Rome in the East Warwick Ball, 2000 Warwick Ball argues that the story of Rome is the story of the East more than the story of the West BOOK JACKET Rome in the East Warwick Ball, 2016-06-10 This new edition of Rome in the East expands on the seminal work of the first edition and examines the lasting impact of the near Eastern influence on Rome on our understanding of the development of European culture Warwick Ball explores modern issues as well as ancient and overturns conventional ideas about the spread of European culture to the East This volume includes analysis of Roman archaeological and architectural remains in the East as well as links to the Roman Empire as far afield as Iran Central Asia India and China The Near Eastern client kingdoms under Roman rule are examined in turn and each are shown to have affected Roman and ultimately European history in different but very fundamental ways The highly visible presence of Rome in the East mainly the architectural remains some among the greatest monumental buildings in the Roman world are examined from a Near Eastern perspective and demonstrated to be as much if not more a product of the Near East than of Rome Warwick Ball presents the story of Rome in the light of Rome's fascination with the Near East generating new insights into the nature and character of Roman civilisation and European identity from Rome to the present Near Eastern influence can be seen to have transformed Roman Europe with perhaps the most significant change being the spread of Christianity This new edition is updated with the latest research and findings from a range of sources including field work in the region and new studies and views that have emerged since the first edition Over 200 images most of them taken by the author demonstrate the grandeur of Rome in the East This volume is an invaluable resource to students of the history of Rome and Europe as well as those studying the Ancient Near East Rome in the East. The Transformation of an Empire, 2000 Rome in the East Warwick Ball, 2002 Rome in the East Warwick Ball, 2000 In this work archaeologist Warwick Ball presents a comprehensive account of the history architecture and archaeology of the Eastern provinces of the Roman Empire and explores the influence of Roman fascination with the East Rome's Eastern Trade Gary K. forts roads bridges signalling stations and navigation of the Euphrates The journey is enriched with observations of consuls and travellers memories of Turkish and Kurdish villagers and notes and photographs of a way of life little changed since antiquity The process of discovery was mainly on foot staying in villages with local guides following ancient tracks and conversing with great numbers of people provincial and district governors village elders and teachers police and jandarma farmers and shepherds and everyone in between This came with its perils and pleasures encounters with treasure hunters and apparent bandits tales of saints and caravans arrests and death threats bears and wild boars rafts and fishing earthquakes all amid the tumultuous events of the second half of the twentieth century Richly illustrated with large scale maps photographs and sketches this is an account of travel and discovery set against a background of a disappearing world encountered in the long process of academic exploration The Rise of Modern Industry John Lawrence
