The National Trust Historical Atlas of Britain Prehistoric to Medieval Nigel Saul (general editor),1997 Trust Historical Atlas of Britain Jeremy Boyce, Nigel Saul, 1998-02-28 This guide to the art of stunt kite flying covers every aspect of the sport from being safe and wearing the right clothes to performing power dives and flying axels With advice on the type of lines kites and handles to buy as well as a section on other associated kite flying sports How to make and fly stunt kites is the perfect introduction to this exciting and dramatic sport Page 4 of cover A Visitor's Guide to A History of Britain Martin Davidson, 2002-09-16 A companion to the acclaimed BBC History Channel series Cover National Geographic the British World Tim Jepson, 2015 This fascinating heritage in breathtaking National Geographic style with gorgeous photographs and artwork engaging narrative information sidebars and premium quality maps specially commissioned for this book The Mammoth Book of British Kings and Oueens Mike Ashley, 2012-06-07 This book includes more than 1000 monarchs who have at some time ruled all or part of Britain This includes the host of tribal and Saxon rulers prior to 1066 as well as famous monarchs such as Richard III Elizabeth I and Charles II and all the rulers of Scotland and Wales The book gives full details of the lives of the rulers as well as their wives consorts pretenders usurpers and regents and is a geographical guide to where all Britain's monarchs lived ruled and died including their palaces estates The Bayeux Tapestry John F. Szabo, Nicholas E. Kuefler, 2015-06-18 Commanding its own museum and and resting places over 200 years of examination observation and scholarship the monumental embroidery known popularly as the Bayeux Tapestry and documenting William the Conqueror's invasion of England in October 1066 is perhaps the most important surviving artifact of the Middle Ages This magnificent textile both celebrated and panned is both enigmatic artwork and confounding historical record With over 1780 entries Szabo and Kuefler offer the largest and most heavily annotated bibliography on the Tapestry ever written Notably the Bayeux Tapestry has produced some of the most compelling questions of the medieval period Who commissioned it and for what purpose What was the intended venue for its display Who was the designer and who executed the enormous task of its manufacture How does it inform our understanding of eleventh century life And who was the mysterious Aelfgyva depicted in the Tapestry's main register. This book is an effort to capture and describe the scholarship that attempts to answer these questions But the bibliography also reflects the popularity of the Tapestry in literature covering a surprisingly broad array of subjects The inclusion of this material will assist future scholars who may study references to the work in contemporary non fiction and popular works as well as use of the Bayeux Tapestry as a primary and secondary source in the classroom The monographs articles and other works cited in this bibliography reflect dozens of research areas Major themes are the Tapestry as a source of information for eleventh century material culture its role in telling the story of the Battle of Hastings and events leading up to the invasion patronage of the Tapestry biographical detail on known historical figures in the Tapestry arms and armor medieval warfare strategy and techniques opus anglicanum the Anglo Saxon needlework tradition preservation and display of the artifact the Tapestry's place in medieval art the embroidery's depiction of medieval and Romanesque architecture and the life of the Bayeux Tapestry itself

A Research Guide to the Ancient World John M. Weeks, Jason de Medeiros, 2014-11-25 The archaeological study of the ancient world has become increasingly popular in recent years A Research Guide to the Ancient World Print and Electronic Sources is a partially annotated bibliography The study of the ancient world is usually although not exclusively considered a branch of the humanities including archaeology art history languages literature philosophy and related cultural disciplines which consider the ancient cultures of the Mediterranean world and adjacent Egypt and southwestern Asia Chronologically the ancient world would extend from the beginning of the Bronze Age of ancient Greece ca 1000 BCE to the fall of the Western Roman Empire ca 500 CE This book will close the traditional subject gap between the humanities Classical World Egyptology and the social sciences anthropological archaeology Near East in the study of the ancient world This book is uniquely the only bibliographic resource available for such holistic coverage. The volume consists of 17 chapters and seven appendixes arranged according to the traditional types of library research materials bibliographies dictionaries atlases etc The appendixes are mostly subject specific including graduate programs in ancient studies reports from significant archaeological sites numismatics and paleography and writing systems These extensive author and subject indexes help Bibliographic Guide to Maps and Atlases ,1999 facilitate ease of use Medieval Latin Frank Anthony Carl Mantello, A.
