Geography, Urbanisation and Settlement Patterns in the Roman Near East Henry Innes MacAdam, 2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2002 This volume focuses on the Roman provinces of Syria and Arabia above all the lands now within Lebanon Syria and Jordan The first articles look at questions of geography cartography and toponymy particularly in Strabo Pliny and Ptolemy The following sections are concerned with settlement patterns and urban development in the region In the Roman and early Byzantine periods the inland areas underwent a gradual transformation from a semi sedentary lightly populated and predominantly rural region to one of large cities and a network of prosperous socially sophisticated villages linked by a network of roads That change is documented by a wealth of epigraphy from both the urban communities and their outlying settlements the subject of several articles By the 4th century too Christianity had become the dominant religion and remained such until the arrival of Islam Studies on the History of Late Antique and Christian Nubia Laurence Kirwan, T. Hägg, D.A. Welsby, 2024-10-28 Gathered together here are the fruits of 60 years of research by the late Sir Laurence Kirwan into the history and archaeology of the mid 1st millennium AD in the Middle Nile Valley papers previously scattered through a wide range of publications Kirwan's fieldwork in the region undertaken between 1929 and 1936 kindled a life long interest in the transition from the pagan Kushite kingdom to the medieval Nubian states of Nobadia Makuria and Alodia Alwa and of their conversion to Christianity in the 6th century AD The 25 studies one published here for the first time were often of seminal importance when they first appeared the author being exemplary in his use of the written sources to elucidate the archaeological data As the preface by the editors shows the views expressed remain fundamental to modern scholarship offering valuable insights into this still relatively obscure period of transition from the ancient to the medieval world

Church and Culture in Early Medieval Armenia Nina G. Garsoïan, 2024-12-11 The articles here aim to develop and expand Professor Garsoïan's earlier research on the bilateral influences on Early Christian Armenia between Byzantium and the Sasanians On the one hand they continue her examination of Armenia's essentially Iranian society and institutions in the 4th-7th centuries on the other they are directed to an investigation of its autocephalous Church This maintained relations with the Antiochene Christological school it shared with the Church of Persia longer than has been generally admitted but simultaneously brought about an ideological transformation through which Christianity came to define the Armenian identity in the national tradition
