Instruments / Food and Instrumental Music Gisa Jähnichen, 2021-11-21 This 7th volume of SIMP is dedicated to two large themes that were discussed in the last Study Group Symposium held online and arranged by the Music Faculty of the University of the Visual and Performing Arts Colombo Sri Lanka in March 2021 Re invention and Sustainability of Musical Instruments and Instrumental Music and Food Thirteen contributions were compiled in this volume relating to the first theme while seven contributions were chosen to represent the second The first part of the contributions illustrates that musical instruments have a long and regionally intertwined history Often it is hard to say who invented a specific type first as well as to answer if musical instruments were used symbolically or supported in any way supported regional cultural aspects or what feature of musical instruments had the strongest impact on local developments The last seven contributions deal with various phenomena such as banquet music ritual music and food offerings instrumental ambience music and festivals

Making Musical Time Guerino Mazzola, Alex Lubet, Yan Pang, Jordon Goebel, Christopher Rochester, Sangeeta Dey, 2021-11-15 This book is a comprehensive examination of the conception perception performance and composition of time in music across time and culture It surveys the literature of time in mathematics philosophy psychology music theory and somatic studies medicine and disability studies and looks ahead through original research in performance composition psychology and education It is the first monograph solely devoted to the theory of construction of musical time since Kramer in 1988 with new insights mathematical precision and an expansive global and historical context The mathematical methods applied for the construction of musical time are totally new They relate to category theory projective limits and the mathematical theory of gestures These methods and results extend the music theory of time but also apply to the applied performative understanding of making music In addition it is the very first approach to a constructive theory of time deduced from the recent theory of musical gestures and their categories Making Musical Time is intended for a wide audience of scholars with interest in music These include mathematicians music theorists ethno musicologists music psychologists educators therapists music performers philosophers of music audiologists and acousticians Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress.
