Revolutionary Europe Gavin Murray-Miller,2020-02-06 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title 2021 Revolutionary Europe is an original examination of radical political movements during Europe s long 19th century It employs both national and transnational contexts incorporating new debates in Atlantic history empire studies and cultural history to give a comprehensive narrative of the period from 1775 to 1922 Rather than assessing revolution as a purely theoretical socially driven force or a structural phenomenon the book presents revolution as a process of community building and cultural identification born from instances of acute social and political crisis Taking into account various moments of political upheaval during the 19th century including the French Russian and 1848 revolutions it explores the ways in which political actors attempted to construct new definitions of sovereignty and social unity in a period characterized by vast social economic and governmental change In a wide ranging text that covers Britain and much of continental Europe in detail as well as reaching out to the Americas and Atlantic and Mediterranean Worlds Gavin Murray Miller provides an authoritative transnational study of revolution in the 19th century age of high nationalism

The Shaping of French National Identity Matthew D'Auria,2020-12-03 The Shaping of French National Identity casts new light on the intellectual origins of the dominant and official French nineteenth century national narrative Focussing on the historical debates taking place throughout the eighteenth century and during the Restoration Matthew D Auria evokes a time when the nation s origins were being questioned and discussed and when they acquired the meaning later enshrined in the official rhetoric of the Third Republic He examines how French writers and scholars reshaped the myths symbols and memories of pre modern communities Engaging with the myth of our ancestors the Gauls and its ideological triumph over the competing myth of our ancestors the Franks this study explores the ways in which the struggle developed and the values that the two discourses enshrined the collective actors they portrayed and the memories they evoked D Auria draws attention to the continuity between ethnic discourses and national narratives and to the competition between various groups in their claims to represent the nation and to define their past as the true history of France War and the Rise of the State Bruce D. Porter,2002-02-01 States make war but war also makes states As Publishers Weekly notes Porter a political scientist at Brigham Young University demonstrates that wars have been catalysts for increasing the size and power of Western governments since the Renaissance The state s monopoly of effective violence has diminished not only individual rights and liberties but also the ability of local communities and private associates to challenge the centralization of authority Porter s originality lies in his thesis that war breaking down barriers of class gender ethnicity and ideology also contributes to meritocracy mobility and above all democratization Porter also posits the emergence of the Scientific Warfare State a political system in which advanced technology would render obsolete mass participation in war This provocative study merits wide circulation and serious discussion Europe and the British Geographical Imagination, 1760-1830 Paul Stock,2019-10-03 Europe and the British Geographical Imagination 1760 1830 explores what literate British people understood by the word Europe in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries Was Europe unified by shared religious heritage Where were the edges of Europe Was Europe primarily a commercial network or were there common political practices too Was Britain itself a European country While intellectual history is concerned predominantly with prominent thinkers Paul Stock traces the history of ideas in non elite contexts offering a detailed analysis of nearly 350 geographical reference works textbooks dictionaries and encyclopaedias which were widely read by literate Britons of all classes and can reveal the formative ideas about Europe circulating in Britain ideas about religion the natural environment race and other theories of human difference the state borders the identification of the centre and edges of Europe commerce and empire and ideas about the past progress and historical change By showing how these and other questions were discussed in eighteenth and nineteenth century British culture Europe and the British Geographical Imagination 1760 1830 provides a thorough and much needed historical analysis of Britain s enduringly complex intellectual relationship with Europe The London Corresponding Society, 1792-1799 Vol 1 Michael T Davis,James Epstein,Jack Fruchtman Jr,Mary Thale,2021-04-14 This six volume set reproduces the complete writings of the London Corresponding Society LCS as well as other contemporary literature and parliamentary debates and reports relating to the Society The LCS was at the forefront of the call for political reform in the late 18th century Volume 1 spans 1792 to 1794 Revisiting the Origins of Human Rights Pamela Slotte,Miia Halme,2015-09-11 Scholars of history law theology and anthropology critically revisit the history of

Finn, 1993 Working and middle class radical politics in England from the fall of Chartism in 1848 to the 1870s      The Civil War in the Age of Nationalism Duncan A. Campbell, Niels Eichhorn, 2024-04-10 While historians have acknowledged that the issues of race slavery and emancipation were not unique to the American Civil War they have less frequently recognized the conflict's similarities to other global events As renowned historian Carl Degler pointed out the Civil War was one among many such conflicts during the mid nineteenth century Understanding the Civil War's place in world history requires placing it within a global context of other mid nineteenth century political social and cultural issues and events In The Civil War in the Age of Nationalism Niels Eichhorn and Duncan A Campbell explore the conflict from this perspective taking a transnational and comparative approach with a particular focus on the period from the 1830s to the 1870s Eichhorn and Campbell examine the development of nationalism and its frequent manifestation secession by comparing the American experience with that of several other nations including Germany Hungary and Brazil They compare the Civil War to the Crimean and Franco German wars to determine whether the American conflict was the first modern war To gauge the potential of foreign intervention in the Civil War they look to the time's developing international debate on the legality of intercession and mediation in other nations insurgencies Using the experiences of Indigenous peoples in the Americas Africa and the Antipodes Eichhorn and Campbell suggest the extent to which the United States was an imperial project To examine realpolitik they study four vastly different practitioners Otto von Bismarck Louis Napoleon Count Cavour and Abraham Lincoln Finally they compare emancipation in the United States to that in Peru and the end of forced servitude in Russia closing with a comparison of the memorialization of the Civil War with the experiences of other post emancipation societies and an examination of how other nations mythologized their past conflicts and ignored uncomfortable truths in the pursuit of reconciliation The Civil War in the Age of Nationalism avoids the limitations of American exceptionalism making it the first genuine comparative and transnational study of the Civil War in an international context      Chinese Nationalism in Perspective C. X. George Wei, Xiaoyuan Liu, 2001-08-30 Wei and Liu argue that Chinese nationalism is a multifaceted concept At different historical moments and under certain circumstances it had different meanings and interacted with other competing motives and interests The authors of this timely volume all of whom are of Chinese origin and bi national education have produced a balanced and non culture bound work of scholarship It contains diverse provocative and in depth analysis of both historical and recent case studies that can shed light on the contemporary incarnation of Chinese nationalism This interdisciplinary anthology looks at variants of Chinese nationalism upheld and contended by social groups classes and power holders from the past to the present The authors argue that nationalism can be supported by both patriotic and group
