Perspectives on Contemporary Ethnic Conflict Santosh C. Saha, 2006-01-01 The existing traditions of inquiry into ethnic conflict can be classified into four categories essentialism instrumentalism constructivism and institutionalism All four traditions have a distinguished lineage but none can really account for the worldwide spread of ethnic violence We need to move from the local to the macro or global This book using methodology from sociology history and politics will present the complexities of ethnic conflict in terms of linguistics religion territory and tribes in various regions These brilliant essays look at some of the most conflicted sites in the world where ethnic violence has been created and played out Burma Indonesia Rwanda Burundi Nigeria the Sudan Mexico and Guyana Divided into two parts Perspectives on Contemporary Ethnic Conflict is a rich text for scholars of conflict studies focusing on the sources and dynamics of ethnic violence and providing descriptions of ethnic conflict across the globe

Language, Literacy, and Power in Schooling Teresa L. McCarty, 2006-04-21 Language Literacy and Power in Schooling brings critical ethnographic perspectives to bear on language literacy and power in culturally and linguistically diverse contexts showing how literacy and schooling are negotiated by children and adults and how schooling becomes a key site of struggle over whose knowledge discourses and literacy practices count Part I examines tensions between the local and the general in literacy development and use Part II considers face to face interactions surrounding literacy practices in ethnically diverse classrooms and Part III widens the ethnographic lens to position literacy practices in the context of globalization and contemporary education policies Each section includes a substantive introduction by the editor and a synthetic commentary by a leading literacy researcher Above all this is a book oriented toward social action Unpacking the complexity of literacy practices and experiences in diverse settings the authors seek not only to build new knowledge but to inform and transform the pedagogies and policies that limit human potentials The chapters in this volume have much to teach us about the roots of inequality and the possibilities for positive change Together they highlight the urgent need for critical literacy researchers to engage politically confronting education policies that deny the rich multiplicity of human literacies thereby carving ever deeper cleavages between those with and without access to literacies of power The dual focus on language and literacy with critical ethnographic accounts of identity and schooling speaks to a growing constituency of scholars and practitioners concerned with the role of literacy and discourse in alternatively affirming or negating knowledge power and identity both within and outside of schools
