests and foreign policy behaviors The book contributes to the fields of memory and trauma studies and ontological security in international relations It will also be of interest to scholars and students of political science sociology international relations history nationalism and identity international studies cultural geography social psychology cultural studies and anthropology The Nation's Gratitude Maria Bucur, 2021-12-30 A pioneering work for the history of veterans rights in Romania this study brings into focus the laws and policies the state developed in response to the unprecedented human losses in World War I It features in lively and accessible language the varied responses of veterans widows and orphans to those policies The analysis emphasizes how ordinary citizens became educated about and used state institutions in ways that highlight the class ethnic religious and gender norms of the day The book offers a vivid case study of how disability as a personal reality for many veterans became a point of policy making a story that has seen little scholarly interest despite the enormous populations affected by these developments Overall the monograph shows how in the postwar European states citizenship as engaged practice was shaped by both government policies and the interpretation a large and varied group of beneficiaries gave to these policies The analysis provides insights of great interest to scholars of these themes while it offers examples of engaged citizenship useful for an undergraduate and nonspecialist audience Writing a Small Nation's Past Neil Evans, 2016-02-17 This is the first volume to examine how the history of Wales was written in a period that saw the emergence of professional historiography largely focused on the nation across Europe and in the United States It thus sets Wales in the context of recent work on national history writing in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and more particularly offers a Welsh perspective on the ways in which history was written in small mainly stateless nations The comparative dimension is fundamental to the volume's aim highlighting what was distinctive about Welsh historical writing and showing how the Welsh experience mirrors and illuminates broader historiographical developments The book begins with an introduction that uses the concept of historical culture as a way of exploring the different strands of historiography covered in the collection providing orientation to the chapters that follow These are divided into four sections Contexts and Backgrounds Amateurs and Popularizers Creating Academic Disciplines and Comparative Perspectives All these themes are then drawn together in the conclusion to examine how far Welsh historians exemplify widespread trends in the writing of national history and thereby point up common themes that emerge from the volume and clarify its broader significance for students of historiography New Perspectives on Hispanic Caribbean Studies Magdalena López, María Teresa Vera-Rojas, 2020-12-11 What are the main contributions of Hispanic cultural products and practices today This book is a collection of essays on new critical trends in Hispanic Caribbean thinking It offers an update on the state of Hispanic Caribbean studies through the discussion of diverse theoretical perspectives around notions of affect archipelagic thinking deterritoriality and queer experiences and subjectivities These eccentric Caribbean and aquatic imaginaries move beyond those that are circumscribed by identity nation insularity and the colonial epistemologies derived from these conceptions Due to its cultural and historical specificities the Hispanic Caribbean constitutes a focus of study crucial to re thinking global dynamics today
