Wolfe, JoAnn Nevers, Catherine S. Fowler, Darla Garey-Sage, Marvin Cohodas, 2025-03-11 This large scale book presents breathtaking Native American basketry made by the Washoe people who have lived in the Lake Tahoe region of California and Nevada for millennia This book explores fine art and functional basketry made by Washoe weavers who are recognized for their intricate and meticulous weaving techniques and complex designs Drawing inspiration and natural materials from their ancestral homelands Washoe baskets reflect the deep cultural reverence of their makers for the environment particularly the sacred site of Lake Tahoe the surrounding Sierra Nevada and adjacent valleys Among Washoe weavers Louisa Keyser also known as Datsolalee is widely regarded as one of the most innovative important and famous basketmakers in North America The book provides a deeper understanding of the cultural historical and political contexts in which these remarkable baskets were created making it an essential read for anyone interested in Indigenous art and culture

California Indian Basketry Wayne A. Thompson, Alan P. Garfinkel, 2021 This richly illustrated photographic overview captures the beauty and artistry of the remarkable world class Native American Indian baskets of California circa 1895 to 1940 known as the Florescence or Flowering It is a tribute to these artisans and includes biographical snapshots of weavers and portraits of their masterpiece California Indian baskets which today exist in museums and private collections throughout the United States Collecting highly complex and artistic Native American baskets became a successful tourist business in the late 19th and early 20th century tourism in the United States exploded as a result of the expansion of the railway system to hitherto relatively inaccessible locations This new business benefitted both collectors of this art form and the weavers who created them The transition from woven baskets used for utilitarian use to more durable and less expensive metal cookware and storage vessels allowed weavers the time needed to innovate and create baskets specifically catering to tourist interests During this period of Florescence some of the world s most intricate beautiful and artistic baskets were woven particularly by highly talented weavers representing several Native American tribes located throughout California Rods, Bundles & Stitches Raúl A. López, Christopher L. Moser, 1981 American Indian Basketry Otis Tufton Mason, 1988-01-01 The origins of basketry are lost in the mists of prehistory but making baskets is certainly one of the oldest and most nearly universal crafts of mankind In the Americas basket artifacts found in caves in Utah have been dated at 7000 B C while twined baskets said to be at least 5 000 years old have been uncovered in Peru In the American Southwest an entire Indian culture ca 100 700 A D is known as Basket Maker because of the distinctive baskets it produced This exhaustive survey two volumes in one of American Indian basketry perhaps the finest book ever published on the subject documents basketmaking throughout the Americas in Eastern North America Alaska and the Pacific Northwest Western Canada Oregon California and the Interior Basin as well as Mexico Central and South America Spanning a wide range of indigenous cultures Aleutian Tlinkit Shoshonean Athapascam etc the detailed carefully researched discussions in this book offer a wealth of information about woven and coiled basketry watertight basketry materials basketmaking techniques and preparation ornamentation and symbolism as well as the uses of baskets as receptacles in preparing and serving food for gleanings and milling in mortuary customs in religion and social life in trapping carrying water and in many other areas of Indian life An interesting and informative chapter on collectors and collections and the preservation of baskets followed by a helpful biography rounds out the book In addition the author once Curator of Ethnology at the U S National Museum part of the Smithsonian Institution enhanced this encyclopedic study with over 450 excellent photographs and illustrations For collectors preservationists anthropologists students of crafts and culture modern basketmakers this is an indispensable reference a massively rich source of information about baskets the peoples who made them how they were made and their role in native American life and culture
