

Our tendency to attribute our behavior to our context or to blame others for it is directly in contrast to how we tend to judge others' actions. When it comes to other people, we are far more likely to attribute the bad meal to their inability to cook rather than to other causes. This is called the fundamental attribution error.

Our Context:

Graceful Evangelism Frances S. Adeney,2010-12 This comprehensive text shows that despite different views and contexts Christians can craft a grace filled approach to sharing God's good news with the world Western Culture in Gospel

Context David J. Kettle,2011-04-18 Approaching us in sovereign freedom God comes alive to us we come alive to God and all creation comes alive as a sign pointing to God In the gospel of Jesus Christ God gives and discloses himself in this immediate way as our ultimate context and host within the provisional medium of creation This life giving gospel is met by blindness however among those who live today in a collapsing Western culture This is because their imaginative world is shaped by habitual assumptions and practices that lie largely unacknowledged deep within that culture and that preclude openness to the gospel Moreover Western Christians themselves widely share these assumptions betraying the gospel into cultural captivity God calls for the conversion of Western culture to the living gospel Crucially this must include as Lesslie Newbigin recognized a repentance from modern Western assumptions about knowledge Part One explores seeking knowing and serving God as providing a true paradigm for understanding all human enquiry knowledge and action Part Two examines ten resulting hot spots where conversion from prevailing cultural assumptions is vital for authentic mission to Western culture

Context and Learning P. Balsam,A. Tomie,2014-01-14 First published in 1984 The effects of contextual stimuli on the performance of conditioned behaviors have recently become the object of intense theoretical and empirical scrutiny This book presents the work of researchers who have attempted to characterize the role of context in learning through direct experimental manipulation of these stimuli Their work reveals that context has important and systematic effects upon the learning and performance of conditioned responses The roles played by context are diverse and the problems confronted in attempting to evaluate and differentiate contextual functions are formidable These considerations are discussed in the introductory chapter The remaining chapters present an analysis of the role of context in Pavlovian operant and discrimination learning paradigms Ministry in Context Richard Trist,2023-01-16 Ministry in Context A Guide to Theological Field Education and Ministry Internships in Australia and New Zealand has been written for students field placement supervisors and theological college coordinators to introduce the basic principles and practices of theological field education and ministry internships The book covers all aspects of field based learning including biblical and historical foundations the place of calling and vocation the importance of supervision the practice of theological reflection and the setting and evaluation of goals Chapters have been written by experts across Australia and New Zealand and reflect the diversity and cultural uniqueness of this region How to Use Storytelling in Your Academic Writing Timothy G. Pollock,2021-02-26 Good writing skills and habits are critical for scholarly success Every article is a story and employing the techniques of effective storytelling enhances scholars abilities to share their insights and ideas increasing the impact of their research This book draws on the tools and techniques of storytelling employed in fiction and non fiction writing to help academic writers enhance the clarity presentation and flow of their scholarly work and provides insights on navigating the writing reviewing and coauthoring processes

Pauline Letters: Texts @ Contexts Menghun Goh,2024-02-08 In this volume contributors from various social locations in North America Asia Europe and Australia analyse and interpret Pauline letters Engaging both the biblical text and the lives and contexts from different sociocultural religious methodological perspectives each contributor demonstrates the dynamic interaction between text and context in their understanding and explanation of the text The first part of the volume highlights the hermeneutical focus in interpretation That is how a certain chosen worldview e g Lutheran liturgical worldview affects one s decision in prioritizing a certain textual dimension and level instead of others Part Two elucidates how even a technical analysis of the text e g epistolography is context oriented Part Three shows how such a contemporary contextual interpretation is also an intercontextual and intertextual interpretation that entails intersectional and global local experiences
