Distorted Reflections Stuart Taberner, 2023-11-27 This volume presents a new approach to the political engagement of three major West German authors Uwe Johnson G nther Grass and Martin Walser Whereas analysis of intellectuals participation in the political upheaval of the late 1960s has tended to focus on speeches written in response to contemporary events this book examines works of fiction for the way in which authors reflected upon their engagement in a more contemplative medium Examination of these literary reflections reveals a mismatch between writers confidence as public intellectuals and their private anxiety Beginning with a survey of intellectual engagement until the late 1960s the present volume moves onto a theoretical discussion of the legitimacy of authors public interventions Three chapters are devoted to the fiction of Uwe Johnson G nther Grass and Martin Walser Uwe Johnson s fiction embodies retreat an acknowledgment of political impotence G nther Grass s novels present the failings of the engaged intellectual as exemplary to an audience which is expected to learn from this inadequacy Finally Martin Walser s intellectual characters stylise private weakness to appeal to a middle brow audience titillated by the public figure s confession of impotence In Walser s work political engagement degenerates into pure form into a Camp gesture of authors obsession with their private selves Maxims and Reflections
