Rustication Of Urban Youth In China:

The Rustication of Urban Youth in China Peter J. Seybolt, 2015-12-22 In the 1960s and 70s the government of China conducted a rather unusual social experiment called Up to the mountains and down to the village which sent urban youths to the countryside in an attempt to reverse the flow of the rural population migrating to towns and cities as was generally occurring in other parts of the world at that time Originally published in 1975 Seybolt draws together a compilation of documents discussing the project which sent roughly 12 million urban youths to settle in the countryside in the years 1968 1975 alone The documents discuss issues such as university love and marriage as well as the details of the experiment This title will be of interest to students of sociology anthropology and Asian studies

The Rustication of Urban Youth in China Peter Jordan Seybolt, 1977 The Rustication of Urban Youth in China. A Social Experiment. Ed. by P.J. Seybolt. Introd. by Th. P. Bernstein P. J. Seybolt, Th. P. Bernstein, 1977 China Under the Four Modernizations, 1982 China's

Sent-Down Generation Helena K. Rene, 2013-03-29 During China's Cultural Revolution Chairman Mao Zedong's rustication program resettled 17 million urban youths known as sent downs to the countryside for manual labor and socialist reeducation This book the most comprehensive study of the program to be published in either English or Chinese to date examines the mechanisms and dynamics of state craft in China from the rustication program's inception in 1968 to its official termination in 1980 and actual completion in the 1990s Rustication in the ideology of Mao's peasant based revolution formed a critical component of the Cultural Revolution's larger attack on bureaucrats capitalists the intelligentsia and degenerative urban life This book assesses the program's origins development organization implementation performance and public administrative consequences It was the defining experience for many Chinese born between 1949 and 1962 and many of China's contemporary leaders went through the rustication program The author explains the lasting impact of the rustication program on China's contemporary administrative culture for example showing how and why bureaucracy persisted and even grew stronger during the wrenching chaos of the Cultural Revolution She also focuses on the special difficulties female sent downs faced in terms of work pressures to marry local peasants and sexual harassment predation and violence The author's parents were both sent downs and she was able to interview over fifty former sent downs from around the country something never previously accomplished China's Sent Down Generation demonstrates the rustication program's profound long term consequences for China's bureaucracy for the spread of corruption and for the families traumatized by this authoritarian social experiment The book will appeal to academics graduate and undergraduate students in public administration and China studies programs and individuals who are interested in China's Cultural Revolution era

A Century of Student Movements in China Xiaobing Li, Qiang Fang, 2019-12-02 In this book the authors offer their unique perspectives on the important roles Chinese students and intellectuals played in the shaping of the twentieth century China Their answers to these pivotal questions explore new nationalistic spirit modern world views and willingness of self sacrifice which had attributed to the spontaneous actions of the students as a New Culture emerged during the May Fourth Movement These articles show how China nurtured these spontaneous student movements even though the Nationalist Party in the Republic of China and the Communist Party in the People's Republic had exerted tight control over schools Both governments established organizations as well as operations among students that effectively turned some of the student movements into a political instrument by the parties for their own agenda

The Fading of the Maoist Vision Rhoads Murphey, 2013-11-05
First published in 1980 This book analyzes Chinese society and evaluates the achievements and failures of the Maoist ideology The central theme is the urban and rural balance in China's development from the Revolution to the late twentieth century The Fading of the Maoist Vision shows how the original Revolutionary blueprint was altered and the ways in which China has steered a different course from that charted by Mao as the ideological vision encountered an increasingly pressing set of economic realities The book is particularly valuable in setting China's achievements in the larger context of global ideas about the problems of national development and by comparing them to the experience of India in its pursuit of the Gandhian ideal

Education in the People's Republic of China, Past and Present Franklin Parker, Betty June Parker, 2017-12-12 The 3 053 entries in this work first published in 1986 comprise the compilers attempt at a comprehensive annotated bibliography of the most useful locatable books monographs pamphlets regularly and occasionally issued serials scholarly papers and selected newspaper accounts dealing in a significant way with formal and informal public and private education in the People's Republic of China before and since 1949

China's Road to Development N. Maxwell, 2014-06-28
China's Road to Development is a collection of papers by specialists on aspects of China's economy and society It covers a wide range of subjects from development strategy to the specifics of small scale energy exploitation from the role of women in China's development to the greening of China through great efforts in afforestation Commenting on the limited issue original edition a special issue of the journal World Development from which this volume has been greatly expanded Dr Knowles President of the Rockefeller Foundation wrote A magnificent collection of essays by very astute and experienced observers covering everything from population control health economic planning trade city planning and rural development to Chinese aid in building the Tanzania Zambia railway If I could only afford two books on modern China I would get this one

China's Changing Population Judith Banister, 1987 In this comprehensive analysis of thirty five years of population change in the People's Republic of China the author highlights China's shifting population policies and pieces together the available data assessing and adjusting them as necessary in order to discover the actual population changes

Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Rustication Of Urban Youth In China : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papan, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
