Perdition Robert S. Wistrich,2020-04-06 Originally published in 1990 this book focuses on the challenge to Jewish identity posed by the conflicting forces of enlightenment emancipation modern political antisemitism and secular ideologies like Zionism nationalism and socialism At the heart of his discussion stands the intense tortured and ultimately tragic encounter of Jews with Germans and Austrians He also deals at length with the new problems of Jewish cultural and political identity posed by the existence of the state of Israel and its embattled position among the nations In the course of the analysis the book looks at the tragedy of assimilation in central Europe with the optimistic dream of Enlightenment and Bildung coming to a climax in the nightmare of racial antisemitism and the Holocaust He explores the ambivalent relationship of the Jews with the European Left showing how many Jewish intellectuals found a new political home in radical and socialist movements though these movements often retained negative stereotypes of Jews and Judaism and exhibited a fierce opposition to the maintenance of any separate Jewish identity The role of Zionism is discussed and the more recent challenges to its legitimacy examined Faith in Art Joseph Masheck, 2023-06-15 Metaphysical thought has been excluded from much of the discourse on modern art especially abstract painting By connecting ideas about faith with the initiators of abstract painting Joseph Masheck reveals how an underlying religiosity informed some of our most important abstract painters Covering Wassily Kandinsky Kazimir Malevich Piet Mondrian and El Lissitzky Masheck shows how revealed religion has been an underlying but fundamental determinant of the thinking and practice of abstract painting from its very originators He contextualizes their art within some of the historical moments of the early 20th century including the Russian revolution and the Stalinist period and explores the appeal of certain themes such as the Passion of Christ A radical new theorization of the influence of religion over visual art Faith in Art asks why metaphysics has been eliminated from the discussion where it might have something to say This is a new way of thinking about a hundred years of abstract painting Epistolary Narratives of Love, Gender and Agonistic Politics Maria Tamboukou, 2023-09-30 This book revolves around epistolary narratives of women political theorists and activists following traces of Hannah Arendt's philosophical approaches to love and agonistic politics Arendt's interlocutors are four revolutionary women in the long durée of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries in Europe and the USA the romantic socialist Désirée Veret Gay the Marxist Rosa Luxemburg the anarchist Emma Goldman and the labour activist Rose Pesotta The book's central argument is that Arendt's philosophical thought can throw light on dangerous liaisons between love gender and agonistic politics further making connections with feminist ruminations around love as an existential force in the ephemeral constitution of the female self in modernity Drawing on extended research with physical digital and published archival collections the book responds to the challenges of the digital turn and highlights the importance of memory work as a way of understanding the lasting effects of the past on the present As such Epistolary Narratives of Love Gender and Agonistic Politics will appeal to scholars of sociology and gender studies with interests in research methods particularly archival methods the work of Arendt feminist thought and memory studies Why Religion? Towards a Critical Philosophy of Law, Peace and God Dawid Bunikowski, Alberto Puppo, 2020-02-11 This book examines the relation between religion and jurisprudence God and peace respectively It argues that in order to elucidate the possible role religion can play in the contemporary world it is useful to analyse religion by associating it with other concepts Why peace Because peace is probably the greatest promise made by religions and the greatest concern in the contemporary world Why jurisprudence Because quoting Kelsen's famous book Peace through Law peace is usually understood as something achievable by international legal instruments But what if we replace Peace through Law with Peace through Religion Does law as an instrument for achieving peace incorporate a religious dimension Is law ultimately a religious and normative construction oriented to peace to the protection of humanity in order to keep humans from the violence of nature Is the hope for peace rational or just a question of faith Is religion itself a question of faith or a rational choice Is the relatively recent legal concept of responsibility to protect a secular expression of the oldest duty of humankind The book follows the structure of interdisciplinary research in which the international legal scholar the moral philosopher the philosopher of religion the theologian and the political scientist contribute to the construction of the necessary bridges Moreover it gives voice to different monotheistic traditions and more importantly it analyses religion in the various dimensions in which it determines the authors cultures as a set of rituals as a source of moral norms as a universal project for peace and as a political discourse
