The Gift of Patience Mary Nichols,1983-01-01 The Word Of My Patience Dag Heward-Mills,2023-01-06 Anything that God says requires patience is a Word of my patience Most of the promises of God are examples of the Word of my patience God promises many things in the Bible but most of these promises need patience to see them fulfilled The Word of my patience is a Word that requires you to endure much provocation annoyance or pain without complaint The Word of my patience is a Word that requires you to endure tests and temptations and misfortune without losing your temper or becoming irritated The Word of my patience requires a steady quiet perseverance and diligence if you are to ever see the manifestation of the promise of God Once again Bishop Dag Heward Mills painstakingly outlines in this expos the experiences of great men in the Bible who had to endure the Word of my patience in order to receive God s promises Dear friend in fulfilling the will of God and surging forward to experience the Word of my patience you must accept that you will go through many things which you must accept with calmness forbearance and fortitude in order to see His promises come to pass in your life Patience
