Arcimboldo Thomas DaCosta Kaufmann, 2010-05-15 In Giuseppe Arcimboldo's most famous paintings grapes fish and even the beaks of birds form human hair A pear stands in for a man's chin Citrus fruits sprout from a tree trunk that doubles as a neck All sorts of natural phenomena come together on canvas and panel to assemble the strange heads and faces that constitute one of Renaissance art's most striking oeuvres. The first major study in a generation of the artist behind these remarkable paintings, Arcimboldo tells the singular story of their creation. Drawing on his thirty-five year engagement with the artist, Thomas DaCosta Kaufmann begins with an overview of Arcimboldo's life and work, exploring the artist's early years in sixteenth-century Lombardy, his grounding in Leonardesque traditions, and his tenure as a Habsburg court portraitist in Vienna and Prague. Arcimboldo then trains its focus on the celebrated composite heads, approaching them as visual jokes with serious underpinnings: images that poetically display pictorial wit while conveying an allegorical message. In addition to probing the humanistic literary and philosophical dimensions of these pieces, Kaufmann explains that they embody their creator's continuous engagement with nature painting and natural history. He reveals in fact that Arcimboldo painted many more nature studies than scholars have realized, a finding that significantly deepens current interpretations of the composite heads. Demonstrating the previously overlooked importance of these works to natural history and still life painting, Arcimboldo finally restores the artist's fantastic visual jokes to their rightful place in the history of both science and art.

Trattato Di Chimica, 1833 Painters of Reality Andrea Bayer, Mina Gregori, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2004 Dictionary of Women Artists: Introductory surveys ; Artists, A-I Delia Gaze, 1997 First Published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis, an informa company The Culture of Fragments Clara Orban, 2023-11-20 Works of art such as paintings with words on them or poems shaped as images communicate to the viewer by means of more than one medium. Here is presented a particular group of hybrid art works from the early twentieth century to discover in what way words and images can function together to create meaning. The four central artists considered in this study investigate word-image forms in their work. F. T. Marinetti invented parole in libert  among other ideas to free language from syntactic connections. Umberto Boccioni experimented with newspaper clippings on the canvas from 1912-1915, and these collages constitute an important exploration into word-image forms. Andr  Breton's collection of poems Clair de terre (1923) contains several typographical variations for iconographic effect. Ren Magritte explored the relationship between words and images, juxtaposing signifiers to contradictory signifieds on the canvas. A final chapter introduces media other than poetry and painting on which words and images appear: Posters, the theater, and the relatively new medium of cinema foreground words and images constantly This volume will be of interest to scholars of twentieth century French or Italian literature or painting and to scholars of word and image studies Altomani & Sons
