Nationalism Globalization And Orthodoxy The Social Origins Of Ethnic Conflict In The Balkans:

Nationalism, Globalization, and Orthodoxy Victor Roudometof, 2001-07-30 Roudometof provides an in depth sociological analysis of the birth and historical evolution of nationalism in the Balkans The rise of nationalism in the region is viewed as part of a world historical process of globalization over the last five centuries With the growing contacts between the Ottoman Empire and the Western European system the Eastern Orthodox of the Balkans abandoned the enthoconfessional system of social organization in favor of secular national identities Prior to 1820 local nationalism was influenced by the Enlightenment though later it came to be developed on an ethnonational basis In the post 1830 Balkans citizenship rights were subordinated to ethnic nationalism according to which membership to a nation is accorded on the basis of church affiliation and ethnicity In the 19th and 20th centuries the discourse of nationhood was institutionalized by the native intelligentsia of the Balkan states In the first half of the 20th century the efforts of Balkan states to achieve national homogenization produced interstate rivalry forced population exchanges and discrimination against minority groups While the Cold War helped contain some of these problems the post 1989 period has seen a return of these issues to the forefront of the Balkan political agenda

Globalization and Orthodox Christianity Victor Roudometof, 2013-10-15 With approximately 200 to 300 million adherents worldwide Orthodox Christianity is among the largest branches of Christianity yet it remains relatively understudied This book examines the rich and complex entanglements between Orthodox Christianity and globalization offering a substantive contribution to the relationship between religion and globalization as well as the relationship between Orthodox Christianity and the sociology of religion and more broadly the interdisciplinary field of Religious Studies While deeply engaged with history this book does not simply narrate the history of Orthodox Christianity as a world religion nor does it address theological issues or cover all the individual trajectories of each subgroup or subdivision of the faith Orthodox Christianity is the object of the analysis but author Victor Roudometof speaks to a broader audience interested in culture religion and globalization Roudometof argues in favor of using globalization instead of modernization as the main theoretical vehicle for analyzing religion displacing secularization in order to argue for multiple hybridizations of religion as a suitable strategy for analyzing religious phenomena It offers Orthodox Christianity as a test case that illustrates the presence of historically specific but theoretically distinct glocalizations applicable to all faiths The Politics of Nation-Building Harris Mylonas, 2013-02-18 What drives a state s choice to assimilate accommodate or exclude ethnic groups within its territory In this innovative work on the international politics of nation building Harris Mylonas argues that a state s nation building policies toward non core groups individuals perceived as an ethnic group by the ruling elite of a state are influenced by both its foreign policy goals and its relations with the external patrons of these groups Through a detailed study of the Balkans Mylonas shows that how a state treats a non core group within its own borders is determined largely by whether the state s foreign policy is revisionist or cleaves to the international status quo and whether it is allied or in rivalry with that group s

Evered, 2012-05-27 Once hailed as the eternal state the Ottoman Empire was in decline by the end of the nineteenth century finally collapsing under the pressures of World War I Yet its legacies are still apparent and few have had more impact than those of its schools and educational policies Empire and Education under the Ottomans analyses the Empire s educational politics from the mid nineteenth century amidst the Tanzimat reform period until The Young Turk Revolution in 1908 Through a focus on the regional impact of decrees from Istanbul Emine O Evered unravels the complexities of the era demonstrating how educational changes devised to strengthen the Empire actually hastened its demise This book is the first history of education in the Ottoman Middle East to evaluate policies in the context of local responses and resistance and includes the first published English translation of the watershed 1869 Ottoman Education Law A stimulating and impressively researched study it represents an important new addition to the historiography of the Ottoman Empire and will be essential for those researching its lasting legacy

The Transformation of Ottoman Crete Pinar Senisik, 2011-07-30 The island of Crete under Ottoman rule in the nineteenth century saw successive revolts from its majority Christian population who were set on union with the newly independent Greece This book offers an original perspective on the social political and ideological transformation of Ottoman Crete within the nationalist context of the late nineteenth century It focuses on the Cretan revolts of 1896 and 1897 and examines the establishment of the autonomous Cretan State and the withdrawal of Ottoman troops from the island in 1898 Based on Ottoman British and American archival sources the author demonstrates that contrary to the standard view that the uprisings were merely an expression of discontent at Ottoman rule Cretan Christians in fact aimed to radically change the socio economic and political structure of Cretan society and to actually overthrow and expel the Ottoman administration This book provides a deeper understanding of the Cretan experience and of the wider politics of the Eastern Mediterranean in the late nineteenth century

The Foreign Policy of Modern Turkey Ozgur Tufekci, 2017-01-30 In the last three decades Turkey has attempted to build close relationships with Russia Iran and the Turkic World As a result there has been ongoing debate about the extent to which Turkey's international relations axis is shifting eastwards Ozgur Tufekci argues that Eurasianist ideology has been fundamental to Turkish foreign policy and continues to have influence today The author first explores the historical roots of Eurasianism in the 19th century comparing this to Neo Eurasianism and Pan Slavism The Ozal era 1983 1993 the Cem era 1997 2002 and Davutoglu era since 2003 are then examined to reveal how foreign policy making has been informed by discourses of Eurasianism and how Eurasianist ideas were implemented through internal and external socio economic and political factors

Grounded Nationalisms Siniša Malešević, 2019-02-21 Globalisation is not the enemy of nationalism instead as this book shows the two forces have developed together through modern history Malešević challenges dominant views which see nationalism as a declining social force He explains why the recent escalations of populist nationalism throughout the world do not represent a social anomaly but are in fact a historical norm By focusing on ever increasing organisational capacity greater ideological penetration and networks of micro solidarity Malešević shows how and why nationalism has become deeply grounded in the everyday life of modern human beings The author explores the social dynamics of these grounded nationalisms via an analysis of varied contexts from Ireland to the Balkans His findings show that increased ideological diffusion and the rising coercive capacities of states and other organisations have enabled nationalism to expand and establish itself as the dominant operative ideology of modernity

Religious Communities and Civil Society in Europe Rupert Graf Strachwitz, 2019-08-19 The seemingly vitalizing impact of religiosity on civil society is a research topic that has been extensively looked into not only in the USA but increasingly also in a European context What is missing is an evaluation of the role of institutionalized religious communities and of circumstances that facilitate or impede their status as civil society organisations This anthology in two volumes aims at closing this gap by providing case studies regarding political legal and historical aspects in various European countries Vol I provides an introduction and looks at cases in Greece Italy the Netherlands Sweden and Bosnia and Herzegovina as well as chapters on legal issues and data and comprehensive bibliography

Liberalism, Constitutional Nationalism, and Minorities Constantin Iordachi, 2019-06-17 Winner of the 2019 CEU Award for Outstanding Research This book documents the making of Romanian citizenship from 1750 to 1918 as a series of acts of national self determination by the Romanians as well as the emancipation of subordinated gender social and ethno religious groups It focuses on the progression of a sum of transnational questions that were at the heart of North Atlantic European and local politics during the long nineteenth century concerning the status of peasants women Greeks Jews Roma Armenians Muslims and Dobrudjans The analysis emphasizes the fusion between nationalism and liberalism and the emancipatory impact national liberalism had on the transition from the Old Regime to the modern order of the nation state While emphasizing liberalism s many achievements the study critically scrutinizes the liberal doctrine of legal political capacity and the dark side of nationalism marked by tendencies toward exclusion It highlights the challenges nascent liberal democracies face in the process of consolidation and the enduring appeal of illiberalism in periods of upheaval represented mainly by nativism The book s innovative interdisciplinary approach to citizenship in the Ottoman and post Ottoman Balkans and the richness of the sources employed appeal to a diverse readership

Orthodox Christianity in 21st Century Greece Vasilios N. Makrides, 2016-05-13 One of the predominantly Orthodox countries that has never experienced communism is Greece a country uniquely situated to offer insights about contemporary trends and developments in Orthodox Christianity This volume offers a comprehensive treatment of the role Orthodox Christianity plays at the dawn of the twenty first century Greece from social scientific and cultural historical perspectives This book breaks new ground by examining in depth the multifaceted changes that took place in the relationship between Orthodox Christianity and politics ethnicity gender and popular culture Its intention is two fold on the one hand it aims at revisiting some earlier stereotypes widespread both in academic and others circles about the Greek Orthodox Church its cultural specificity and its social presence such as its alleged intrinsic non pluralistic attitude toward non Orthodox Others On the other hand it attempts to show how this fairly traditional religious system underwent significant changes in recent years affecting its public role and image particularly as it became more and more exposed to the challenges of globalization and multiculturalism

Foundations of Modernity Isa Blumi, 2017-06-16 Innovatively looking at the complex interactions between indigenous peoples and modern imperialism in Arabia and Balkans Foundations of Modernity challenges previous analytical models that attempt to capture the complexity of human interactions during the 1800-1912 period in ways that instigates the paradigmatic shift of the Eurocentric perspective of modern world history

Politics of Ethnic Cleansing Kledja Mulaj, 2008-01-01 This book examines the causes and consequences of ethnic cleansing in the twentieth century Balkans The analysis offers a top down interpretation of the expulsion of ethno national minorities as a means of state building and questions the argument for forced homogenization as a conflict resolution strategy In providing a thorough and consistent analysis of large scale episodes of ethnic cleansing the book fills an important gap in existing conflict and peace studies literature

Eastern Christianity and the Cold War, 1945-91, 2011 Orthodox Christianity and the Politics of Transition Tornike Metreveli, 2020-11-29 This book discusses in detail how Orthodox Christianity was involved in and influenced political transition in Ukraine Serbia and Georgia after the collapse of communism Based on original research including extensive interviews with clergy and parishioners as well as historical legal and policy analysis the book argues that the nature of the involvement of churches in post communist politics depended on whether the interests of the church for example in education the legal system or economic activity were accommodated or threatened if accommodated churches confined themselves to the sacred domain if threatened they engaged in daily politics If churches competed with each other for organizational interests they evoked the support of nationalism while remaining within the religious domain The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
