Throughout its many subgenres biological horror cosmic horror and others and formats film literature comics horror records humanity's uneasy relationship with its own ability to reason understand and learn. The text first outlines a loose framework defining several distinct periods in horror development then explores each period sequentially by looking at the scientific and cultural background of the period its expression in horror literature and its expression in horror visual and performing arts. Die at the Right Time! Eric v.d. Tribbe, 2014-06-06 During the summer of 1969 the summer Americans first walked on the moon musician and poet Patti Smith recalled strolling down the Coney Island Boardwalk to a refreshment stand where pictures of Jesus President Kennedy and the astronauts were taped to the wall behind the register. Such was the zeitgeist in the year of the moon. Yet this holy trinity of 1960s America would quickly fall apart. Although Jesus and John F. Kennedy remained iconic by the time the Apollo Program came to a premature end just three years later few Americans mourned its passing. Why did support for the space program decrease so sharply by the early 1970s? Rooted in profound scientific and technological leaps rational technocratic management and an ambitious view of the universe as a realm susceptible to human mastery the Apollo moon landings were the grandest manifestation of postwar American progress and seemed to prove that the United States could accomplish anything to which it committed its energies and resources. To the great dismay of its many proponents however NASA found the ground shifting beneath its feet as a fierce wave of anti-rationalism arose throughout American society fostering a cultural environment in which growing numbers of Americans began to contest rather than embrace the rationalist values and vision of progress that Apollo embodied. Shifting the conversation of Apollo from its Cold War origins to larger trends in American culture and society and probing an eclectic mix of voices from the era including intellectuals religious leaders rock musicians politicians and a variety of everyday Americans Matthew Tribbe paints an electrifying portrait of a nation in the midst of questioning the very values that had guided it through the postwar years as it began to develop new conceptions of progress that had little to do with blasting ever more men to the moon No Requiem for the Space Age offers a narrative of the 1960s and 1970s unlike any told before with the story of Apollo as the story of America itself in a time of dramatic cultural change Jubilee Hitchhiker William Hjortsberg,2012-04-01 Confident and robust Jubilee Hitchhiker is an comprehensive biography of late novelist and poet Richard Brautigan author of Troutfishing in America and A Confederate General from Big Sur among many others When Brautigan took his own life in September of 1984 his close friends and network of artists and writers were devastated though not entirely surprised To many Brautigan was shrouded in enigma erratic and unpredictable in his habits and presentation But his career was formidable an inspiration to young writers like Hjortsberg trying to get their start Brautigan s career wove its way through both the Beat influenced San Francisco Renaissance in the 1950s and the Flower Power hippie movement of the 1960s while he never claimed direct artistic involvement with either period Jubilee Hitchhiker also delves deeply into the spirited times in which he lived As Hjortsberg guides us through his search to uncover Brautigan as a man the reader is pulled deeply into the writer s world Ultimately this is a work that seeks to connect the Brautigan known to his fans with the man who ended his life so abruptly in 1984 while revealing the close ties between his writing and the actual events of his life Part history part biography and part memoir this etches the portrait of a man destroyed by his genius The Zapple Diaries Barry Miles,2016-09-27 A revealing history of the Beatles experimental record label as told by the label s manager In August 1968 the Beatles launched their greatest business enterprise Apple Records to international fanfare The less well known story is the introduction of their Zapple label about nine months later If Apple represented artists with new commercial opportunities Zapple offered more cutting edge freedom its mission was to distribute experimental music and spoken word recordings from the leading avant garde figures of the time The brainchild of Paul McCartney the label captured the counterculture spirit of the 1960s by collaborating with Yoko Ono alongside John Lennon Allen Ginsberg Richard Brautigan Charles Bukowski Lawrence Ferlinghetti and Charles Olson The Zapple Diaries is the first full length look at the enterprise as well as a true insider account from Barry Miles the label s manager who went on to become a leading authority and chronicler of 60s culture He provides insight into the colorful lives and working methods of the artists and discloses the fascinating story of the experimental venture ultimately offering up a revealing and engaging account of this little known chapter of Beatles history Writing for Real Ross M. Burkhardt,2003 Provides teachers with strategies to encourage their students to write The Art of Touring Mia Clarke,Sara Jaffe,2009 A book of art photography and writing by rock musicians reflecting life on the road plus a DVD of live footage from over 50 contributors including Devendra Banhart Carla Bozulich Jem Cohen Electrelane Erase Errata The Ex Explosions in the Skyand Le Tigre Editors Mia Clarke Electrelane and Sara Jaffe Erase Errata invited musicians to submit work that moved beyond the traditional tour diary form to explore the manifold ways musicians use other art forms to explore and make sense of touring life Some of the contributions were produced on the road while others are reflective and after the fact Some explicitly relate to travel and geography while others capture a mood a moment or a state of mind There are also shots of post show floors a story about getting tear gassed in Siberia comic strips and much more including a DVD of live performances video travelogues and on the road antics Www amazon com viewed 7 18 2013 The Postmodern Short Story Farhat Iftekharrudin,Joseph Boyden,Mary Rohrberger,Jaie Claudet,2003-12-30 Short stories are usually defined in terms of characteristics of modernism in which the story begins in the middle develops according to a truncated plot and ends with an epiphany This approach tends to ignore postmodernism a movement often characterized by a negation of objective reality where plots are seemingly abandoned surfaces are extraordinary and symbols turn inward on themselves This book examines postmodern forms and characteristic themes by analyzing a group of short stories that make use of postmodern narrative strategies including nonfictional fiction gender profiling and death as an image The volume begins with a discussion of the blurred lines between fiction and nonfiction in the short story and imaginative personal essay It then looks at the role of women in works by such authors as Sandra Cisneros Leslie Marmon Silko Joyce Carol Oates and Lorrie Moore This is followed by a section of chapters on postmodern masculinity and short fiction The next section focuses on death as an image and theme in works by Richard Ford Richard Brautigan and James Joyce The final set of chapters considers postmodern short fiction from South Africa and Canada The Oral History Reader Robert Perks,Alistair Thomson,1998 Arranged in five thematic parts The Oral History Reader covers key debates in the post war development of oral history Electromagnetic and Optical Pulse Propagation 2 Kurt E. Oughstun,2010-07-23 Electromagnetic Optical Pulse Propagation presents a detailed systematic treatment of the time domain electromagnetics with application to the propagation of transient electromagnetic fields including ultrawideband signals and ultrashort pulses in homogeneous isotropic media which exhibit both temporal frequency dispersion and attenuation The development is mathematically rigorous with strict adherence to the fundamental physical principle of causality Approximation methods are based upon mathematically well defined asymptotic techniques that are based upon the saddle point method A detailed description is given of the asymptotic expansions used Meaningful exercises are given throughout the text to help the reader s understanding of the material making the book a useful graduate level text in electromagnetic wave theory for both physics electrical engineering and materials science programs Both students and researchers alike will obtain a better understanding of time domain electromagnetics as it applies to electromagnetic radiation and wave propagation theory with applications to ground and foliage penetrating radar medical imaging communications and the health and safety issues associated with ultrawideband pulsed fields Volume 2 presents a detailed asymptotic description of plane wave pulse propagation in dielectric conducting and semiconducting materials as described by the classical Lorentz model of dielectric resonance the Rocard Powles Debys model of orientational polarization and the Drude model of metals The rigorous description of the signal velocity of a pulse in a dispersive material is presented in connection with the question of superluminal pulse propagation Long Quiet Highway Natalie Goldberg,2011-07-26

Between Science and Literature Ira Livingston,2010-10-01 Between Literature and Science follows through to its emerging 21st century future the central insight of 20th century literary and cultural theory that language and culture along with their subsystems and artifacts are self referential systems The book explores the workings of self reference and the related performativity in linguistic utterances and assorted texts through examples of the more open social discursive systems of post structuralism and cultural studies and into the sciences where complex systems organized by recursive self reference are now being embraced as an emergent paradigm This paradigmatic convergence between the humanities and sciences is autopoetics adapting biologist Hubert Maturana s term for self making systems and it signals a long term epistemological shift across the nature culture divide so definitive for modernity If cultural theory has taught us that language because of its self referential nature cannot bear simple witness to the world the new paradigmatic status of self referential systems in the natural sciences points toward a revived kinship of language and culture with the world language bears witness to the world The main movement of the book is through a series of model explications and analyses operational definitions of concepts and terms more extended case studies vignettes and thought experiments designed to give the reader a feel for the concepts and how to use them while working to expand the autopoetic interneer by putting cultural self reference in dialogue with the self organizing systems of the sciences Along the way the reader is introduced to self reference in epistemology Foucault sociology Luhmann biology Maturana Varela Kauffman and physics and cosmology Smolin Livingston works through the fundamentals of cultural literary and science studies and makes them comprehensible to a non specialist audience A Dictionary of Writers and their Works Christopher Riches, Michael Cox, 2015-01-29
