Booksellers, Stationers and Fancy Goods Journal of Australia and New Zealand ,1928 American-Australian Cinema Adrian Danks,Stephen Gaunson,Peter C. Kunze,2018-01-29 This edited collection assesses the complex historical and contemporary relationships between US and Australian cinema by tapping directly into discussions of national cinema transnationalism and global Hollywood While most equivalent studies aim to define national cinema as independent from or in competition with Hollywood this collection explores a more porous set of relationships through the varied production distribution and exhibition associations between Australia and the US To explore this idea the book investigates the influence that Australia has had on US cinema through the exportation of its stars directors and other production personnel to Hollywood while also charting the sustained influence of US cinema on Australia over the last hundred years It takes two key points in time the 1920s and 1930s and the last twenty years to explore how particular patterns of localism nationalism colonialism transnationalism and globalisation have shaped its course over the last century The contributors re examine the concept and definition of Australian cinema in regard to a range of local international and global practices and trends that blur neat categorisations of national cinema Although this concentration on US production or influence is particularly acute in relation to developments such as the opening of international film studios in Melbourne Sydney Adelaide and the Gold Coast over the last thirty years the book also examines a range of Hollywood financed and or conceived films shot in Australia since the 1920s Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson,L.W. Conolly,2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial

Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce,1930 By the Book Patrick Buckridge,Belinda McKay,2007-09 Queensland a place of barren land and wild politics with subtropical weather beaches and natural wonders is the subject of this rich literary history Chronicling a wide range of literature from the first days of European settlement to the present day this collection touches upon thematic topics such as travel stories writing for children and indigenous writings The role of institutions such as schools public libraries the press and publishers as well as how they have contributed to the shaping of Queensland s literary development is also included Notable Americans of Czechoslovak Ancestry in Arts and Letters and in Education

Miloslav Rechcigl Jr.,2021-11-02 As pointed out in my last two publications no comprehensive study has been undertaken about the American Learned Men and Women with Czechoslovak roots The aim of this work is to correct this glaring deficiency with the focus on immigration from the period of mass migration and beyond irrespective whether they were born in their European ancestral homes or whether they have descended from them Whereas in the two mentioned monographs the emphasis has been on scholars and social and natural scientists and men and women in medicine applied sciences and engineering respectively the present compendium deals with notable Americans of Czechoslovak ancestry in arts and letters and in education With respect to women although most professional fields were closed to them through much of the nineteenth century the area of arts and letters was opened to them as noted earlier and as this compendium authenticates

Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1977 Notable American Women with Czechoslovak Roots Miloslav Rechcigl Jr.,2019-09-16 Even though there exist only a few general studies on the subject of Czechoslovak American women this is not at all a reflection of the paucity of work done by these women as this publication demonstrates This monograph is a compendium of notable American women with Czechoslovak roots who distinguished themselves in a particular field or area from the time they first immigrated to America to date Included are not only individuals born on the territory of former Czechoslovakia but also their descendants This project has been approached strictly geographically irrespective of the language or ethnicity Because of the lack of bibliographical information most of the monograph comprises biobibliographical information in which area a plethora of information exists As the reader will discover these women have been involved practically in every field of human endeavor in numbers that surprise On the whole they have been noted for their independent spirit and nonconforming role Harlem Nights Deirdre O'Connell,2021-11-02 The 1920s were a time of wonder and flux when Australians sensed a world growing smaller turning faster and for some skittering off balance American movies music and dance brought together what racial lines kept apart A spirit of youthful rebellion collided with the promise of racial perfectibility stirring deep anxieties in white nationalists and moral reformers

African American jazz represented the type of modernism that cosmopolitan Australians craved and the champions of White Australia feared. Enter Sonny Clay's Colored Idea. Snuck in under the wire by an astute promoter, the Harlem style revue broke from the usual blackface minstrel fare, delivering sophisticated, liberating rhythms. The story of their Australian tour is a tale of conspiracy, a secret plan to kick out and keep out undesirable expressions of modernism, music and race. From the wild jazz clubs of Prohibition era LA to Indigenous women discovering a new world of black resistance, this anatomy of a scandal fuelled frame up brings into focus a vibrant cast of characters from Australia's Jazz Age. Records of the Proceedings and Printed Papers of the Parliament Australia. Parliament, 1926. The Spectacular Modern Woman Liz Conor, 2004-07-16. Liz Conor explores the role of media technology in the emergence of the modern woman in the 1920s. At once liberating, confining, the media images of women set standards of appearance that were closely tied to ideas about the roles a woman could fulfill, from city girl to mannequin to flapper. Mujeres de cine Isabel Coixet, 2015. Partiendo de una caja propiedad de un proyccionista andaluz de principios del siglo XX repleta de trozos de celuloide en los que quedaban reflejadas hechizantes poses de actrices del cine mudo, este libro se pregunta cómo afectar a aquellas imágenes de mujeres de mundo hipersofisticadas a la mujer española de aquellos años tan alejada de esos seductores cómicos hollywoodienses.
