Reflections On Language Learning:

Reflections on Language Learning Leila Barbara, Mike Scott, 1994 Antonieta Celani has long been known as a senior figure in ELT in Brazil Through the Brazilian ESP Project and her other endeavours centred on the Catholic University of Sao Paulo her work has made a considerable impact on the wider world outside Brazil In this volume 20 contributions from colleagues who have worked with her come together to honour her achievements The volume centres on a humanist view of language learning with papers on ELT Project development Teacher education Business interaction analysis and Language Processing Reflections on Language and Language Learning Marcel Bax, C. Jan-Wouter Zwart, 2001 In Reflections on Language and Language Learning In honour of Arthur van Essen thirty one leading language scholars and educational linguists in the Netherlands and abroad with whom over the years Professor van Essen one of the grandees of applied linguistics has collaborated provide original essays and studies which discuss the most recent insights and trends in the fields of linguistics and foreign language teaching While interdisciplinary in scope the volume encompasses theoretical advances in educational linguistic thinking for example the perceptive articles written by Michael Byram Christopher N Candlin Natalia Gvishiani Peter Jordens Jan Koster Leo van Lier and Bondi Sciarone as well as a sample of the latest methodological developments in areas such as ELT LSP and content based language teaching cases in point are the useful contributions by Jeanine Deen Hilde Hacquebord Michal Goethals Paul Meara Ignacio Rodriguez Sanchez Rosamond Mitchell Christopher Brumfit and Uta Th rmer Reflections on Language Noam Chomsky, 1975 Noam Chomsky s work in linguistics has revolutionized our understanding of language In these remarkable nontechnical Reflections Chomsky considers the point and purpose of studying language and explores some of the more general intellectual implications that result from the study of linguistics The questions he considers are the classical ones From Plato to the present time philosophers have been baffled and intrigued by how human beings with their limited and personal experience achieve such rich systems of knowledge beliefs and values systems that guide their actions and their interpretations of experience In answer to this fundamental question Chomsky argues that the growth of language is analogous to the development of a bodily organ and is in large measure predetermined by genetic factors Throughout these Reflections Chomsky offers incisive analyses of the controversies raging today among psychologists philosophers and linguists over the acquisition of cognitive structures the way language interacts with other mental organs and the way cognitive structures enter into and guide human activity He explores the social and intellectual factors that have led to the dominance of certain ways of thinking and asks why the study of mind and behavior has so often followed a path remote from the general approach of the natural sciences In examining some of the implications of recent work her suggests that the conception of man as totally malleable not only is false but also serves naturally as a support for reactionary social doctrines Publisher Promoting Reflection on Language Learning Neil Curry, Phoebe Lyon, Jo Mynard, 2023-09-12 This book brings together a wide range of studies practical applications and reflective accounts written by academics working at a university in Japan to present a cohesive overview of their collaborative efforts to promote learner reflection within their institution The book contributes to a shift in language education towards promoting learner responsibility and ownership of their learning through developing a deeper sense of awareness of and motivation for the learning process It makes a convincing case for showing that not only is promoting reflection possible but it can also be effectively integrated into language learning activities with significant benefits to the learners The chapters are highly practical for researchers and practitioners with the research chapters containing instruments which make them ideal for replication studies The text includes a wealth of practical tools and activities for practitioners who will be able to experience first hand how to facilitate student success and increase satisfaction

Reflections on Task-Based Language Teaching Rod Ellis, 2018-06-18 Task based language teaching is now a well established pedagogic approach but problematic issues remain such as whether it is appropriate for all learners and in all instructional contexts This book draws on the author's experience of working with teachers together with his knowledge of relevant research and theory to examine the key issues It proposes flexible ways in which tasks can be designed and implemented in the language classroom to address the problems that teachers often face with task based language teaching It will appeal to researchers and teachers who are interested in task based language teaching and the practical and theoretical issues involved It will also be of interest to students and researchers working in the areas of applied linguistics TESOL and second language acquisition

Teacher Education and Teacher Professional Development in the COVID-19 Turn Nur Arifah Drajiati, Kristian Adi Putra, 2022-11-29 These proceedings present a selection of papers from the ICTTE 2021 conference While face to face classroom instruction is brought back there are a lot of lessons learned from the COVID 19 pandemic that schools teacher training and education institutions and government have to take into account There is a need to reconsider what additional knowledge and skills pre service teachers and in service teachers need to be prepared for to anticipate such a similar unexpected situation in the future Additionally there is also a need to listen to in service teacher experiences during the emergency remote teaching and integrate the positive lessons that they have gained such as the use of technology into the current post pandemic face to face classroom instruction This proceeding is designed for teacher educators researchers in service teachers and pre service teachers in the field of language education math and science education and social science education who are interested in these topics

Pedagogical Reflections On Learning Languages In Instructed Settings Maria Noelia Ruiz-Madrid, Esther Usó-Juan, 2009-03-26 Pedagogical Reflections on Learning Languages in Instructed Settings is intended to provide the latest pedagogical reflections that derive from research in a variety of key areas within the discipline of language learning Thus this volume aims at helping practising language teachers to update their teaching methodology The book has fifteen chapters that are grouped around five sections The first section of the book includes three chapters which outline past approaches to language learning and highlight advances in our understanding of how languages are likely to be learned and taught These three chapters provide the theoretical grounding for the rest of the volume by discussing outstanding concepts in the language learning field namely those of eclecticism Chapter 1 communication Chapter 2 and learner autonomy Chapter 3 The second section of the book contains three chapters which explore new directions in the field that have recently caught the attention of language researchers and practitioners namely the Information and Communication Technology ICT in language learning Chapter 4 the use of language corpora Chapter 5 and finally the use of the portfolio as a new assessment tool responding to new pedagogical demands Chapter 6 The third section of the book consists of three chapters which discuss the role of learners individual variables such as affect Chapter 7 learning styles Chapter 8 and learning strategies Chapter 9 crucial for understanding the nature of language learning The fourth section of the book has five chapters and provides insights into understanding the nature of the four language skills that is to say listening Chapter 10 speaking Chapter 11 reading Chapter 12 and writing Chapter 13 This section also addresses the issue of assessment with the aim of increasing awareness on the duality teaching assessing and its pedagogical dimension Chapter 14 The book concludes with the fifth section which includes a single chapter that pulls all aforementioned topics together and highlights connections to a student centred approach which involves a reformulation of language teachers teaching practices Chapter 15

Improving Learner Reflection for TESOL Li-Shih Huang, 2021-06-03 Presenting comprehensive research conducted with learners and educators in a range of settings this volume showcases self reflection as a powerful tool to enhance student learning The text builds on empirical insights to illustrate how language professionals can foster critical self reflection amongst learners of English as an additional language This text uses ecologically sensitive practitioner research that addresses issues of both practical and pedagogical significance in the fields of TESOL language teaching and learning and teacher education By synthesizing interdisciplinary research and theory chapters show how various types of self reflection including guided and non guided group and individual forms and written oral and technology mediated reflection can promote autonomous self regulated learning amongst students at various levels Whilst offering readers a strong grounding in the theoretical and empirical knowledge that supports self reflection the volume gives constant attention is given to praxis with a focus on effective pedagogical strategies and tools needed to implement encourage and evaluate critical learner reflection in readers own teaching or research This volume will be a critical resource for language teaching professionals interested in critical learner reflection including in service pre service and teacher educators in the field of TESOL Scholars and researchers in the fields of applied linguistics and language education more broadly will find this volume valuable

Promoting Teacher Reflection in Second Language Education Thomas S. C. Farrell, 2014-11-27 Taking the concept and the practice of reflective teaching forward this book introduces a well structured flexible framework for use by teachers at all levels of development from pre service to novice to the most experienced The framework outlines five levels of reflective practice Philosophy Principles Theory of Practice Practice

Beyond Practice and provides specific techniques for teachers to implement each level of reflection in their work Designed to allow readers to take either a deductive approach moving from theory into practice or an inductive approach where they start from a practice into theory position the framework can be used by teachers alone in pairs or in a group Critical Reflection and the Foreign Language Classroom Terry Osborn, 2005-03-01 This book introduces pre service and in service foreign language teachers to the basic concepts of critical educational study as applied to the sociological position occupied by foreign language education in the United States Although contemporary foreign language teachers typically know about second language acquisition and instructional methodology they are not prepared to understand issues of power in relation to for example language variety language status and education The author addresses issues such as the supposed failure of foreign language education the educational filter role played by language classes the concept of foreignness as seen in national standards language curricula and textbooks and the implications of these issues in terms of power relationships and cultural mediation both in and out of the classroom The reader is encouraged to analyze the forms of cultural struggle which can be found within the foreign language classrooms of the United States including the likely impact those struggles have on members of the dominant and subordinate cultures Teachers are led through the development of skills in critical reflection and pedagogical application geared to social justice
