Turning Points I' 2007 Ed. , Manila, 1645 Pedro Luengo, 2020-10-08 Manila 1645 reconstructs what the city of Manila was like before the earthquakes of the mid seventeenth century The book demonstrates the importance of addressing the history of Southeast Asia as a multi layered framework rather than a series of entangled histories In doing so Manila is contextualized not merely as a Spanish settlement connected to New Spain via America but instead within Southeast Asia situated between the Chinese and the Sul Seas and located in the centre of commercial routes used by Armenian Dutch and Portuguese traders This historical and geographical context is crucial to understanding later cultural dialogues Urban planning housing and architecture and social networks in the city are also examined The book will appeal to students and scholars interested in early modern history global history and architectural history

Environment, Trade and Society in Southeast Asia, 2015-03-20 In Environment Trade and Society in Southeast Asia A Longue Dur e Perspective eleven historians bring their knowledge and insights to bear on the long Braudelian sweep of Southeast Asian history In doing so they seek both to debunk simplistic assumptions about fragile traditions and transformational modernities and to identify real repeating patterns in Southeast Asia's past clientelistic political structures periodic tectonic and climatic disasters ethnic occupational specializations long cycles of economic globalization and deglobalization Their contributions range across many centuries from the Austronesian expansion to the Aceh tsunami and from the Sanskrit cosmopolis to the Asian financial crisis The book is inspired by and dedicated to Peter Boomgaard a scholar whose work has embodied the Braudelian spirit in Southeast Asian historiography This title is available online in its entirety in Open Access

Frontiers of Colonialism Christine D. Beaulé, 2017-07-11 For decades archaeologists have limited studies of frontiers and colonialism to a single polity empire or epoch This has been especially true of historical archaeologists but in this intriguing collection Beaulé assembles archaeologists from around the world to determine the commonalities and differences of colonialism across the self imposed divide of contact v pre contact The work considers the expanding frontiers of the Romans Iroquois Egyptians Filipinos and the more familiar Mayan and Incan empires The goal of this volume is to expand the theoretical interpretations and perspectives to all archaeologists working in frontier colonial contexts not just those of the European empires CCP Encyclopedia of Philippine Art: Philippine architecture Cultural Center of the Philippines, 1994

Flammable Cities Greg Bankoff, Uwe Lübken, Jordan Sand, 2012-01-19 In most cities today fire has been reduced to a sporadic and isolated threat But throughout history the constant risk of fire has left a deep and lasting imprint on almost every dimension of urban society This volume the first truly global study of urban conflagration shows how fire has shaped cities throughout the modern world from Europe to the imperial colonies major trade entrepôts and non European capitals right up to such present day megacities as Lagos and Jakarta Urban fire may hinder commerce or even spur it it may break down or reinforce barriers of race class and ethnicity it may serve as a pretext for state violence or provide an opportunity for displays of state benevolence As this volume demonstrates the many and varied attempts to master marginalize or manipulate fire can turn a natural and human hazard into a highly useful social and political tool Southeast Asian

Houses Seo Ryeong Ju et al., 2017-09-15 The modernization of traditional houses in each country may be understood as a process by which various aspects of culture and architecture originating from China India European colonial countries and international style were assimilated into various forms and elements of traditional houses In contemporary houses recently developed in Southeast Asian cities influences of more nearby regions such as South Korea Hong Kong and Singapore can easily be found Even under such multi cultural influences Southeast Asian countries sought compromises and maintained each country's unique housing culture resulting in the differentiation of each country's housing style This book aims to find out the uniqueness of each Southeast Asian country's modern housing through the understanding of the modern housing typologies of each country produced by the process of modernization Previous studies of Southeast Asia's urban housing were mostly on political institutional and economic issues which can be said to be macro issues However this book focuses on the forms of urban housing which is rather a micro issue compared to previous studies The Philippines Since Pre-Spanish
