Scott.). Jean Henri MERLE D'AUBIGNÉ,1847 History of the Reformation of the Sixteenth Century Jean Henri Merle d'Aubigné,1894 Reformation Reader Denis R. Janz, Although deeply political economic and social the European Reformations of the sixteenth century were at heart religious disputes over core Christian theological issues Denis Janz's A Reformation Reader is unabashed in its generous selection of key theological and related texts from five distinct Reformation sites. Along with plenty on the late medieval background, the Lutheran, Calvinist, Radical English, and Catholic Reformations are all well represented here. Janz's selection of more than 100 carefully edited primary documents captures the energy and moment of that tumultuous time. The new edition incorporates a dozen readings by and about women in the Reformation, adds a new chapter on Thomas Müntzer and the Peasants' War, and adds illuminating graphics.

The Scofield Bible R. Todd Mangum, Mark S. Sweetnam, 2009-12-10. The Scofield Reference Bible was responsible for popularizing dispensational theology, eventually making dispensationalism the theology assumed by English-speaking Christians for much of the twentieth century.

Justification, Volume 1 Michael Horton, 2018-11-27. The first of a two-volume project delving into the doctrine of justification, Michael Horton seeks not simply to recover a clear message of its role in modern Reformed theology but also to bring a fresh discovery of the gospel in a time when contemporary debates around justification have reignited. The doctrine of justification stands at the center of our systematic reflection on the meaning of salvation and grace as well as our piety, mission, and life together. And yet within mainline Protestant and evangelical theology it's often taken for granted or left to gather dust in favor of modern concerns and self-renewal. Volume 1 is an exercise in historical theology, exploring the doctrine of justification from the patristic era to the Reformation. This book provides a map for contemporary discussions of justification, identifying and engaging principal sources: Origen, Chrysostom, Augustine, Thomas Aquinas, John Duns Scotus, William of Ockham, Gabriel Biel, and the magisterial reformers. It studies the transformations of the doctrine through Aquinas, Scotus, and the nominalists leading up to the era of the Reformation and the Council of Trent. It concludes by examining the hermeneutical and theological significance of the Reformers' understanding of the law and the gospel and the resultant covenantal scheme that became formative in Reformed theology. Engaging and thorough, Justification will not only reenergize the reader, whether Protestant or Catholic, with a passion for understanding this essential and long-running doctrinal conversation but also challenge anyone to engage critically with the history of the Church and the heart of the gospel.
