Frères Ennemis William Cloonan, 2018-09-25 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library Frères Ennemis focuses on Franco American tensions as portrayed in works of literature from approximately the mid nineteenth century to the present An Introduction is followed by nine chapters each focused on a French or American literary text which shows the evolution devolution of the relations between the two nations at a particular point in time While the heart of the analysis consists of close textual readings social cultural and political contexts are introduced to provide a better understanding of the historical reality influencing the individual novels a reality to which these novels are also responding Chapters One through Five covering a period from the mid 1870s to the end of the Cold War discuss significant aspects of the often fraught relationship from the theoretical perspective of Roland Barthes theory of modern myth described in his Mythologies Barthes theory helps situate Franco American tensions in a paradigmatic structure while at the same time it is supple enough to allow for shifts and reversals within the paradigm Subsequent chapters explore new French attitudes toward the powerful potentially dominant influence of American culture on French life In these sections I argue that recent French fiction displays more openness to the American experience than has existed in the past and as such contrasts with the more static American approach to French culture , William Styron Melvin J. Friedman, 1974 Examines the broad and far ranging sympathies of this versatile and least parochial of contemporary American writers

The Globalizing World and the Human Community, 2016-03-02 Publication of the proceedings of the 3rd Seoul International Literature Forum held in May 2011 will make the papers presented at the forum available to a readership larger than the audience that participated in its various events The theme of the forum was The Globalizing World and the Human Community Included under this general theme were sections dealing with various problems the writer faces in today's world the conditions of increasing pressure in an enlarged market which the writer cannot help but be aware of and be influenced by the changing nature of the readership as it becomes more multicultural and global and the status of writing in the developing multimedia world Continuing with the topics of previous forums there were also sections on ecological problems which are being made all the more acute by the process of globalization problems of enormous importance for all of humanity but more sensitive issues for writers with their deep involvement in the reality of people whose life cannot be lived too far away from the earthly environment The second part of the main theme stated above The Human Community expresses what we suppose to be a major concern of many writers writing today the possibility of a human community emerging out of the globalization though we grant at the same time that absorption of a deeply personal kind in human reality also belongs among the writer's privileges From the Foreword by Kim Uchang

Contemporary Fiction in French Anna-Louise Milne, Russell Williams, 2021-03-25 Demonstrates how contemporary fiction in French has become a polycentric and transnational field of vibrant and varied experimentation The Memory of Nature in Aboriginal, Canadian and American Contexts Françoise Besson, Claire Omhové, Héliane Ventura, 2014-06-12 This volume engages the reader's interest in the relationship that binds man to nature a relationship which makes itself manifest through certain literary or visual artefacts produced by Native or non Native writers and artists It ranges from the study of literatures mainly from Canada including Quebec and Acadia but also from Britain the United States of America France Turkey and Australia to the exploration of films photographs paintings and sculptures produced by Aboriginal artists from North America Thanks to a relational paradigm founded on spatial and temporal enlargement it re imagines the critical outlook on indigenous production by instigating a dialogue between endogenous and exogenous scholars novelists and artists and by weaving together interdisciplinary approaches spanning anthropology geology ecocriticism and the study of myths From the writings by Scott Momaday to those by Tomson Highway from Pauline Johnson to Louise Erdrich or from the photographs by William McFarlane Notman and Edward Burtynsky or the films by Randy Redroad to the paintings by Emily Carr it explores art as the sedimentation of nature It simultaneously interrogates the representation of nature and the nature of representation as a geological and generic process inscribed in the history of mankind Without eclipsing differences and imposing a reified Eurocentric critical discourse upon indigenous productions this volume does not colonize indigenous texts or indulge in cultural appropriation of works of art but looks for historical mythological or geological traces of the past a past characterized by the intimacy between man and animal man and rock or man and plant a past which is allowed to resurface through the creative and critical outlooks that are bestowed upon its subjacent or subterranean existence It resurfaces not as nostalgic memory but as an interactive fertilization giving the present a new life in which the non human provides a key to the understanding of the human bond to nature

The New Land Richard Chadbourne, Hallvard Dahlie, 2006-01-01 The essays in this volume were originally presented at a workshop held at the University of Calgary on August 15 1977 and sponsored by the Calgary Institute for the Humanities The phrase the new land underwent careful scrutiny and reassessment during the course of the conference and the insights that resulted from the readings and discussions were of considerable value to participants and observers alike Chronologically and thematically the essays cover a wide range from La Nouvelle France as seen by the early missionaries and by the French Romantic writer Chateaubriand to variations on the new land theme in present day Quebec from the Prairies as seen by an early homesteader novelist from France Constantin Weyer to the Manitoba of Gabrielle Roy which in turn is contrasted to the Nebraska of Willa Cather from a historical recreation of the Saskatchewan landscape and history by a gifted contemporary novelist Rudy Wiebe to a paradisaical celebration of British Columbia reflected in the later works of Malcolm Lowry What emerged from all of this among other things was the articulation of a mythology about the new land that was far more complex and expansive than the one derived originally through an old world perspective

America Unbound Antonio Barrenechea, 2016-11-15 This original contribution to hemispheric American literary studies comprises readings of three important novels from Mexico Canada and the United States Carlos Fuentes's Terra Nostra Quebecois writer Jacques Poulin's Volkswagen Blues and Native American writer Leslie

Marmon Silko's Almanac of the Dead The encyclopedic novel has particular generic characteristics that serve these writers as a vehicle for the reincorporation of hemispheric histories Starting with an examination of Moby Dick as precursor Barrenechea shows how this narrative genre allows Fuentes Poulin and Silko to reflect the interconnected world of today as well as to dramatize indigenous and colonial values in their narratives His close attention to written documents visual representations and oral traditions in these encyclopedic novels sheds light on their comparative cultural relations and the New World from pole to pole This study amplifies the scope of America across cultures and languages time and tradition

A Writer's Topography Jason Herbeck, Vincent Grégoire, 2015-08-25 A Writer's Topography examines French Algerian Nobel Prize laureate Albert Camus's intimate yet often unsettled relationship with natural and human landscapes Much like the Greek hero Sisyphus about whom he wrote his famous philosophical essay Camus sustained a deep awareness of and appreciation for what he termed le visage de ce monde the face of this earth This wide ranging collection of essays by Camus scholars from around the world demonstrates to what extent topography is omnipresent in Camus's life and works Configurations and contemplations of landscape figure prominently in his fictional works on both a literal and figurative level from the earliest writings of his youth to his final unfinished novel Le Premier Homme Furthermore as a core component of the way in which Camus perceived conceived and expressed the human condition topography constitutes an over arching and particularly profound dimension of his personal public and philosophical thought

Diaries Real and Fictional in Twentieth-Century French Writing Sam Ferguson, 2018-03-09 This volume is the first study of the diary in French writing across the twentieth century as a genre which includes both fictional and non fictional works From the 1880s it became apparent to writers in France that their diaries a supposedly private form of writing would probably come to be published strongly affecting the way their readers viewed their other published works and their very persona as an author More than any other Andr Gide embraced the literary potential of the diary the first part of this book follows his experimentation with the diary in the fictional works Les Cahiers d'Andr Walter 1891 and Paludes 1895 in his diary of the composition of his great novel Le Journal des faux monnayeurs 1926 and in his monumental Journal 1889 1939 1939 The second part follows developments in diary writing after the Second World War inflected by radical changes in attitudes towards the writing subject Raymond Queneau's works published under the pseudonym of Sally Mara 1947 1962 used the diary playfully at a time when the writing subject was condemned by the literary avant garde Roland Barthes's experiments with the diary 1977 1979 took it to the extremes of its formal possibilities at the point of a return of the writing subject Annie Ernaux's published diaries 1993 2011 demonstrate the role of the diary in the modern field of life writing Throughout the century the diary has repeatedly been used to construct an oeuvre and author but also to call these fundamental literary concepts into question

Divided Highways Heather Macfarlane, 2019-06-25 The road trip genre well established in the literatures of Canada is a natural outcome of the nation's obsession with geography Divided Highways examines road narratives by Anglo Canadian Qu

b cois and Indigenous authors and the sense of place and nationhood in these communities Geography describes the land and history peoples it just as memories connect us to place This is why road trips are such a feature of writing in Canada allowing the travellers to claim at least symbolically the terrain they have traversed Macfarlane examines works by a variety of writers from each of these communities including Gilles Archambault Jeannette Armstrong Jill Frayne Tomson Highway Claude Jasmin Robert Kroetsch Jacques Poulin Aritha van Herk and Paul Villeneuve to name but a few Studying a diversity of road narratives from Anglo Canadian Qu b cois and Indigenous populations not only demonstrates the existence of a very specific road genre but is also revelatory of very diverse and often conflicting perceptions of nationhood It is these expressions of sovereignty that are integral to ongoing discussions of reconciliation and decolonization This book is published in English Cet ouvrage tudie l existence et la tradition du roman de la route au Canada La g ographie d crit le territoire et l histoire lui insuffle vie tout comme les souvenirs sont des points d attache un lieu donn Voil pourquoi les road trips ont une place privil gi e dans l critique d expression anglaise fran aise et autochtone du Canada ils permettent aux voyageurs de revendiquer du moins symboliquement le terrain qu ils ont couvert C est l intersection de l histoire et de la g ographie qui conf re toute sa signification un voyage qui alimente cet esprit des lieux ou qui permet d en constater l absence Les voyages sont r v lateurs des int r ts propres aux trois groupes examin s dans le cadre de cette tude Le d sir et parfois la n cessit d entreprendre un voyage les compagnons de voyage ainsi que les destinations de m me que l histoire qui s crit au fil des distances parcourues sont autant d indicateurs de cette notion de l espace et du concept de nation au sein du pays Pour illustrer ce ph nom ne ce livre examine des oeuvres litt raires d une gamme d crivains anglophones qu b cois et autochtones dont Gilles Archambault Jeannette Armstrong Jill Frayne Tomson Highway Linda Hogan Scott Gardiner Claude Jasmin Robert Kroetsch Lee Maracle Jacques Poulin Aritha van Herk et Paul Villeneuve L approche comparative aux litt ratures du Canada est le prolongement logique aux tudes postcoloniales dans la mesure o elle r v le les complexit s de m me que les sp cificit s de diverses communaut s contribuant ainsi une meilleure compr hension de collectivit s nationales Elle propose en outre des histoires qui font le contrepoids aux tudes transnationales Ce livre est publi en anglais

Contemporary American Fiction in the European Classroom Laurence W. Mazzeno, Sue Norton, 2022-04-06 This book offers insight into the ways students enrolled in European classrooms in higher education come to understand American experience through its literary fiction which for decades has been a key component of English department offerings and American Studies curricula across the continent and in Great Britain and Ireland The essays provide an understanding of how post World War II American writers some already elevated to canonical status and some not are represented in European university classrooms and why they have been chosen for inclusion in coursework The book will be of interest to scholars and teachers of American literature and American studies and to students in American literature and American studies courses
