Roman Beanfeast:

The Roman Beanfeast Gillian Cross, 2009 Like every other school in the country Davy's class are working on the Romans. Everyone is to do a piece of work based on the visit they made to a Roman fort and the best will get a prize at the Roman Feast planned by the school. Davy's problem is that bossy Molly from next door keeps stealing his ideas. That is until Davey draws inspiration from Julius Sneezer the Roman soldier. A funny and insightful story from the popular prize winning author of The Demon Headmaster. Journal of Horticulture, Cottage Gardener, and Country Gentleman (varies slightly), 1909

Creating Writers James Carter, 2002-02-07 This unique and comprehensive text offers an original approach to teaching creative writing by exploring ideas, giving advice and explaining workshop activities and has many contributors from some of today's most popular children's authors including Jacqueline Wilson, Roger McGough, Philip Pullman, Malorie Blackman and David Almond. Creating Writers is a practical writing manual for teachers to use with upper primary and lower secondary level pupils that covers poetry, fiction and non-fiction. Creative ICT Antony Smith, Simon Willcocks, 2014-03-18 First Published in 2005. Promoting pupils' creativity in using ICT, this book also encourages learning across core and foundation subjects. The text includes flexible activities for pupils to work through on their own in small groups or at home, time-saving screen shots for pupils to refer to as they work through the activities, helpful examples of work so that pupils know what to aim for, additional support sheets that can be used by the pupil or the teacher, departure points for integrated studies and extension activities that will encourage further creativity. For primary and secondary teachers and ICT coordinators.

Talking Books James Carter, 2013-01-11 Talking Books sets out to show how some of the leading children's authors of the day respond to these and other similar questions. The authors featured are Neil Ardley, Ian Beck, Helen Cresswell, Gillian Cross, Terry Deary, Berlie Doherty, Alan Durant, Brian Moses, Philip Pullman, Celia Rees, Norman Silver, Jacqueline Wilson and Benjamin Zephaniah. They discuss with great enthusiasm their childhood reading habits, how they came to be published, how they write on a daily basis, how a particular book came together, a type of writing that they are especially known for. Through in-depth interviews, they each reveal their approach to their craft. Much is known and spoken of the product, that is the children's book, but it is rare that writers are given the opportunity to talk at length about the process of writing for children. Talking Books redresses the balance by presenting a wide selection of authors of fiction, non-fiction and poetry reflecting upon the joys and challenges of the craft, creativity and process of writing for children. Cities, Peasants and Food in Classical Antiquity Peter Garnsey, 1998 Sixteen essays in the social and economic history of the ancient world by a leading historian of classical antiquity are here brought conveniently together. Three overlapping parts deal with the urban economy and society, peasants and the rural economy and food supply and food crisis. While focusing on eleven centuries of antiquity from archaic Greece to late imperial Rome, the essays include theoretical and comparative analyses of food crisis and pastoralism and an interdisciplinary study of the health status of the people of Rome using physical anthropology and nutritional science. A variety of subjects are treated from the misconduct of a builders association in late antique Sardis to a survey of the cultural associations and physiological effects of the broad bean Teaching Thinking Skills Across the Primary Curriculum Belle Wallace, 2012-10-12 This book presents a practical and universal framework for the teaching of thinking skills and problem solving across the primary curriculum using examples of topics from the National Curriculum classroom techniques and tried and tested activities which systematically develop pupils thinking and problem solving skills While accommodating the need of all learners to develop effective thinking skills the book also caters to the need to differentiate learning activities to extend the more able learners Written by a team of teachers who recognize the day to day problems that face their colleagues in the classroom this accessible jargon free book will be welcomed by teachers SENCOs and ABCOs alike The Oxford Companion to Food Alan Davidson, 2014 Twenty years in the making the first edition of this bestselling reference work appeared in 1999 to worldwide acclaim Combining serious and meticulously researched facts with entertaining and witty commentary it has been deemed unique by chefs and reviewers around the globe It contains both a comprehensive catalog of foodstuffs crackers and cookies named for battles and divas body parts from toe to cerebellum breads from Asia to the Mediterranean and a richly allusive account of the culture of food whether expressed in literature and cook books or as dishes special to a country or community Retaining Alan Davidson s wisdom and wit this new edition also covers the latest developments across the whole spectrum of this subject Tom Jaine has taken the opportunity to update the text and alert readers to new perspectives in food studies There is new coverage on attitudes towards food consumption production and perception such as food and genetics food and sociology and obesity New entries include terms such as convenience foods gastronomy fusion food leftovers obesity local food and many more There are also new entries on important personalities who are of special significance within the world of food among them Clarence Birdseye Henri Nestle and Louis Pasteur Now in its third edition the Companion maintains its place as the foremost food reference resource for study and home use
