Sacred Unity Further Steps To An Ecology Of Mind:

A Sacred Unity Gregory Bateson, 1991 In his new collection of essays Bateson author of the enormously influential book Steps to an Ecology of Mind takes readers further along the pathways by which he arrived at his now famous synthesis and continues to illuminate such diverse fields as biology anthropology psychiatry and linguistics A Sacred Unity Gregory Bateson, PhD, 2023-09-30 In 31 posthumously collected lectures and writings anthropologist systems thinker and cyberneticist Gregory Bateson 1904 1980 addresses questions of ecology mind consciousness linguistics evolution and communication His masterly synthesis stresses the need to re establish a sacred unity between the human mind and the biosphere

Ritual and Symbol in Peacebuilding Lisa Schirch, 2005 Serves as a guide to using ritual acts in peacebuilding efforts Abundant with examples of symbolic acts that aided the peace process Conflict is dramatic In theater literature story telling and news reporting it is a powerful mechanism that draws attention heightens the senses and evokes emotion Schirch argues that peacebuilding has the potential to do just the same Examples of peacebuilding often center on the serious rational negotiations and formal problem solving efforts in conflict situations Schirch argues though that what truly bonds adversaries and helps achieve peace are the symbolic non verbal ritual acts shaking hands sharing a meal showing a photograph of a loved one Yet these are often overlooked as deliberate components of peace negotiations Ritual and Symbol in Peacebuilding underscores the importance of incorporating symbolic tools including ritual into traditional approaches to conflict Ritual assists in solving complex deep rooted conflicts and helps to confirm and transform worldviews identities and relationships With theories and language to explain the symbolic dimensions of conflict this text will be useful to scholars and practitioners active in the diverse field of peacebuilding

Steps to an Ecology of Mind Gregory Bateson, 2000 Gregory Bateson was a philosopher anthropologist photographer naturalist and poet as well as the husband and collaborator of Margaret Mead This classic anthology of his major work includes a new Foreword by his daughter Mary Katherine Bateson 5 line drawings Creative Work and Distributions of Power Michael Hanchett Hanson, 2024-12-10 Creative Work and Distributions of Power is a journey toward an energized and expanded space for considering power in discussions of creative work Starting with the participatory creativity framework this book expertly guides readers through case studies of two very different examples of creative work the 20th century groundbreaking systems theorist Gregory Bateson and the current musician polymath Tyler The Creator Through skillfully interwoven narrative and theory chapters provide readers with a deep understanding of the roles of power in the ways creativity emerges from complex social material and historical systems Thoughtful metalogues featured throughout the book bring readers into the minds of the authors illustrating the very processes being analyzed The result is a model of the functions of creative work in mediating personal capacities and larger societal forces This critical addition to the discourse around creativity and its practice is an ideal first step in understanding creative work and distributions of power for readers in creativity studies as well as sociology and psychology courses An Ecology of Communication William Homestead, 2021-04-20 An Ecology of Communication addresses an ecological and communicative dilemma the universe earth and socio cultural life world are resoundingly dialogic yet we have created modern and postmodern cultures largely governed by monologue This book is indispensable reading for scholars and students of communication ecology and social sciences as it moves readers beyond the anthropocentric bias of communication study toward a listening based model of communication an essential move for discerning fitting responses and the call to responsibility in an age of ecocrisis Introduction to Cybersemiotics: A Transdisciplinary Perspective Carlos Vidales, Søren Brier, 2021-04-14 This book traces the origins and evolution of cybersemiotics beginning with the integration of semiotics into the theoretical framework of cybernetics and information theory The book opens with chapters that situate the roots of cybersemiotics in Peircean semiotics describe the advent of the Information Age and cybernetics and lay out the proposition that notions of system communication self reference information meaning form autopoiesis and self control are of equal topical interest to semiotics and systems theory Subsequent chapters introduce a cybersemiotic viewpoint on the capacity of arts and other practices for knowing This suggests pathways for developing Practice as Research and practice led research and prompts the reader to view this new configuration in cybersemiotic terms Other contributors discuss cultural and perceptual shifts that lead to interaction with hybrid environments such as Alexa The relationship of storytelling and cybersemiotics is covered at chapter length and another chapter describes an individual collectivity dialectics in which the latter Commind constrains the former interactants but the former fuels the latter The concluding chapter begins with the observation that digital technologies have infiltrated every corner of the metropolis homes workplaces and places of leisure to the extent that cities and bodies have transformed into interconnected interfaces The book challenges the reader to participate in a broader discussion of the potential limitations alternatives and criticisms of cybersemiotics Constructing Narratives of Continuity and Change Hazel Reid, Linden West, 2014-08-27 In this volume academics and researchers across disciplines including education psychology and health studies come together to discuss personal political and professional narratives of struggle resilience and hope Contributors draw from a rich body of auto biographical research to examine the role of narrative and how it can be constructed to compose a life story considering the roles of significant others inspirational educational and fictional characters and those in myth and legend The book discusses how personal narrative often neglected in social and psychological enquiry can be a valuable resource across a range of settings Reference is made to the evolving role of narrative in education and health care medicine and psychotherapy This includes how particular narratives are hardwired into culture in ways that stifle personal and social understanding Rather than providing a how to guide the book illustrates the range and power of narrative including poetry to re awaken senses of self and agency in extremis Each chapter draws on specific research describing the context explaining the methodology and illuminating important findings Discussing implications for research and practice

this book will be key reading for postgraduate and doctoral students in auto biographical and narrative studies and across a range of disciplines including education health and social care politics counselling and psychotherapy It will be of interest to academics teaching research methods and those developing biographical and auto biographical narrative research

Embracing Organisational Development and Change Antonie van Nistelrooij, 2020-11-02 This book focuses on human behavioural processes and describes them from an interdisciplinary perspective It introduces readers to the main theories and approaches in the field of organisational development and change ODC and discusses their relevance and purpose with a clear focus on improving how readers perceive and handle change The book is tailor made for business students without any background in the humanities helping them to conceptualise organisational development and change and to practically organise interventions to increase organisational effectiveness The book's goal is to help future managers and consultants recognise and handle the full situation which includes purposes people and relationships Furthermore it elaborates on those theories and instruments that can deliver real benefits to real people working in real fuzzy and complex circumstances and includes several practical cases focusing on the role of the interventionist
