Anderson,2013-08-27 In this reappraisal of charity in the biblical tradition Anderson argues that the poor constituted the privileged place where Jews and Christians met God He shows how charity affirms the goodness of the created order the world was created through charity and therefore rewards it Sadliers' Catholic Directory, Almanac and Ordo ,1888 With a full report of the various dioceses in the United States and British North America and a list of archbishops bishops and priests in Ireland Tortured Subjects Lisa Silverman,2010-06-15 At one time in Europe there was a point to pain physical suffering could be a path to redemption This religious notion suggested that truth was lodged in the body and could be achieved through torture In Tortured Subjects Lisa Silverman tells the haunting story of how this idea became a fixed part of the French legal system during the early modern period Looking closely at the theory and practice of judicial torture in France from 1600 to 1788 the year in which it was formally abolished Silverman

Civic Christianity in Renaissance Italy David Michael D'Andrea,2007 A compelling examination of how a religious brotherhood administered charity in its local community and acted as mediator between provincial elites and the early modern state Civic Christianity in Renaissance Italy explores the often subtle and sometimes harsh realities of life on the Venetian mainland Focusing on the confraternity of Santa Maria dei Battuti and its Ospedale the book addresses a number of well established and newly articulated historiographical questions the governance of territorial states the civic and religious role of confraternities the status of women and marginalized groups and popular religious devotion Adapting the objectives and methods of microhistory D Andrea has written neither a traditional history of political subjugation nor a straightforward survey of poor relief Instead thematic chapters survey the activities of a powerful religious brotherhood Santa Maria dei Battuti and document the interconnected local regional and international factors that fashioned the social world of Venetian subjects Grounded in previously unexplored archival material the book is an innovative study of the nexus between local religion and Venetian territorial power providing scholars with this first scholarly monograph of the city that served as the keystone of Venice s mainland empire This original approach to the critical relationship between provincial powers and the central government also contributes to other important areas of historical inquiry including the history of popular religion poor relief medicine and education David D Andrea is Associate Professor of History at Oklahoma State University Ethics of Charitable Food Leire Escajedo San-Epifanio, Esther M. Rebato Ochoa,2022-05-10 This book provides an in depth analysis of different dimensions of contemporary food charity It does so against the background of an increasing number of food banks and other forms of food philanthropy The book examines the incongruity of considering food donation as an expression of pure altruism Taking into account the dignity and rights of people it addresses how hunger is seen and explained in rich countries and how philanthropy and democracy coexist It looks at the relationship that exists between religious traditions and the current food donation narrative It discusses the risks of stigmatizing food recipients and clarifies ways to better deal with food poverty and food waste Paradoxically food insecurity and food waste have grown exponentially in the last decade More and more people are not able to access food properly The amount of perfectly edible food that is discarded also grows

The consolidation of democracies welfare policies and economic growth do not guarantee that all citizens can meet their basic needs in the so called rich countries This book analyses the current state of affairs and presents facts and reflections from diverse sources and from a cross disciplinary perspective Recollections of Mary Lyon Fidelia Fiske,Mary Lyon,1866 Christian Benevolence Hitchcock Edward Hitchcock,Edward Hitchcock,2010-06-08 Charity and Economy in the Orphanages of Early Modern Augsburg Thomas Max Safley,2023-08-21 This book examines the complex interrelationship between charity confession and capital in the orphanages of the Free Imperial City of Augsburg To provide the best care at the least cost the administrators of these traditionally non capitalistic organizations engaged in a wide variety of capitalistic practices in capital commodity and labor markets Their market orientated practices inspired bourgeois virtues that included the assessments of long term risk and reward the avoidance of excess and waste and the practice of obedience persistence and industry Under the pressures of confessional tension efficiency slowly evolved into a more complex notion of utility that placed the needs of the orphanages over the dictates of economy and the divisions of religion The product of monumental original research this book offers a substantial revision of current historical scholarship on poor relief social discipline organization building and the advent of capitalism A forthcoming volume will pursue these issues through a close study of the fortunes and fates of 8 000 Augsburg orphans These studies make required reading for advanced students of early modern Europe Early Modern Confraternities in Europe and the Americas Christopher F. Black,Pamela Gravestock,2006 Scholars have long recognized the significant role that confraternities or lay brotherhoods played in the religious life of medieval and early modern Catholicism Taking a broad chronological and geographical approach this collection of essays addresses the varied and fluid nature of confraternities and their relationship to wider society Report of the Directors of the American Education Society American Education Society,1842 The life-cycle in Western Europe, c.1300-c.1500 Deborah Youngs,2020-01-03 This is the first study to examine the entire life cycle in the Middle Ages Drawing on a wide range of secondary and primary material the book explores the timing and experiences of infancy childhood adolescence and youth adulthood old age and finally death It discusses attitudes towards ageing rites of passage age stereotypes in operation and the means by which age was used as a form of social control compelling individuals to work govern marry and pay taxes The wide scope of the study allows contrasts and comparisons to be made across gender social status and geographical location It considers whether men and women experienced the ageing process in the same way and examines the differences that can be discerned between northern and southern Europe The fourteenth and fifteenth centuries suffered famine warfare plague and population collapse This fascinating consideration of the life cycle adds a new dimension to the debate over continuity and change in a period of social and demographic upheaval
