Congress. Senate. Select Committee on Indian Affairs, 1980 Native America Collected Margaret Denise Dubin, 2001 I argue for a history of Native American art that is politically informed Margaret Dubin writes and for a criticism of contemporary Native American fine arts that is historically founded Integrating ethnography discourse analysis and social theory in a careful mapping of the Native American art world this insightful new study explores the landscape of intercultural spaces the physical and philosophical arenas in which art collectors anthropologists artists historians curators and critics struggle to control the movement and meaning of art objects created by Native Americans Dubin examines the ideas and interactions involved in contemporary collecting in particular to understand how marketplace demands have homogenised Western perceptions of authentic Native American art In doing so she reveals the power relations of an art world in which Native American artists work within and against a larger system that seeks to control people by manipulating objects Native American Arts and Cultures Mary Connors, 1994-10 Explore the traditional arts and cultures of Native Americans through hands on activities Native American Art and Folklore David Campbell, 1993 Native American Expressive Culture Akwe:kon Press, National Museum of the American Indian (U.S.), 1994 A tribute to enduring and thriving Native artistic traditions Ute Indian Arts & Culture Taylor Museum, 2000 Focuses on arts and culture of the Ute tribes This book contains essays contributed by Ute cultural leaders and by other scholars revealing the richness of Ute material culture It is illustrated with colour photographs of 139 historic artefacts and over 40 contemporary works as well as many historic photographs of Ute life Southwest Native American Arts and Material Culture Nancy J. Parezo, Ruth M. Perry, Rebecca Allen, 1991 Native American Art Petra Press, 2006-06-23 Discover the beliefs inventions and materials that helped the art and culture of Native Americans of North America to develop Native American Voices on Identity, Art, and Culture Lucy Fowler Williams, William S. Wierzbowski, Robert W. Preucel, 2005 The dynamic discourse stimulated by 78 magnificent objects created by Native Americans over the years now housed in the University of Pennsylvania Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology and the responses of contemporary Native Americans to those objects forms the core of this book As seen in these vibrant pages the Museum is not a place of dead objects from the past It is rather a place of people and ideas about human societies and cultures a place of living active objects a place where the present can connect to the past The volume editors frame important issues and concepts the nature of Native American identity in the past and present indigenous sovereignty the active destruction of Native American cultures and languages over the past half millennium along with their perseverance and strength to survive and finally the power of ancestors As Richard M Leventhal the Museum s Williams Director notes in his Foreword the Native American scholars and artists who contribute to this book are assisting the Museum in its attempt to become a more integral part of today s world It is the preservation of ideas embodied within objects from the past and present that allows for the representation and strength of Native American identity Native American Arts and Cultures, Gr. 4-8 , No Reservations Fergus M. Bordewich, 2006 This collection of work by both Native and non Native artists speaks of the complexity of Native American historical and cultural influences in contemporary culture Rather than focusing on artists who attempt to maintain strict cultural practices it brings together a group of artists who engage the larger contemporary art world and are not afraid to step beyond the bounds of tradition Focusing on a group of 10 artists who came of age since the initial Native Rights movement of the 1960s and 70s the book emphasizes art that does not so much look Indian but incorporates Native content in surprising and innovative ways that defy easy categorization The Native artists featured here focus on the evolution of cultural traditions The non Native artists focus primarily on the history of European colonization in America Artists include Matthew Buckingham Lewis deSoto Peter Edlund Nicholas Galanin Jeffrey Gibson Rigo 23 Duane Slick Marie Watt Edie Winograde and Yoram Wolberger Art and Cultural Heritage Barbara T. Hoffman, 2006 Art and Cultural Heritage is appropriately but not solely about national and international law respecting cultural heritage It is a bubbling cauldron of law mixed with ethics philosophy politics and working principles looking at how cultural heritage law policy and practice should be sculpted from the past as the present becomes the future Art and cultural heritage are two pillars on which a society builds its identity its values its sense of community and the individual The authors explore these demanding concerns untangle basic values and look critically at the conflicts and contradictions in existing art and cultural heritage law and policy in its diverse sectors The rich and provocative contributions collectively provide a reasoned discussion of the issues from a multiplicity of views to permit the reader to
