Prehistoric Journey - The First Expeditions D.L. Narrol,2024-09-06 Book 1 of Colin Limmerick s adventures Colin Limmerick lives a double life His rugged good looks and merchant fishing trade don t coincide with his desire to continue his higher education at a London university His Irish working class pirate like behavior repulses his stuffy elitist professor making it difficult for his research to be taken seriously Looks are deceiving when his research idea to prove Darwin by demonstrating the great Irish deer megaloceros giganticus was sexually selected against He meets physicist Dr Sasha Dimitrikov an eccentric escapee from the Russian Revolution who has developed a time travel theory The only way Limmerick can prove his research is to venture through a prehistory journey In the midst of his frustration he becomes enchanted with a lovely research student Rosa who he manages to woo with great difficulty Her Edwardian prudish scowl continuously pushes him away despite her stimulated attraction for him She mistakenly tosses Limmerick aside and is lured into Dr Dimitrikov s arms This occurs when the three scholars are on the first prehistoric expedition 10 000 years in the past in search of megaloceros They encounter a prehistoric environment that is too unknown and unmanageable for modern people to survive They are faced with several challenges but manage to conquer by survival of the fittest Limmerick s research on prehistoric evolution is greatly admired by a foreign professor from India Dr Sharma who introduces his voluptuous daughter Amoli She falls instantly in love with Limmerick where he is at first reluctant but succumbs to her seduction dance not realizing the clash of the cultures that lie ahead At the same time he is faced with a new challenge recognizing the first expedition left unexpected damage He must time travel again in order to mend the chaotic mess he left the first time He and Dr Dimitrikov are faced with another prehistoric expedition which is more life threatening than the first especially when they are violently confronted by a family of Neanderthals His excessive drinking carries through the novel but heightens with his destructive behavior when he finally comes to terms knowing two 20th century men can't play God and that he must fight for what he truly loves      The Mis-Education of Joy Paul C. Agard, 2010-06 The Mis education of Joy is the story of three lives that intersect one semester in a college classroom and as a result these lives are profoundly changed forever Joy Hunter is an enthusiastic young girl who shares her faith with everyone At seventeen she has always depended on her religious faith to overcome her many obstacles One of which is a childhood illness that threatened her with no more than fifteen years of life Upon graduating high school and being accepted to a local college Joy for the first time is hopeful about her future At college she meets Jim Byrnes a history professor with a clouded past and a deep rooted contempt for religion The classroom explodes as Professor Byrnes is challenged by a student named Paul who the class has labeled the fanatic and Joy's faith is put to a new test Fearing her light is growing dim because of her doubt Joy finds herself searching for answers but who will she turn to and where is the unseen hand of God that watched over her for 17 years As Joy Professor Byrnes and Paul seek to separate fact from fiction they each encounter grace Told in traditional dialogue form The Mis education of Joy is a heartwarming tale that explores the rights of the believer in a secular society while showing the role of the believer in a secular society An insightful story that dares to expose the religious intolerance of our nation but yet is powerful enough to touch your heart Highly recommended Rev Dr Walter L Davis III It is a true page turner that reminds us that faith persists not because we will it but because it has a presence and force all of its own The Miseducation of Joy is long overdue Gaelle Affiany Graduate Student Critics will be challenged and Christians will be encouraged to know that the Word of God is believable and trustworthy Myra Rosa High School Science Teacher      Rosa's Story Jim Damiano, 2008-02 Her journey begins in Italy in 1924 with an arranged marriage to an Italian American in Utica New York and travel to a foreign land where unimaginable circumstances and a roller coaster ride of trial and tribulation await her Through the course of events Rosa has her faith tested hope and love won and lost and cultivates a determination that is bolstered by persistence that enables her to travel forward though tested beyond endurance Rosa's Story is the true history of a young girl's experiences fictionalized around key events in her life Through this moving tale readers will gain a deeper understanding of true faith and a young woman's unwillingness to resign to her fate as expected in an era that shunned strong women www.jimdamiano.com

the Ivy League and Beyond Gladys January Willis,2014 This book presents the story of Gladys January Willis from early childhood to retirement as a university professor and administrator It chronicles her experiences as a Black girl born and reared in Jackson Mississippi as well as her educational sojourn in college and graduate schools and a career in higher education and entrance into Christian ministry as an ordained chaplain In Chapter IX of the book Willis writes It is no secret that in my racist and segregated community the majority White system promoted its message loudly and clearly on the public buses in the segregated school system in employment practices in segregated eateries in housing developments in business transactions and in the political arena One of the most impacting experiences in my life after the passage of the 1964 Civil Rights Act was that of exercising my right to vote Because of the cherished right to vote as an American citizen whenever there is an election exercising my right to vote is a top priority I am sure that my Black home environment played a vital role in the way I came to think about life in general and my own life in particular She credits her maternal grandmother Henrietta Young Hedrick as her primary role model Mama as she was called was a proud Black woman who demanded that she be respected Her boldness was undaunted and communicated her respect for herself and her demand for the same from others regardless of who they were or their station in life
