Approaches to Slavic Interaction Nadine Thielemann, Peter Kosta, 2013-08-13 This volume provides an overview of current research priorities in the analysis of face to face interaction in Slavic speaking language communities The core of this volume ranges from discourse analysis in the tradition of interactional linguistics and conversation analysis to newer methods of politeness research A further field includes empirical and interpretive methods of modern sociolinguistics and statistical analysis of spoken language in casual and institutional talks Several papers focus on a semantic or syntactic analysis of talk in interaction by trying to show how interlocutors use certain lexical grammatical syntactic and multimodal or prosodic means for the management of interaction in performing specific actions genres and displaying negotiations of epistemic evidential or evaluative stances The volume is rounded out by contributions to the theory of politeness where strategies of face work in casual as well as institutional discourse are analyzed or in which social tasks entertained by code switching and language alternation within the interaction of bilinguals are discussed

The Russian-speaking Populations in the Post-Soviet Space Ammon Cheskin, Angela Kachuyevski, 2021-05-13 In the wake of Russia's annexation of Crimea this volume examines the relationship Russia has with its so called compatriots abroad Based on research from Belarus Estonia Kazakhstan Latvia and Ukraine the authors examine complex relationships between these individuals their home states and the Russian Federation Russia stands out globally as a leading sponsor of kin state nationalism vociferously claiming to defend the interests of its so called diaspora especially the tens of millions of ethnic Russians and Russian speakers who reside in the countries that were once part of the Soviet Union However this volume shifts focus away from the assertive diaspora politics of the Russian state towards the actual groups of Russian speakers in the post Soviet space themselves In a series of empirically grounded studies the authors examine complex relationships between Russians their home states and the Russian Federation Using evidence from Belarus Estonia Kazakhstan Latvia and Ukraine the findings demonstrate multifaceted levels of belonging and estrangement with spaces associated with Russia and the new independent states in which Russian speakers live By focusing on language media politics identity and quotidian interactions this collection provides a wealth of material to help understand contemporary kin
