Medieval Christian Perceptions of Islam John Victor Tolan, 2013-12-02 For medieval Christians Islam presented a series of disquieting challenges and individual Christians portrayed Muslim culture in varied ways according to their interests and prejudices These fifteen original essays focus on unfamiliar texts that reflect the wide range of medieval Christianity's preoccupation with Islam treating works from many different periods and in a wide range of genres and languages The Emergence of Early Yiddish Literature Jerold C. Cheyette, 2018-08-06 Before France became France its territories included Occitania roughly the present day province of Languedoc The city of Narbonne was a center of Occitanian commerce and culture during the eleventh and twelfth centuries For most of the second half of the twelfth century that city and its environs were ruled by a remarkable woman Ermengard who negotiated her city's way through a maze of everchanging dynastic alliances Fredric L. Cheyette's masterful and beautifully illustrated book is a biography of an extraordinary warrior woman and of a unique vulnerable doomed society Throughout her long reign viscountess Ermengard roamed Occitania receiving oaths of fidelity negotiating treaties settling disputes among the lords of her lands and camping with her armies before the walls of besieged cities She was born into a world of politics and warfare but from the Mediterranean to the North Sea her name echoed in songs that treated the arts of love The land between the Rhone and the Pyrenees was a delicately balanced world in which honor dispute and the fragile communities of loyalty and family held a stateless society together In Cheyette's prose there rises before us a world we had not imagined in which women were powerful lords moving back and forth across what we now call Spain France and Italy to play the harsh political games essential to the preservation of their realms But the region was also fertile ground for religious practices deemed heretical by the Church The attempt to eradicate them would spawn the Albigensian Crusade which destroyed the cosmopolitan world of Ermengard and the troubadours the world that lives again in this book The Faces of Time Jean Blacker, 2014-06-30 The twelfth century witnessed the sudden appearance and virtual disappearance of an important literary genre the Old French verse chronicle These poetic histories of the British kings which today are treated as fiction were written contemporaneously with Latin prose narratives which are regarded as historical accounts In this pathfinding study however Jean Blacker asserts that twelfth century authors and readers viewed both genres as factual history Blacker examines four Old French verse chronicles Gaimar's Estoire des Engleis c 1135 Wace's Roman de Brut c 1155 and Roman de Rou c 1160 1174 and Benoît de Sainte-Maure's Chronique des Ducs de Normandie c 1174 1180 and four Latin narratives William of Malmesbury's Gesta Regum c 1118 1143 and Historia Novella c 1140 1143 Orderic Vitalis's Historia Ecclesiastica c 1118 1140 and Geoffrey of Monmouth's Historia Regum Britanniae c 1138 She compares their similarity in three areas the authors stated intentions their methods of characterization and narrative development and the possible influences of patronage and audience expectation on the presentation of characters and events This exploration reveals remarkable similarity among the texts including their idealization of historical and even legendary figures such as King Arthur It opens fruitful lines of inquiry into the role these writers played in the creation of the Anglo-Norman regnum and suggests that the Old French verse chronicles filled political, psychic and aesthetic needs unaddressed by Latin historical writing of the period

Archetypes and the Fourth Gospel Brian Larsen, 2018-06-14 Employing Northrop Frye's system of archetypal literary criticism the use of romance, tragedy, irony and satire and comedy Brian Larsen offers a compelling summary of the essential governing framework and means of exchange between literature and theology Characters in the Fourth Gospel are examined through a specific archetype and reciprocally these characters illuminate and inform important theological aspects of their respective archetypes Jesus and romance hero, story Pilate and tragedy the Jews and Thomas and irony and Peter and comedy This volume further clarifies the understanding of Frye's archetypes and identifies the key variable between each one the relationship between 1 a belief or ideal and 2 experience or reality Helping to advance dialogue between literature, biblical studies and theology and providing insightful readings for a number of Fourth Gospel characters and texts Larsen's examination will appeal to those seeking a new perspective on the themes of the New Testament or those seeking theological insights into literature

Multilingualism and Mother Tongue in Medieval French, Occitan, and Catalan Narratives Catherine E. L  glu, 2010-05-15 The Occitan literary tradition of the later Middle Ages is a marginal and hybrid phenomenon caught between the preeminence of French courtly romance and the emergence of Catalan literary prose In this book Catherine L  glu brings together for the first time in English prose and verse texts that are composed in Occitan French and Catalan sometimes in a mixture of two of these languages This book challenges the centrality of canonical texts and draws attention to the marginal the complex and the hybrid It explores the varied ways in which literary works in the vernacular composed between the twelfth and fifteenth centuries narrate multilingualism and its apparent opponent the mother tongue L  glu argues that the mother tongue remains a fantasy condemned to alienation from linguistic practices that were by definition multilingual As most of the texts studied in this book are works of courtly literature these linguistic encounters are often
