Randall, Elizabeth McKim, 2008-06-03 Against the background of Socrates insight that the unexamined life is not worth living Reading Our Lives The Poetics of Growing Old investigates the often overlooked inside dimensions of aging Despite popular portrayals of mid and later life as entailing inevitable decline this book looks at aging as potentially a process of poiesis a creative endeavor of fashioning meaning from the ever accumulating texts memories and reflections that constitute our inner worlds At its center is the conviction that although we are constantly reading our lives to some degree anyway doing so in a mindful matter is critical to our development in the second half of life Drawing on research in numerous disciplines affected by the so called narrative turn including cognitive psychology neuroscience and the psychology of aging authors Randall and McKim articulate a vision of aging that promises to accommodate such time honored concepts as wisdom and spirituality one that understands aging as a matter not merely of getting old but of consciously growing old      When Stories Wound Nathaniel Samuel, 2025-02-15 How do we live responsibly in a world shaped by narrative When Stories Wound explores the significance of narrative for moral agency and engages the harm that our current polarizations have inflicted and our apathy and indifference towards it When Stories Wound urges readers to be conscious of the stories we live and to re imagine what responsibility looks like      Nonviolent Story Robert R. Beck, 2009-03-01 What do the gospels contribute to our understanding of nonviolent versus violent means of conflict resolution Many biblical scholars contend that the gospels have little to say on this subject Others seek answers in ethical principles found in Jesus s teachings which may or may not be interpreted as accepting or rejecting violence In Nonviolent Story Robert Beck proposes a new way of reading the Gospel of Mark one that points to a challenging message of nonviolent resistance as reflected in the story of Jesus s life and ministry According to narrative analysis the message of the Gospel is found in the structure of the story itself Beck contends that the narrative form of Mark s gospel portrays Jesus as a protagonist who does not avoid conflict but enters into it without himself resorting to violence He thus serves as a model of the nonviolent resistance that inspired Gandhi and Martin Luther King Jr By using literary analysis to explore Mark s gospel Beck opens up a counter story that challenges the prevailing American cultural myth of constructive violence Beck uses the Western tales of Louis L Amour as the narrative essence of this pop mythology and the total opposite of the story told by Mark      Counseling People with Cancer Jann Aldredge-Clanton, 1998-01-01 Few moments are as devastating as when one hears a diagnosis of cancer and one out of three Americans will hear this diagnosis in their lifetimes In this book Jann Aldredge Clanton brings a perspective from a theology of hope for people struggling with cancer She believes that in the midst of a frightening illness our spiritual task is to reunderstand our life story in light of the sacred story of God s love in the world This book is full of practical insights to enable pastors and pastoral counselors to help persons cope with the diagnosis and experience of cancer The purpose of the Counseling and Pastoral Theology series is to address clinical issues that arise among particular populations currently neglected in the literature on pastoral care and counseling This series is committed to enhancing both the theoretical base and the clinical expertise of pastoral caregivers by providing a pastoral theological paradigm that will inform both assessment and intervention with persons in these specific populations Living Our Story Larry A. Golemon, 2010-12-31 Living Our Story explores how good narrative work the retrieval construction and performance of valued stories takes place in ministry Authors Larry A Golemon Lee Ramsey N Graham Standish Tim Shapiro Carol Johnson Mike Mather Niles Elliot Goldstein and Diana Butler Bass examine this question from a variety of perspectives including the role of the pastor or rabbi as narrative leader the sacred and mundane stories that shape congregational life and identity storytelling as a means of community building and story sharing as a practice of hospitality Through the stories they themselves tell these authors show how stories witness to God's presence in the unfolding of human life and how the best leaders craft stories that reveal how God is at work among the people and inspire them to become a part of this larger story Language Teachers' Stories from their Professional Knowledge Landscapes Lesley Harbon, Robyn Moloney, 2017-06-23 Language Teachers' Professional Knowledge Landscapes is a collection of fourteen narratives from teachers of different languages at different school levels in different contexts across Australia This volume brings together not simply language teacher stories but also more political stories of the problems associated with school programs and contexts Highlighted through these stories are some of the major political issues in schools that impact language teachers work and their students success in sustained language study The book is conceptually framed by the work of Clandinin and Connelly 1996 and their notion of levels of stories told by teachers about their classrooms the secret the sacred and the cover stories The term professional knowledge landscape is used to indicate how teachers can critically situate their work and thereby understand it better The collection includes the stories of two outstanding primary language educators and a story of mixed success in a rural program in teaching the local Aboriginal language Ngarrabul There are stories of frustration with policy failures particularly in supporting the learning of Asian languages Many of the teacher narrators ask the confronting question What blocks language learning in Australia They offer the strategies which they have developed that they see making a difference Other narratives offer autoethnographic tracking of careers for example as a teacher of Latin and Classics Japanese French Spanish Russian and of teachers ongoing vigour and creativity in advocacy A number of teachers examine their own identity story for the intercultural learning which they then offer and extend in student learning Consistently expressed there is the need for teachers to take up individual responsibility while still being strongly supported by their professional community It is us who make the difference one teacher concludes Supported by a strong Foreword by Canadian scholar F Michael Connelly this ground breaking collection of narratives represents a form of social research in providing critical illustrations of the issues needing attention for national language education enhancement It is the only

The Storied Church Matthew Gorkos, 2021-09-07 Matthew Gorkos begins The Storied Church with this compelling statement I believe in the church in the power of faithful people serving a good and gracious God and I believe in the power of a good story Moreover I believe as this book will argue that church and story harnessed together could be an even more powerful force for goodness in our world Neuroscientists anthropologists archeologists and psychologists all agree Story is how our brains and our communities make sense of things Storytelling helps us cope with change and loss Storytelling helps us transmit lessons and life skills to the next generation As human beings it seems we can't do without story This book indeed this whole idea of story centered church renewal was born of a suspicion that the restorative transformative life giving function that stories have for us as individuals may serve communities of faithful people as well If stories help us survive as human creatures why can't they help churches survive The problem that story centered renewal seeks to remedy has only become more prevalent and urgent in the age of Covid 19 Our churches need hope now more than ever Writing from a pastor's perspective Gorkos hopes to encourage and empower other pastors and lay leaders with both the hope and the tools they need to effect revitalizing change in their faith communities Each chapter includes questions for reflection to help readers listen to and tell the stories that will lead to renewal and transformation

Prophetic Politics David S. Gutterman, 2018-07-05 In an era of military conflict and economic hardship religious and political leaders adamantly speak in the language of crisis Whether one attributes this public religious fervor to a response to the attacks of September 11 2001 millennial hopes and fears a sense of moral decay generally based on either growing economic inequality or the breakdown of the American family or a sign of the normal progression of the stages of history the discourse of religious revival is increasingly prominent And as is amply evident in the United States and throughout the world devout declarations of religious belief in the public sphere can bring intractable passions to politics from Chapter 1 What are the relationships among religion politics and narratives What makes prophetic political narratives congenial or hostile to democratic political life David S Gutterman explores the prophetic politics of four twentieth and twenty first century American Christian social movements the Reverend Billy Sunday and his vision of muscular Christianity Dr Martin Luther King Jr and the Civil Rights movement the conservative Christian male organization Promise Keepers and the progressive antipoverty organization Call to Renewal Gutterman develops a theory based on the work of Hannah Arendt and others and employs this framework to analyze expressions of the prophetic impulse in the political narrative of the United States In the process he examines timely issues about the tense and intricate relationship between religion and politics Even prior to George W Bush's faith based initiative debates about abortion family values welfare reform and environmental degradation were informed by religious language and ideas In an interdisciplinary and accessible manner Gutterman translates the narratives employed by American Christian social movements to define both the crises in the land and the path to resolving these crises The book also explores the engagement of these prophetic social movements in contentious political issues concerned with sex gender sexuality race and class as well as broader questions of American identity
