Stuart, 1993 Includes index LOST KINGDOMS OF CENTRAL AMERICA Norah Romney, 2021-02-12 Thousands of years ago people settled in the part of the world called Mesoamerica This region consists of southern Mexico and most of Central America as it stretches between what is now called the Gulf of Mexico and the Pacific Ocean Although many different countries now exist within this space it was the original home to just one civilisation the Olmec As time advanced other well known groups became dominant in the area These were primarily the Aztecs and the Mayan All these early civilizations that existed from approximately 1200 BCE to 900 CE were steeped with culture tradition commerce and conflict They also offer many mysteries and enigmas to modern understanding These are the things that make people wonder about how the civilisations arose gained such power and why they disappeared Travel back in time to the first days to discover the questions that still exist in the minds of archaeologists historians and others who strive to understand the ancient mysteries of Mesoamerica A Critical Companion to Mel Gibson Adam Barkman, Antonio Sanna, 2024-02-02 The twelve essays in A Critical Companion to Mel Gibson offer various interpretations of Mel Gibson s work treating this prolific but controversial figure not only as a filmmaker but as a historian religious thinker and social philosopher From The Man Without a Face and Braveheart to The Passion of the Christ Apocalypto and Hacksaw Ridge this interdisciplinary collection mines Gibson s life and oeuvre for insight into existential problems Aristotelian virtues the politics of film interreligious dialogue adaptation issues and much more Monkey Business Theatre Robert M. Laughlin, 2009-06-03 In 1983 a group of citizens in San Crist bal de las Casas Chiapas formed Sna Jtz ibajom the Tzotzil Tzeltal Maya writers cooperative In the two decades since this group has evolved from writing and publishing bilingual booklets to writing and performing plays that have earned them national and international renown Anthropologist Robert M Laughlin has been a part of the group since its beginnings and he offers a unique perspective on its development as a Mayan cultural force The Monkey Business Theatre or Teatro Lo il Maxil as this branch of Sna Jtz ibajom calls itself has presented plays in virtually every corner of the state of Chiapas as well as in Mexico City Guatemala Honduras Canada and in many museums and universities in the United States It has presented to the world for the first time in drama a view of the culture of the Mayas of Chiapas In this work Laughlin presents a translation of twelve of the plays created by Sna Jtz ibajom along with an introduction for each Half of the plays are based on myths and half on the social political and economic problems that have confronted and continue to confront the Mayas of Chiapas Agency in Ancient Writing Joshua Englehardt, 2012-12-15 Individual agents are frequently evident in early writing and notational systems yet these systems have rarely been subjected to the concept of agency as it is traceable in archeology Agency in Ancient Writing addresses this oversight allowing archeologists to identify and discuss real observable actors and actions in the archaeological record Embracing myriad ways in which agency can be interpreted ancient writing systems from Mesoamerica Mesopotamia Egypt Crete China and Greece are examined from a textual perspective as both archaeological objects and nascent historical documents This allows for distinction among intentions consequences meanings and motivations increasing understanding and aiding interpretation of the subjectivity of social actors Chapters focusing on acts of writing and public recitation overlap with those addressing the materiality of texts interweaving archaeology epigraphy and the study of visual symbol systems Agency in Ancient Writing leads to a more thorough and meaningful discussion of agency as an archaeological concept and will be of interest to anyone interested in ancient texts including archaeologists historians linguists epigraphers and art historians as well as scholars studying agency and structuration theory
