Nationaltransnational Subject Formation Media And Cultural Politics In And On The Philippines:

National/Transnational Roland B. Tolentino, 2001 This book analyzes how subjects are heralded negotiated and subverted by media in and on the Philippines

Knowing Southeast Asian Subjects Laurie J. Sears, 2011-10-17 The essays in Knowing Southeast Asian Subjects ask how the rising preponderance of scholarship from Southeast Asia is decentering Southeast Asian area studies in the United States The contributions address recent transformations within the field and new directions for research pedagogy and institutional cooperation Contributions from the perspectives of history anthropology cultural studies political theory and libraries pose questions ranging from how a concern with postcolonial and feminist questions of identity might reorient the field to how anthropological work on civil society and Islam in Southeast Asia provides an opportunity for comparative political theorists to develop more sophisticated analytic approaches A vision common to all the contributors is the potential of area studies to produce knowledge outside a global academic framework that presumes the privilege and even hegemony of Euro American academic trends and scholars

The Afterlives of Anticolonial Aesthetics Carlos Garrido Castellano, Patrick Crowley, 2025-08-06 This book develops a critical intervention in the politics of time and anticolonial aesthetics Engaging with recent debates on cultural activism and postcolonial and decolonial studies the main objective of this volume is to examine the ways in which anticolonial cultural analysis and production keeps nurturing contemporary processes of progressive social transformation The chapters in this volume argue that anticolonialism should not be bounded to a specific historical moment that of postcolonial nation building rather it should be seen as a fertile radical tradition going beyond the specific event of decolonization and informing utopian and radical futures The twelve essays engage with this argument from a wide variety of disciplines including film studies art history literary criticism and cultural and visual studies It is intended for scholars activists and students across disciplines who are interested in the intersections of culture politics and social change The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Interventions

Manalansan, Augusto Espiritu, 2016-05-10 After years of occupying a vexed position in the American academy Philippine studies has come into its own emerging as a trenchant and dynamic space of inquiry Filipino Studies is a field defining collection of vibrant voices critical perspectives and provocative ideas about the cultural political and economic state of the Philippines and its diaspora Traversing issues of colonialism neoliberalism globalization and nationalism this volume examines not only the past and present position of the Philippines and its people but also advances new frameworks for re conceptualizing this growing field Written by a prestigious lineup of international scholars grappling with the legacies of colonialism and imperial power the essays examine both the genealogy of the Philippines hyphenated identity as well as the future trajectory of the field Hailing from multiple disciplines in the humanities and social sciences the contributors revisit and contest traditional renditions of Philippine colonial histories from racial formations and the Japanese occupation to the Cold War and independence from the United States Whether addressing the contested memories of World War II the voyage of Filipino men and women into the U S metropole or migrant labor and the notion of home the assembled essays tease out the links between the past and present with a hopeful longing for various futures Filipino Studies makes bold declarations about the productive frameworks that open up new archives and innovative landscapes of knowledge for Filipino and Filipino American Studies Uncanny Histories in Film and Media Patrice Petro, 2022-06-17

Uncanny Histories in Film and Media brings together a stellar lineup of established and emergent scholars who explore the uncanny twists and turns that are often occluded in larger accounts of film and media Prompted by fresh archival research and new conceptual approaches the works included here probe the uncanny as a mode of historical analysis that reveals surprising connections and unsettling continuities The uncanny stands for what often eludes us for what remains unfamiliar or mysterious or strange Whether writing about film movements individual works or the legacies of major or forgotten critics and theorists the contributors remind us that at the heart of the uncanny and indeed the writing of history is a troubling of definitions a challenge to our inherited narratives and a disturbance of what was once familiar in the uncanny histories of our field

Extending Help Gina Gadi Opinaldo, 2005 The Filipina-South Floridian International Internet Marriage Practice Pamela S. Haley, 2013-07 This dissertation concerns the structures and individual agency of Filipina brides who met their American husbands through Internet or pen pal advertisements Popular media legal scholars and some feminists have largely described the phenomenon in terms of its oppressiveness toward the women involved thus dismissing any agency on the part of the women Similarly much of the scholarship has located the American Internet grooms as ogres who are out to exploit these women for domestic and sexual services If prominent researchers of this phenomenon are correct in their assessments that Filipina Internet brides operate as effective agents then one also assumes these women continue that agency when they settle into their new lives as Filipina wives married to American men Therefore my central research question is How has this agency manifested itself and has this manifestation been problematic for the American groom who from the typical Internet ad s text and images and coupled with prevailing American cultural assumptions assumed he was getting a submissive wife To explore possible answers to these questions I performed a rhetorical analysis of two typical Internet advertisements The focus on the ads is important to my study because the Internet advertisements both shape and reflect the popular view of the so called Filipina mail order bride Next in order to gain the Internet brides and grooms perspectives of the phenomenon I interviewed three Filipina Americano couples currently living in South Florida between November 2005 and October 2007 My findings support the scholars who forefront the brides agency and therefore reject the stereotypes projected on the Internet advertisements My findings also reject the stereotype of the exploitative husband From my interview data the women appeared agentive and the men encouraged their wives agency An unanticipated and paradoxical outcropping of the interviews was the participants descriptions of their courtship and subsequent marriages In this one area both the brides and grooms unanimously deemphasized their own agency and instead highlighted romantic narratives with each insisting that they had fallen in love
