Encountering Nationalism Jyoti Puri, 2008-04-15 Encountering Nationalism introduces students to concepts of nationalism in an accessible critical and timely way Abstract arguments are bolstered by clear and specific examples drawn from momentous events and from the well of everyday life such as the aftermath of September 11 beauty pageants ethnic conflicts and sexual respectability Encountering Nationalism is an engaging introduction to the diverse meanings of nationalism and its most important aspects Addresses the rise of nationalism in the US post September 11 Brings together culturalist and state centered approaches to nationalism Underscores the importance of race gender sexuality ethnicity and religion to understanding nationalism Clarifies key concepts such as nationalism nation state gender sexuality etc Contains useful examples to illustrate key aspects of nationalism Features clear and engaging prose

Religious and Sexual Nationalisms in Central and Eastern Europe, 2015-08-26 Religious and Sexual Nationalisms in Central and Eastern Europe Gods Gays and Governments presents case studies from some ten countries that serve to explore the ways in which religion nationalism and homo sexuality intersect in public discourse It shows how religious leaders political and social movements LGBT organizations governments and media negotiate the powers of religion and state in taking position regarding sexual diversity These negotiations are as much about sexual morality as they are about national identity anti EU sentiments and the efforts of religious institutions to regain power in post communist societies Contributors are Alar Kilp Dorota Hall Koen Sloodmaeckers Magda Dolinska Rydzek Marek Miku Mariecke van den Berg Martina Topi Mihai Tarta Milo Jovanovi R Ruard Ganzevoort Srdjan Sremac Tamara Pavasovi Tro t Zlatiborka Popov Mom inovi Our Friend "The Enemy" Thomas Weber,2008 At once a book about Oxford and Heidelberg University and about the character of European society on the eve of the World War I Our Friend The Enemy challenges the idea that pre 1914 Europe was bound to collapse Woman, Body, Desire in Post-Colonial India Jyoti Puri,2002-09-11 First published in 1999 Jyoti Puri draws on post colonial and feminist theory to focus on how women in current day India conceptualize their gender and sexuality She provides a groundbreaking ethnographic study based on fifty four middle and upper class Indian women ranging from the ages of fifteen to thirty eight She argues that these women s narratives are shaped by not only the nation state but by transnational processes as well Woman Bodyand Desire in Postcolonial India connects important issues of class an nationhood to the emerging sense of female identity in India covering previously neglected topics such as menstruation gay and straight sexual experience sexual harassment and assault marriage and motherhood Puri discovers that attitudes about sexuality and gender are surprisingly similar in India and Western countries

Critical Approaches to Genocide Hülya Adak,Fatma Müge Göçek,Ronald Grigor Suny,2023-09-28 The study of genocide has been appropriate in emphasizing the centrality of the Holocaust yet other preceding episodes of mass violence are of great significance Taking a transnational and transhistorical approach this volume redresses and replaces the silencing of the Armenian Genocide Scholarship relating to the history of denial comparative approaches in the deportations and killings of Greeks and Armenians during the First World War and women s histories during the genocide and post genocide proliferated during the centennial of the Armenian Genocide in 2015 Collectively however these studies have not been enough to offer a comprehensive account of the historical record documentation and interpretation of events during 1915 1916 This study seeks to bridge the gap by unsettling nationalist narratives and addressing areas such as aesthetics gender and sexuality By bringing forward various dimensions of the human experience including the political socioeconomic cultural social gendered and legal contexts within which such silencing occurred the essays address the methodological silences and processes of selectivity and exclusion in scholarship on the Armenian Genocide The interdisciplinary approach makes Critical Approaches to Genocide a useful resource for all students and scholars interested in the Armenian Genocide and memory studies

Sex and Sexuality in Anglo-Saxon England Daniel Gillmore Calder,Carol Braun Pasternack,Lisa M. C. Weston,2004 Here is Queer Peter Dickinson,1999 Culture, Identity, Commodity Kam Louie,Tseen Khoo,2005 From David Henry Hwang s M Butterfly to Evelyn Lau s Diary of a Runaway to Fred Wah s poetry diasporic Chinese literature in English is reaching wider audiences The interdisciplinary essays in Culture Identity Commodity provide close textual readings and general theoretical frameworks from American Australian and Canadian perspectives for a range of textual productions novels autobiographies plays and Chinese cooking shows that address this dynamic field Established and emerging scholars offer timely discussions of diasporic Chinese studies drawing on transnational postcolonial globalisation and racialisation theories The collection examines what is at stake in the consideration of diasporic literatures and the connections and fissures emerging in these new critical terrains Book jacket In a Queer Country Terry Goldie,2002-07-01 A groundbreaking collection of fourteen essays on the struggles pleasures and contradictions of queer culture and public life in Canada Versed in queer social history as well as leading edge gay and lesbian studies queer theory and post colonial studies In a Queer Country confronts queer culture from various perspectives relevant to international audiences Topics range from the politics of the family and spousal rights to queer black identity from pride parade fashions to lesbian park rangers Intersections of Gender, Class, and Race in the Long Nineteenth Century and Beyond Barbara Leonardi,2018-12-29 This book explores the intersections of gender with class and race in the construction of national and imperial ideologies and their fluid transformation from the Romantic to the Victorian period and beyond exposing how these cultural constructions are deeply entangled with the family metaphor For example by examining the re signification of the angel in the house and the deviant woman in the context of unstable or contingent masculinities and across discourses of class and nation the volume contributes to a more nuanced understanding of British cultural constructions in the long nineteenth century The central idea is to unearth the historical roots of the family metaphor in the construction of national and imperial ideologies and to uncover the interests served by its specific discursive formation The book explores both male and female stereotypes enabling a more perceptive comparison enriched with a nuanced reflection on the construction and social function of class Nations, Identities, Cultures V. Y. Mudimbe,1997 Based on a 1993 international seminar headed by Mudimbe which included scholars from around the world The essays focus on the social and political concepts of nation identity and culture as they relate to exile and ethnicity National Manhood and the Creation of Modern Quebec Jeffery Vacante,2017-06-15 This intellectual history explores how the idea of manhood shaped French Canadian culture and Quebec s nationalist movement During the latter half of the nineteenth century Quebec was an agrarian society and masculinity was rooted in the land and the family and informed by Catholic principles of piety and self restraint As the industrial era took hold a new model was forged built on the values of secularism and individualism Jeffery Vacante s perceptive analysis reveals how French Canadian intellectuals defined masculinity in response to imperialist English Canadian ideals This national manhood would be disentangled from the workplace the family and the land and tied instead to one s cultural identity The new formulation was crucial in the larger struggle to modernize Quebec s institutions while preserving French Canadian community faith and culture It offered French Canadian men a way to remodel themselves participate in industrial modernity and still assert cultural authority Vir Federico Garza Carvajal,2000 A Press of Their Own Megan McGurk,2007 Atlantic Passages Mark Looker,1996 Caribbean novelist Sam Selvon was part of the new wave of post war West Indian writers George Lamming V S Naipaul and Derek Walcott among others who would redefine what English literature meant In novels such as A Brighter Sun and The Lonely Londoners Selvon invented a literary language at once playful and engaging moving to the rhythms of both literary modernism and Caribbean folk tales and calypsos Atlantic Passages is the first book length study to place Selvon s fiction at the center of postcolonial theoretical debates It measures Selvon s novels against their social and cultural contexts gauging their productive counterpoise with ideas of history and community More fully than any previous study it maps the landscape of Selvon s novels and their fictional confrontation with modernity in the immigrant enclaves of London and the newly independent Caribbean islands
