

The background of the book cover is a detailed illustration in a classical style. It depicts a Roman military camp or fort situated in a valley. In the foreground, a stone wall with crenellations runs across the bottom left. Two Roman soldiers in full armor stand on the wall, looking towards the camp. Below them, a Roman chariot with two horses is being driven. In the middle ground, a large rectangular building with a tiled roof, possibly a granary or barracks, stands near a road. A group of soldiers is marching along the road towards the background. The landscape is hilly and sparsely wooded with dark, rounded trees. In the far distance, a range of blue mountains is visible under a pale, hazy sky. The overall color palette is muted, with earthy browns, greys, and blues.
