Hanagan,2019-09-01 When the North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO became involved in security operations during the War in Afghanistan it faced a range of complex challenges including a highly motivated Afghan insurgency that changed over time and repeatedly defied assumptions Conflicts within NATO also posed challenges The alliance brought together a quarter of the world s nations each with its own goals and interests in an effort to stabilize an agrarian country that posed no immediate security threat For more than a decade through changes in leadership and strategy the nations experienced bitter disagreements resentments and a conflict that escalated to a level of violence and uncertainty few had anticipated In NATO in the Crucible Deborah Lynn Hanagan analyzes these challenges and explains how the alliance maintained cohesion despite them She examines why NATO succeeded in Afghanistan when history suggests most coalitions fracture under such intense pressure In the end she argues member nations summoned the political will and organizational capacity to cooperate and endure And they agreed above all that failure in Afghanistan would be catastrophic both for NATO and for the world

International Intervention in the Post-Cold War World Michael C.

Davis, Wolfgang Dietrich, Bettina Scholdan, 2017-07-28 International intervention on humanitarian grounds has been a contentious issue for decades First it pits the principle of state sovereignty against claims of universal human rights Second the motivations of intervening states may be open to question when avowals of moral action are arguably the fig leaf covering an assertion of power for political advantage These questions have been salient in the context of the Balkan and African wars and U S policy in the Middle East This volume undertakes a serious systematic and broadly international review of the issues
