Roof Of The World Mans First Flight Over Everest:

Roof of the World Lord James Douglas-Hamilton, 2013-02-08 On the morning of 3 April 1933 two single engine biplanes set off on a flight into history From their base near the Indian border with the mystery country of Nepal the two young pilots one a British Marquis and a Scottish Member of Parliament the other a dynamic flight commander flew towards as great a challenge as world aviation had faced to date Mount Everest Roof of the World The first flight over Everest was the climax of years of thought and months of intensive planning an epoch making event which caught the imagination of millions News of its success reverberated throughout the British Empire to the world at large Among the deluge of telegrams of congratulations received were those from the King and the Prime Minister The Times of London which had given exclusive coverage of the Expedition since its early days carried one of its longest features ever and was excited enough to comment that the achievement was almost like exploring the rainbow Some half a century later that Houston Mount Everest Expedition takes its place as one of the last great pioneering flights before the era of space travel Roof of the World tells the remarkable story of that flight and its repercussions among which were the growth of the British aviation industry and the creation of the country's second international airport Using rare and unique photographs many taken from the flight itself and giving an idea of the qualities required of the crews Lord James Douglas Hamilton has recreated the scene facing the pilots one of whom was his father He has had access to relevant diaries and personal papers presents in Roof of the World a valuable contribution to our understanding of a unique achievement in an eventful decade Fallen Giants Maurice Isserman, Stewart Angus Weaver, Dee Molenaar, 2010-01-01 In the first comprehensive history of Himalayan mountaineering in 50 years the authors offer detailed original accounts of the most significant climbs since the 1890s and they compellingly evoke the social and cultural worlds that gave rise to those expeditions American Daredevil Cathryn J. Prince, 2016-06-01 With a polished walking stick and neatly pressed trousers Richard Halliburton served as an intrepid globetrotting guide for millions of Americans in the 1920s and 30s Readers waited with bated breath for each new article and book he wrote During his career Halliburton climbed the Matterhorn nearly fell out of his plane while shooting the first aerial photographs of Mount Everest and became the first person to swim the full length of the Panama Canal With his matinee idol looks the Tennessee native was a media darling in an era of optimism and increased social openness But as the Great Depression and looming war pushed America toward social conservatism Halliburton more actively worked to hide his homosexuality burnishing his image as a masculine trailblazer No middle ground existed regarding Halliburton he was either adored or abhorred Ernest Hemingway and F Scott Fitzgerald called the Princeton graduate a poseur a symbol of nouveau riche depravity But most found his daredevil persona irresistible As chronicled in American Daredevil Halliburton harnessed the media of his day to gain and maintain a widespread following long before our age of the twenty four hour news cycle and thus became the first adventure journalist And during the darkest hours of the Great Depression Halliburton did something remarkable he inspired generations of authors journalists and everyday people who dreamed of fame and glory to explore the world The American Alpine News ,1975 Beyond the Thirty-Nine Steps Ursula Buchan,2019-04-18 John Buchan s name is known across the world for The Thirty Nine Steps In the past one hundred years the classic thriller has never been out of print and has inspired numerous adaptations for film television radio and stage beginning with the celebrated version by Alfred Hitchcock Yet there was vastly more to JB He wrote more than a hundred books fiction and non fiction and a thousand articles for newspapers and magazines He was a scholar antiquarian barrister colonial administrator journal editor literary critic publisher war correspondent director of wartime propaganda member of parliament and imperial proconsul given a state funeral when he died a deeply admired and loved Governor General of Canada His teenage years in Glasgow s Gorbals where his father was the Free Church minister contributed to his ease with shepherds and ambassadors fur trappers and prime ministers His improbable marriage to a member of the aristocratic Grosvenor family means that this account of his life contains at its heart an enduring love story Ursula Buchan his granddaughter has drawn on recently discovered family documents to write this comprehensive and illuminating biography With perception style wit and a penetratingly clear eye she brings vividly to life this remarkable man and his times Aerospace ,1996 Making Friends with Hitler Ian Kershaw,2005-10-25 Ian Kershaw s biography of Adolf Hitler is widely regarded as the definitive work on the subject as well as one of the most brilliant biographies of our time In Making Friends with Hitler the great scholar shines remarkable new light on decisions that led to war by tracing the extraordinary story of Lord Londonderry one of Britain s wealthiest aristocrats cousin of Winston Churchill confidant of the king and the only British cabinet member to outwardly support the Nazi party Through Londonderry s tragic tale Kershaw shows us that behind the accepted dogma of English appeasement and German bullying is a much more complicated and interesting reality full of miscalculations on both sides that proved to be among the most fateful in history Everest Exposed George Band,2005 This is the riveting story of the first successful ascent of Mount Everest in 1953 of the early failed attempts that made it possible and of the successful expeditions that followed Led by John Hunt the first expedition team included George Band the author of this inspiring account Published in association with the Mount Everest Foundation the Alpine Club and the Royal Geographical society Band s account is a tribute to the courage and bravery of those who have attempted to climb the world s highest mountain Scotland's Wings Robert Jeffrey,2022-09-15 Scotland has a worldwide reputation for launching some of the greatest ships ever built but far less is known about our pioneering work on aviation Yet in the great industrial cities and remote islands across the country men and women risked their reputations resources and lives to advance experiments in flight Before airliners crossed the Atlantic Ocean and bombers secretly flew into the NATO airbase at Machrihanish pioneers of aviation worked in the unlikely surroundings of Kelvingrove Park in Glasgow among other places Their humble flying crafts made with wood and canvas would become the luxurious jet engined aircraft of today Including the first flight over Everest the construction of the most northerly airship station in mainland Britain and the experience of civilians and pilots during the Clydebank Blitz of 1941 Scotland's Wings is a glimpse into the dramatic and sometimes controversial adventures within Scottish aeronautics In Scotland's Wings Robert Jeffrey tells a fascinating history highlighting innovators whose ideas heralded the modern age of transport and revealing how the airfields of previous years will once again be used to progress into a daring new age of travel
