National Civil Rights Museum Celebrates Everyday People:

The National Civil Rights Museum Celebrates Everyday People Alice Faye Duncan,1995 It was a struggle for dignity and equality fought by everyday people The Civil Rights Movement that swept the country between 1954 and 1968 The National Civil Rights Museum Celebrates Everyday People Alice Faye Duncan,1995-01-01 A tour of the National Civil Rights Museum in Memphis Tennessee pays homage to the people who contributed to the cause of freedom Commemoration in America David Gobel,Daves Rossell,2013-09-03 Commemoration lies at the poetic historiographic and social heart of human community It is how societies define themselves and is central to the institution of the city Addressing the complex ways that monuments in the United States have been imagined created and perceived from the colonial period to the present Commemoration in America is a wide ranging volume that focuses on the role of remembrance and memorialization in American urban life The volume s contributors are drawn from a spectrum of disciplines social and urban history urban planning architecture art history preservation and architectural history and take a broad view of commemoration In addition to the making of traditional monuments the essays explore such commemorative acts as building preservation biography portraiture ritual performance street naming and the planting of trees Providing an overview of American memorialization and the impulses behind it Commemoration in America emphasizes a universal tendency for individuals and groups to use monuments to define their contemporary social identity and to construct historical narratives The volume shows that while commemorative acts and objects affect the community in fundamental ways their meaning is always multivalent and conflicted attesting to both triumphs and tragedies Constituting a vital part of both individual and national identity commemoration s contradictions strike at the core of American identity and speak to the importance of remembrance in the construction of our diverse national cultural landscape Contributors Jhennifer A Amundson Judson University Catherine W Bishir North Carolina State University Libraries Thomas J Campanella University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Glenn T Eskew Georgia State University Glenn Forley Parsons The New School for Design Sally Greene University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Alison K Hoagland Michigan Technological University Lynne Horiuchi University of California Berkeley Ellen M Litwicki SUNY Fredonia David Lowenthal University College London Mark A Peterson University of California Berkeley Richard M Sommer University of Toronto Dell Upton University of California Los Angeles Rethinking Our Classrooms, Volume 2,2001 Rethinking Our Classrooms Bill Bigelow,1994 Readings resources lesson plans and reproducible student handouts aimed at teaching students to question the traditional ideas and images that interfere with social justice and community building Southern White Ministers and the Civil Rights Movement Elaine Allen Lechtreck,2018-05-29 In 1963 the Sunday after four black girls were killed by a bomb in a Birmingham church George William Floyd a Church of Christ minister preached a sermon based on the Golden Rule He pronounced that Jesus Christ was asking Christians to view the bombing from the perspective of their black neighbors and asserted We don t realize it yet but because Martin Luther King Jr is preaching nonviolence which is Jesus s way someday Martin Luther King Jr will be seen as the best friend the white man in the South has ever had During the sermon members of the congregation yelled You devil you and immediately Floyd was dismissed Although not every anti segregation white minister was as outspoken as Pastor Floyd many signed petitions organized interracial groups or preached gently from a gospel of love and justice Those who spoke and acted outright on behalf of the civil rights movement were harassed beaten and even jailed Based on interviews and personal memoirs Southern White Ministers and the Civil Rights Movement traces the efforts of these clergymen who deeply moved by the struggle of African Americans looked for ways to reconcile the history of discrimination and slavery with Christian principles and to help their black neighbors While many understand the role political leaders on national stages played in challenging the status quo of the South this book reveals the significant contribution of these ministers in breaking down segregation through preaching a message of love Teaching Banned Books Pat R. Scales,2001-06 As a standard bearer for intellectual freedom the school librarian is in an ideal position to collaborate with teachers to not only protect the freedom to read but also ensure that valued books with valuable lessons are not quarantined from the readers for whom they were written Integrating African American Literature in the Library and Classroom Dorothy Littlejohn

Guthrie,2011-09-14 In this book African American literature is illuminated through a project based curriculum that incorporates national curriculum standards It is important that the school curriculae be representative of the diversity of the American student population Integrating African American Literature in the Library and Classroom is designed to help teachers and librarians achieve that goal The book recommends and annotates more than 200 titles that touch on African American life from slavery through the present time most of them by black authors and many of them winners of the Coretta Scott King Caldecott and or Newbery awards This guide offers cross curricular lesson plans for grades K 12 Each chapter identifies areas in which instructional attention is most needed to help students develop a greater appreciation for diversity perseverance and ethnicity Examples and ideas for activities are offered to reinforce related concepts With this book teachers and librarians will be better able to motivate and inform helping students discover the richness of African American culture now and through time Literacy and Learning in the Content Areas Sharon Kane,2025-04-23 The fifth edition of Literacy and Learning in the Content Areas Enhancing Knowledge in the Disciplines provides readers with the knowledge motivation tools and confidence for integrating literacy in their disciplinary classrooms Offering a literature based approach to teaching disciplinary literacy the new edition shares important ways in which teachers of courses in the disciplines can enhance student learning of subject matter and skills while also fostering their growth in the many facets of literacy Throughout each chapter Kane provides engaging and creative strategies and activities to make literacy come alive in discipline specific courses and to encourage students to explore and learn in the classroom Embedded in each chapter are examples resources and strategies to help readers actively engage with and implement literacy practices These features

Civil Rights Memorials and the Geography of Memory Owen J. Dwyer, Derek H. Alderman, 2008 Owen Dwyer and Derek Alderman examine civil rights memorials as cultural landscapes offering the first book length critical reading of the monuments museums parts streets and sites dedicated to the African American struggle for civil rights and interpreting them is the context of the Movement's broader history and its current scene. In paying close attention to which stories people and places are remembered and which are forgotten, the authors present an engaging account of an unforgettable story. BOOK JACKET Teaching U.S. History Through Children's Literature Wanda Miller, 1998-11-15. Similar to U.S. History Through Children's Literature: From the Colonial Period to World War II in format and approach, historical fiction and nonfiction are integrated into modern U.S. History. For each of these topics, Miller suggests two or more titles, one for use with the entire class and one for use with small reading groups. Summaries of the books, author information, activities, and topics for discussion are supplemented with vocabulary lists and ideas for research topics and further reading. This integrated approach makes history more meaningful to students and helps them retain historical details and facts by immersing them in stories surrounding historical events. A well-researched and thorough resource.

The Life of Martin Luther King, Jr. Michael A. Schuman, 2014-09. So even though we face the difficulties of today and tomorrow, I still have a dream. These now famous words were spoken by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. during the March on Washington in 1963. The many historic milestones of Martin Luther King Jr.'s life are examined in this informative biography. Examining the civil rights leader's life from his birth in Atlanta, winning the Nobel Peace Prize, the march to Selma, his "I Have a Dream" speech, and his assassination. This book is developed from MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. LEADER FOR CIVIL RIGHTS to allow republication of the original text into ebook, paperback, and trade editions. Great Books About Things Kids Love Kathleen Odean, 2008-12-18. BOOKS THAT TURN CHILDREN INTO LIFE-LONG READERS. Most children want to read a book because it's about something they love or are curious about: dinosaurs, magic tricks, ballerinas, sports, secret codes, and a host of other topics. Now with this unique book, Kathleen Odean, current chair of the Newberry Award committee and author of Great Books for Girls and Great Books for Boys, makes it easy for parents and teachers to satisfy a child's individual cravings for good reading on any subject. Inside, you'll discover more than 750 books divided into 55 categories, from Airplanes to Zoos. Professional appraisals that are balanced, intelligent, and fun to read. Stimulating book-related activities and helpful tips for parents. Whether the format is picture book, poetry, fiction, or nonfiction, here are wonderful selections like Why Does the Cat Do That? and Exploring the Titanic, tried and true characters from the beloved Aardvarks Arthur and D.W. to the hilarious Junie B. Jones and the courageous Harry Potter new heroes and heroines to cheer for, such as Katherine Paterson's Princess Miranda from The Wide Awake Princess and the exciting Jack Black from Jack Black and the Ship of Thieves by Carol Hughes. Great Books About Things Kids Love creates a book-rich environment in which the habit of reading can take hold and flourish for a lifetime. From the Trade Paperback edition. Ebony, 1995-02. EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing. Founded in 1945 by John H. Johnson, it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American-focused magazine. Teaching for a Tolerant World, Grades K-6 Judith P. Robertson, 1999.
