Reflections on American Education James Allen Johnson,Victor L. Dupuis,John H. Johansen,1991 Research and Reflections on Southeast Asian American Education and Advancement Wayne E. Wright,Vikrant Chap,Phitsamay S.

Uy,Chhany Sak-Humphry,Vichet Chhuon,Bryan Thao Worra,2025-05-15 This book is in commemoration of the twentieth anniversary of the Journal of Southeast Asian American Education and Advancement JSAAEA and the fiftieth anniversary of Southeast Asian American refugee resettlement in the United States Pivotal research articles reviews and creative works from past issues of JSAAEA have been selected for this volume to document the history and experiences of Cambodian Laotian Hmong and Vietnamese Americans since initial refugee resettlement began in the United States in 1975 as well as the experiences of more recent Southeast Asian immigrant and refugee groups Reviews of academic books novels memoirs children s books and motion pictures further highlight Southeast Asian American perspectives and experiences Creative works including poetry and short stories by Cambodian Laotian Hmong Vietnamese Thai and Burmese American writers provide additional and often intimate insights and reflections on the Southeast Asian American experience My Reflections on Educational Psychology, Science, and American Schools William E. Roweton,1980 Reflections on The Moral & Spiritual Crisis in Education David E. Purpel,William M. McLaurin,2004 This book takes a sharply critical view of contemporary society with a searing indictment of our morally and intellectually bankrupt educational system Uniquely the book contains both the original version of David Purpel s highly influential Moral and Spiritual Crisis in Education first published in 1989 as well as an updated critique of that work reflections from our current times of growing despair about the directions of education and the nation Reflections on the Moral and Spiritual Crisis in Education focuses on the possibility and necessity of generating hope through the redemptive and energizing power of the human spirit Reflections of the Future of American Education James J. Gallagher,1982 Reflections of the Japanese Education System in Britain Mari Hiraoka,2024-10-28 This book explores British reflections of Japanese education between 1858 and 1914 by referring to accounts by British observers derived from documentary sources such as newspapers journal articles published books and official reports Hiraoka argues that British attitudes and comments on Japanese education reflect concerns about their own education system International economics and politics of the time as well as the voices of the Japanese are also taken into account British interpretations of the advantages of Japanese education are explained with two seemingly contradictory views traditions inherited in Japan and modern institutions newly introduced using the Western model The book illustrates how this dual view of Japan affected the rise and fall of British interest in Japanese education over half a century It also explores a broad range of phenomena educational reforms legislation and practice science networks exhibitions international trade and military affairs to observe how Japanese education was viewed by the British It consults a wide range of primary sources most of which are published or digitally archived Shedding new light on the transnational history of the educational relationship between Japan and Britain this book will be an attractive base for future researchers in the fields of history of education cultural history and comparative education Reflection in Action Kimberly A. Kline, 2023-07-03 This guidebook aims to stimulate student affairs professionals and higher education faculty alike to adopt new approaches when discussing sensitive or controversial topics with their students It provides teachers and professionals with a critical social understanding of social justice social agency reflection and actionable knowledge to develop new and effective skills practice them in safe spaces and apply them in the field It offers tools that are equally applicable in a classroom or cocurricular setting The exceptional teachers scholars and professionals contributing to this volume provide a diverse and alternative lens through which to examine the intersection of social justice education and professional practice The text is organized in three overarching themes Part One Existing Theories Examining Claims and Proposing New Understandings Part Two Concrete Tools and Safe Spaces for Practicing Difficult Dialogues in Professional Practice and Part Three Professional Development Action Research and Social Agency In Part Four Moving Forward the book concludes with a chapter on implications for daily life and practice The action oriented research model provides strategies and frameworks for using social science research to engage in critical social and educational problem solving The emphasis is on moving colleges and universities to widen their moral and ethical lenses beyond understanding diversity to developing multicultural competence and enriching their campus communities Written for faculty in higher education and student affairs professionals along with master s and doctoral students in these fields this book provides a framework that is grounded in research and sound pedagogies and theories
