Murdoch, 2018-10-16 Three unforgettable novels from the Man Booker Prize winning author of The Sea the Sea and consummate storyteller The Independent One of the most significant novelists of her generation The Guardian the prodigiously inventive British author Iris Murdoch grappled with questions of morality as well as the nature of love in novels that are every bit as entertaining as they are thought provoking The New York Times Over the span of her career she was the recipient of the Man Booker Prize the Whitbread Literary Award and the James Tait Black Memorial Prize The Flight from the Enchanter In 1950s London when the enigmatic and charismatic businessman Mischa Fox turns his entrepreneurial gaze on a small feminist magazine his intoxicating influence begins to affect the lives of those involved the fragile editor Hunter his sister Rosa who splits her time and affections between her brother and two other men innocent Annette whose journey from school to the real world ends up being more fraught than she could have foreseen as well as their circle of friends and acquaintances all of whom find themselves both seduced and repulsed by Fox Brilliant witty and original The Sunday Times The Red and the Green In 1916 as World War I rages across Europe Andrew Chase White lieutenant in the British army travels to Ireland to see his extended family Though he was raised in England by Protestant parents many of his relations on the Emerald Isle are Catholic and nationalist His arrival in Dublin ignites old resentments new passions political tensions and religious crises sending the family into a torrent of fights and alliances affairs and betrayals And as the historic gunfire begins at the General Post Office on the day of the Easter Rebellion the lives of Andrew and his kin will be changed forever Murdoch is prodigiously inventive The New York Times The Time of the Angels In a crumbling London rectory after the Second World War a priest descends into a spiritual crisis and madness Caryl Fisker was once a bastion of faith a shining example of Anglican goodness and Christian values But time and circumstance have worn him down as surely as the bombs of the Blitz have broken apart the very walls around him His convictions have vanished as has his belief in mankind As relationships and desires resentments and retributions begin to crowd the small church secrets are revealed that will shatter the lives of all involved Excites and delights The New York Times Children's Book Review Index Gary C.
