The Platonic Tradition in the Middle Ages Stephen Gersh, Maarten J.F.M. Hoenen, 2013-02-06 This collection of essays delineates the history of the rather disparate intellectual tradition usually labeled as Platonic or Neoplatonic In chronological order the book covers the most eminent philosophic schools of thought within that tradition The most important terms of the Platonic tradition are studied together with a discussion of their semantic implications the philosophical and theological claims associated with the terms the sources that furnish the terms and the intellectual traditions aligned with or opposed to them The contributors thereby provide a vivid intellectual map of the Middle Ages and the Early Modern period

Contributions are written in English or German Norwich Cathedral Ian Atherton, 1996-01-01 Norwich Cathedral founded in 1096 by Bishop Herbert de Losinga is of outstanding importance both architecturally and historically Its archives dating back to the time of its foundation as well as the building itself its decoration and contents constitute an unbroken and fascinating record Norwich Cathedral 1096 1996 deals with all aspects of the church s history both institutional and artistic Written by experts and heavily illustrated it has been designed to be accessible to the general reader The building itself is Romanesque augmented by later Gothic campaigns It has of course also undergone repair and modification throughout the centuries both in detail and occasionally in substance It nevertheless keeps its early identity essentially intact Its contents from all periods of its history but notably the middle ages are themselves of great interest the medieval roof bosses are uniquely rich as are the wall paintings

Sacra Scriptura James H. Charlesworth, Lee Martin McDonald, 2014-04-24 Many of the writings deemed apocryphal and pseudepigraphical were in circulation in the early centuries of Judaism and Christianity Their influences and impacts on the development of early communities and the development of Jewish and Christian thoughts have not yet been sufficiently examined While this judgment is especially true for the so called Christian Apocrypha it also applies for other writings that were not included in the Jewish and Christian Bibles and nor in other sacred collections of Scripture like Rabbinics and Patristics Most of these ancient writings functioned to some degree as sacred texts or scripture sacra scriptura in the communities in which they were produced and in others to which they circulated This volume focuses on how some of these forgotten voices were heard within numerous early religious communities helping to remove the distressing silence in many areas of the ancient world

St. John the Divine Jeffrey F. Hamburger, 2002-09-26 Throughout the Middle Ages John the Evangelist identified as the author of both the Book of Revelation and the most profound and theologically informed of the four Gospels provided monks and nuns with a figure of inspiration and an exemplar of vision and virginity Rather than the historical apostle this book s protagonist is a persona of the Evangelist established in theology the liturgy and devotional practice the model mystic who by virtue of his penetrating insight was seen as having become a mirror image of Christ In St John the Divine Jeffrey Hamburger identifies a remarkable set of images from the ninth to the fifteenth centuries that identify the inspired Evangelist so closely with the deity that he appears as his living image and embodiment Hamburger explores the ways these representations of St John in the guise of Christ elucidate the significance of images as such in medieval theology and mysticism Above all he shows how these artworks presented together for the first time epitomize the relationship between the visible and the invisible between ideas however abstract and the concrete images that medieval Christians confronted face to face Publisher's description

The Garden of Delights Fiona J. Griffiths, 2011-06-03 In The Garden of Delights Fiona J Griffiths offers the first major study of the Hortus deliciarum a magnificently illuminated manuscript of theology biblical history and canon law written both by and explicitly for women at the end of the twelfth century In so doing she provides a brilliantly persuasive new reading of female monastic culture Through careful analysis of the contents structure and organization of the Hortus Griffiths argues for women's profound engagement with the spiritual and intellectual vitality of the period on a level previously thought unimaginable overturning the assumption that women were largely excluded from the renaissance and reform of this period As a work of scholarship that drew from a wide range of sources both monastic and scholastic the Hortus provides a witness to the richness of women's reading practices within the cloister demonstrating that it was possible even late into the twelfth century for communities of religious women to pursue an educational program that rivaled that available to men At the same time the manuscript's reformist agenda reveals how women engaged the pressing spiritual questions of the day even going so far as to criticize priests and other churchmen who fell short of their reformist ideals Through her wide ranging examination of the texts and images of the Hortus their sources composition and function Griffiths offers an integrated understanding of the whole manuscript one which highlights women's Latin learning and orthodox spirituality The Garden of Delights contributes to some of the most urgent questions concerning medieval religious women the interplay of gender spirituality and intellectual engagement to discussions concerning women scribes and writers women readers female authorship and authority and the visual culture of female communities It will be of interest to art historians scholars of women's and gender studies historians of medieval religion education and theology and literary scholars studying questions of female authorship and models of women's reading

Scriptoria in Medieval Saxony Aliza Cohen-Mushlin, 2004 This book examines for the first time the scriptorium of the Augustinian Monastery of St Pancras in Hamersleben In the last quarter of the 12th century six well-known manuscripts were produced there Of the fourteen scribe-artists involved one in particular stands out as responsible for the correct text and illustrations The bold innovations of this master scribe-artist are expressed especially in the decoration programmes of a Psalter and two Gospel books The manuscripts produced in the Hamersleben Scriptorium as well as its notable library were dispersed throughout the world or thought to be lost In this book six known manuscripts are brought home to Hamersleben Each manuscript is minutely analysed for its codicology palaeography text and illuminations The style of script as well as the style and iconography of the illustrations are discussed in relation to those from other monasteries in Saxony in order to examine the evolution of the regional style

Romanische Türstürze und Tympana in

Südwestdeutschland Ulrike Kalbaum, 2011 Romanische Türstürze und Tympana dienten als oberer Abschluss von Portalen und erschienen an Kircheneingängen vielfach als alleinige Bildträger. Sie weisen nicht nur in ihrer Form und Bearbeitung sondern auch in ihrer Ikonographie und Beschriftung eine große Vielfalt auf. Da die Bedeutung der Bilder und Zeichen den Zeitgenossen ohne die Erläuterungen eines Klerikers vermutlich ebenso unverständlich blieb wie der Inhalt der lateinischen Inschriften stellt sich die Frage nach dem Sinn der Darstellungen sowie nach den Absichten, die die Auftraggeber mit diesen Bild und Textprogrammen verfolgten. Insbesondere der moralisierende Charakter vieler Inschriften, die sich dezidiert an den Kirchenbesucher richteten, lässt vermuten, dass die Bilder beim Kirchenportal nicht nur zur Abwehr des Bösen zur Verschönerung des Kirchengebäudes oder zur Ehre Gottes angefertigt wurden sondern dass sie auch bei der Vermittlung von Glaubensinhalten eine wesentliche Rolle gespielt haben. Neben den Fragestellungen zur Ikonographie der Darstellungen erstellt diese Publikation eine vollständige Dokumentation aller ganz oder teilweise erhaltenen oder durch Bild und Schriftquellen überlieferten romanischen Türstürze und Tympana Südwesdeutschlands um aus diesen Aussagen zu Entwicklung, Funktion und Bedeutung romanischer Portale im Gebiet des heutigen Bundeslandes Baden-Württemberg zu gewinnen und die Ergebnisse mit anderen Regionen zu vergleichen.

Greek Mythology in Byzantine Art Kurt Weitzmann, 2014-07-14 Kurt Weitzmann demonstrates that the postulated miniatures of the handbook that goes under the name of Apollodorus migrated into other texts of which the commentary of Pseudo Nonnus attached to several homilies of Gregory of Nazianzus and the Cynegetica of Pseudo Oppian are the most important. Originally published in 1984, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The Brummer Collection of Medieval Art Duke University. Museum of Art, Caroline Astrid Bruzelius, Jill Meredith, 1991. The Brummer Collection of Medieval Art in the Duke University Museum of Art is one of the finest to be found in any American university museum. It is remarkable for its breadth and the variety of objects represented with works varying in scale from monumental stone pieces to small scale objects in wood, ivory or metal and ranging from the seventh to eighth centuries through the sixteenth century. This fine catalog makes available for the first time this rich but little known collection. Five studies by leading art scholars focus on key works in the collection and contribute to a new understanding of the origins of many of the pieces. Two introductory essays comment on the character of the collection as a whole, its acquisition by Duke University and its conservation. Finally, the catalog section discusses the more important pieces in the collection and is followed by a checklist of entries and smaller photographs of all other objects. Contributors: Ilene H. Forsyth, Jean M. French.
