Rodney is a teenager who got caught up in drugs and was helped by God loving people When he thought he could not be forgiven for his sin and no one could ever love him he found God's love by reading the Bible Now he was torn between his love for baseball and God He was invited to spring training with the New York Yankees but he also wanted to preach After each game he walked the streets of New York preaching on every corner He drew huge crowds and converted so many people that pimps and drug dealers threatened his life and beat him in their attempt to get him off the streets But Rodney would not stop preaching and was willing to die if that was God's will The Yankees won the pennant and Rodney was their starting pitcher in games one four and seven in the World Series The death threats never stopped and Rodney could have been killed at any time but he was sure God would protect him His courage and faith led thousands to Christ as a result When the rapture came at the end of game seven Rodney was the first to meet Jesus in the air followed by thousands of others who were believers Rookie of the Year John R.
