The romance of poisons, by R. Cromie in collaboration with T.S. Wilson Robert Cromie, 1903 The Collaborative Literary Relationship of Percy Bysshe Shelley and Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley Anna Mercer, 2019-07-26 How did Percy Bysshe Shelley and Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley two of the most iconic and celebrated authors of the Romantic Period contribute to each other's achievements This book is the first to dedicate a full length study to exploring the nature of the Shelleys literary relationship in depth It offers new insights into the works of these talented individuals who were bound together by their personal romance and shared commitment to a literary career Most innovatively the book describes how Mary Shelley contributed significantly to Percy Shelley's writing whilst also discussing Percy's involvement in her work. A reappraisal of original manuscripts reveals the Shelleys as a remarkable literary couple participants in a reciprocal and creative exchange. Hand written evidence shows Mary adding to Percy's work in draft and vice versa. A focus on the Shelleys' texts set in the context of their lives and especially their travels is used to explain how they enabled one another to accomplish a quality of work which they might never have achieved alone. Illustrated with reproductions from their notebooks and drafts this volume brings Mary Shelley and Percy Bysshe Shelley to the forefront of emerging scholarship on collaborative literary relationships and the social nature of creativity. Ethnographic

Collaborations in Latin America J. Nash, H. Buechler, 2016-05-04 This volume examines the importance of establishing egalitarian relationships in fieldwork and acknowledging the impact these relationships have on scholarly findings and theories. The editors and their contributors investigate how globalization affects this relationship as scholars are increasingly involved in shared networks and are subject to the same socio-economic systems as locals. The editors argue for a processual approach that begins with an analysis of researchers' personal and professional backgrounds that inform the cooperative relationships they establish during fieldwork, often a long-term process in countries such as Mexico, Guatemala, Honduras, Colombia, Ecuador, Bolivia, and Brazil. A Sense of Sexuality Evelyn Eaton Whitehead, Evelyn Eaton, 1990 Constant Companion: Your Practical Path to Real Interaction with God Ami Loper, 2024-02-06 Every human heart longs to be truly known and deeply loved. Each person has a God-given longing for fulfillment and a sense of belonging that is met only in a relationship with God. But does God really want a relationship with you? Yes, and He demonstrates His desire for that relationship over and over again in Scripture. Constant Companion is an exploration of practical wisdom for growing this intimate relationship with God. Drawing from scriptural references, personal anecdotes, and spiritual wisdom, author Ami Loper emphasizes that our desire for belonging is not a coincidence and is instead a reflection of God's own yearning for an intimate relationship with each of us. Throughout history, humanity has sought various means of satisfying this need, yet ultimate fulfillment lies only in embracing the loving presence of a Constant Companion. God. This book will show you how to get past feelings of unworthiness, unwillingness, and other distractions, and how to listen to God's voice through the practices of meditation, prayer, and Scripture reading. Constant Companion is a stirring invitation to embrace our deepest yearnings and embark on a transformative journey to bask in the awe of His abiding presence. Studies in Symbolic Interaction

Norman K. Denzin, 2012-10-31 The essays in this bi-annual series consist of original research and theory within the general sociological perspective known as symbolic interactionism. Longer than conventional journal-length articles, the essays wed micro and macro concerns within a qualitative ethnographic, autoethnographic, and performance studies orientation.

Romance & Revolution Michael Serna, 2011-07-08 Romance Revolution is a compilation of poetry and prose that attempts to give a voice to the aspirations of liberating the human soul from the chains of poverty prejudice and anything else that might inhibit it from achieving its fullest potential of happiness From political poetry that can be vitriolic and incendiary to patriotic and heartfelt to romantic verses that express an intense love for women to philosophical poems about religion evolution joy and sports Romance Revolution is a poetic expression of the author's worldview that is expansive and inclusive of a wide myriad of concepts and ideas found within the human experience

The prose section of this tome features a few essays which intend to spark intelligent and reflective thought and dialogue amidst the reader and the people she or he comes in contact with Not everyone will agree with everything that is written here but it is sure to provoke a strong response in the reader's mind Advancing Older Adults' Well-being Yang Wang, 2024-07-18 This book introduces part of the advances of the aging research conducted by Dr Yang Wang and his collaborators since 2022 It covers several topics related to older adults including their psychological and social well being their role as caregivers and care receivers the impact of the maltreatment experience in early life and how witnessing elder abuse could influence children This book is composed of nine research articles and manuscripts Most of the studies were conducted in China or USA using nationally representative sample This book is a valuable resource for readers who care about older adults well being and the advancement of it Love and Romance in Britain, 1918 - 1970 A. Harris, T. Jones, 2014-11-11 The new histories of love and romance offered within this edited collection illustrate the many changes but also the surprising continuities in understandings of love romance affection intimacy and sex from the First World War until the beginning of the Women's Liberation movement The Romance of Race Jolie A. Sheffer, 2013-01-02 In the United States miscegenation is not merely a subject of literature and popular culture It is in many ways the foundation of contemporary imaginary community The Romance of Race examines the role of minority women writers and reformers in the creation of our modern American multiculturalism The national identity of the United States was transformed between 1880 and 1930 due to mass immigration imperial expansion the rise of Jim Crow and the beginning of the suffrage movement A generation of women writers and reformers particularly women of color contributed to these debates by imagining new national narratives that put minorities at the center of American identity Jane Addams Pauline Hopkins Onoto Watanna Winnifred Eaton Mar a Cristina Mena and Mourning Dove Christine Quintasket embraced the images of the United States and increasingly the world as an interracial nuclear family They also reframed public debates through narratives depicting interracial encounters as longstanding unacknowledged liaisons between white men and racialized women that produced an incestuous mixed race nation By mobilizing the sexual taboos of incest and miscegenation these women writers created political allegories of kinship and community Through their criticisms of the nation's history of exploitation and colonization they also imagined a more inclusive future As Jolie A Sheffer identifies the contemporary template for American multiculturalism in the works of turn of the century minority writers she uncovers a much more radical history than has previously been considered Romance of Transgression in Canada Thomas Waugh, 2006-07-18 From pornography to autobiography from the Cold War to the sexual revolution from rural roots and mythologies to the queer meccas of Vancouver Toronto and Montreal The Romance of Transgression in Canada is a history of sexual representation on the large and small screen in English Canada and Quebec Thomas Waugh identifies the queerness that has emerged at the centre of our national sex obsessed cinema filling a gap in the scholarly literature In Part One he explores the explosive canon of

artists such as Norman McLaren Claude Jutra Colin Campbell Paul Wong John Greyson Patricia Rozema Lea Pool Bruce Labruce Esther Valiquette Marc Paradis and Mirha Soleil Ross Part Two is an encyclopaedia of short essays covering 340 filmmakers video artists and institutions The Romance of Transgression in Canada is both a scholarly account and a celebration of Canadian LGBTQ films moving images that have scandalized conservative politicians but are the envy of queer cultural festivals around the world Iranian Romance in the Digital Age Janet Afary, Jesilyn Faust, 2021-01-28 Following the 1979 Islamic Revolution there was a dramatic reversal of women's rights and the state revived many premodern social conventions through modern means and institutions Customs such as the enforced veiling of women easy divorce for men child marriage and polygamy were robustly reintroduced and those who did not conform to societal strictures were severely punished At the same time new social and economic programs benefited the urban and rural poor especially women which had a direct impact on gender relations and the institution of marriage Edited by Janet Afary and Jesilyn Faust this interdisciplinary volume responds to the growing interest and need for literature on gender marriage and family relations in the Islamic context The book examines how the institution of marriage transformed in Iran paying close attention to the country's culture and politics Part One examines changes in urban marriages to new forms of cohabitation In Part Two contributors such as Soraya Tremayne explore the way technology and social media has impacted and altered the institution of family Part Three turns its eye to look at marital changes in the rural and tribal sectors of society through the works of anthropologists including Erika Friedl and Mary Hegland Based on the work of both new and established scholars the book provides an up to date study of an important and intensely politicized subject
