Nations Of The World Macmillan Social Studies:

Revolutions, Nations, Empires Alexander J. Motyl, 1999 In this concise provocative and trenchant book Alexander J Motyl argues that social scientists must pay more rigorous attention to the formulation of concepts as they provide the basis for clear thinking good research and intelligent formulation of theories Focusing his conceptual explorations on three phenomena revolutions nations and nationalism and empires Motyl challenges the sloppy thinking that so often surrounds these three interrelated concepts and moves our understanding of them toward greater precision

Global Nation? John Wiseman, 1998-11-13 Globalisation was one of the most ubiquitous buzzwords of the late twentieth century yet its meaning was often elusive Retrenchments trade alliances global warming currency devaluations and so on are often explained as unavoidable consequences of globalisation and even everyday things from the food we eat to the television we watch and the clothes we wear are apparently impacted upon by globalisation This 1998 book provides an accessible exploration of the meanings and implications of globalisation The discussion is carefully grounded in the changing social economic ecological and political relationships of Australia Global Nation also looks at a range of existing and potential responses to the globalisation process arguing that there may be alternatives even though we are increasingly told that there are not

Why We Lie About Aid Pablo Yanguas, 2018-02-15 Foreign aid is about charity International development is about technical fixes At least that is what we as donor publics are constantly told The result is a highly dysfunctional aid system which mistakes short term results for long term transformation and gets attacked across the political spectrum with the right claiming we spend too much and the left that we don't spend enough The reality as Yanguas argues in this highly provocative book is that aid isn't or at least shouldn't be about levels of spending nor interventions shackled to vague notions of accountability and ownership Instead a different approach is possible one that acknowledges aid as being about struggle about taking sides about politics It is an approach that has been quietly applied by innovative development practitioners around the world providing political coverage for local reformers to open up spaces for change Drawing on a variety of convention defying stories from a variety of countries from Britain to the US Sierra Leone to Honduras Yanguas provides an eye opening account of what we really mean when we talk about aid

Blood and Debt Miguel Angel Centeno, 2015-08-26

What role does war play in political development Our understanding of the rise of the nation state is based heavily on the Western European experience of war Challenging the dominance of this model Blood and Debt looks at Latin America's much different experience as more relevant to politics today in regions as varied as the Balkans and sub-Saharan Africa The book's illuminating review of the relatively peaceful history of Latin America from the late eighteenth through the early twentieth centuries reveals the lack of two critical prerequisites needed for war a political and military culture oriented toward international violence and the state institutional capacity to carry it out Using innovative new data such as tax receipts naming of streets and public monuments and conscription records the author carefully examines how war affected the fiscal development of the state the creation of national identity and claims to citizenship Rather than building nation states and fostering democratic citizenship he shows war in Latin America destroyed institutions confirmed internal divisions and killed many without purpose or glory The Nation, 1916 Reconstruction of the Secondary-school Curriculum Walter Scott Monroe, Marion Eugene Herriott, 1928 Bulletin University of Illinois (Urbana-Champaign campus). Bureau of Educational Research, 1928 Gender and Global Restructuring Marianne H. Marchand, Anne Sisson Runyan, 2010-09-13 In this new edition of this best selling text interdisciplinary feminist experts from around the world provide new analyses of the ongoing relationship between gender and neoliberal globalization under the new imperialism in the post 9/11 context Divided into Sightings Sites and Resistances this book examines the disciplining politics of race sexuality and modernity under securitized globalization including case studies on domestic workers in Hong Kong heteronormative development policies and responses to the crisis of social reproduction and colonizing responses to AIDS in sub-Saharan Africa migration human rights and citizenship including studies on remittances the emergence of neoliberal subjectivities among rural Mexican women Filipina migrant workers and women's labor organizing in the Middle East and North Africa feminist resistance incorporating the latest scholarship on transnational feminism and feminist critical globalization movement activism including case studies on men's violence on the Mexico US border pan indigenous women's movements and cyberfeminism Providing a coherent and challenging approach to the issues of gender and the processes of globalization in the new millennium this important text will be of interest to students and scholars of IPE international relations economics development and gender studies (Re)Constructing Memory: Textbooks, Identity, Nation, and State James H. Williams, Wendy D. Bokhorst-Heng, 2016-07-08 This book engages readers in thirteen conversations presented by authors from around the world regarding the role that textbooks play in helping readers imagine membership in the nation Authors' voices come from a variety of contexts some historical some contemporary some providing analyses over time But they all consider the changing portrayal of diversity belonging and exclusion in multiethnic and diverse societies where silenced invisible marginalized members have struggled to make their voices heard and to have their identities incorporated into the national narrative The authors discuss portrayals of past exclusions around religion ethnicity sexual orientation as they look at the shifting boundaries of insider and outsider This book is thus about who we are not only demographically but also in terms of the past especially how and whether we teach discredited pasts through textbooks The concluding chapters provides ways forward in thinking about what can be done to promote curricula that are more inclusive critical and positively bonding in increasingly larger and more inclusive contexts Bulletin of the California State Department of Education ,1944

Contemporary Health Studies Louise Warwick-Booth,Ruth Cross,Diane Lowcock,2021-04-20 Contemporary Health Studies provides an accessible introduction to current issues and key debates in understanding and promoting health Its up to date global focus places a strong emphasis on the social political and environmental dimensions of health Part One sets the scene by looking closely at the definition of health and outlining the aims and purpose of health studies Part Two explores the different disciplines that underpin health studies such as sociology psychology anthropology and health psychology incorporating new theoretical frameworks to help readers understand health Part Three applies this knowledge to address the determinants of health including chapters on individual factors the role of public health the latest policy influences on health and the growing importance of the global context Each chapter contains contemporary statistics and evidence alongside carefully developed learning features designed to highlight the fundamentals of each topic to apply these to in depth case studies from global antibiotic resistance to the challenge and promise of digital data and to pose questions for reflection and debate Contemporary Health Studies is an essential guide for undergraduate health students written by three authors who have a wealth of teaching experience in this subject area Their book will inspire readers to consider the human experience of health within contemporary global society as it is mediated by individual societal and global contexts
