Louis Wirth on Cities and Social Life Louis Wirth,1964      Louis Wirth on Cities and Social Life Louis Wirth,1969

The Romance of Culture in an Urban Civilisation Barbara Ballis Lal,2017-10-12 In this book originally published in 1990 the author presents a general critical overview of Robert E Park and the Chicago school of American sociology Lal concentrates on the contribution that Park and those working within the Chicago school tradition have made to the area of urban race and ethnicity and suggests how the current thinking among sociologists anthropologists social historians and social geographers might usefully be amalgamated with the ongoing tradition originating with Park at Chicago This book should be of interest to students and teachers of sociology urban studies and race relations      On Cities and Social Life Louis Wirth,1964      Multicultural Education in Colleges and Universities Howard Ball,Mbulelo Vizikhu Mzamane,Stephen D. Berkowitz,2014-01-09 This book provides both an overview of the core dilemma in America racism and the deadly impact it has had on American society and an account of the ways in which the book s contributors have attempted to deal with this dilemma in their own teaching practice Two core essays explore the theoretical and historical issues involved in defining races and ethnic groups in the West and issues of racial and ethnic inequality in American society The volume then examines a variety of strategies for teaching the conflicts in comparative literature and politics African American literature law history and political science sociology religion economics anthropology and art and music A premise of this book is that multicultural education in colleges and universities must be transdisciplinary based on the perspectives offered by a multiplicity of interrelated disciplines Clearly scholars across the disciplines have a great deal to learn from one another about issues of race and ethnicity in American society This book shares such knowledge in order to provide relevant accurate information about these issues and their consequences for individuals living in America It also encourages university educators to understand the challenges we face as a society and to be idealistic enough to want to draw upon the various strengths of our culture to assist in the remaking of American democracy      Dynamics of Ethnic Identity Jae-Hyup Lee,2018-10-24 This comparative study of the Chinese Korean and Vietnamese American communities in Philadelphia shows that each Asian American community maintains its own internal cultural boundaries which are used to cultivate differences that become institutionalized over time Socially constructed boundaries such as ethnicity gender class and generation intersect within and among ethnic groups Based on a social anthropological framework this study describes the mechanism of ethnic and class identity formations and shows how identities are institutionalized through various organizations By unraveling the complexity of Asian American communities and their boundary strategies this study provides a look at the new political processes which Asian Americans are creating in a variety of social settings Also includes maps Ph D dissertation University of Pennsylvania 1994 revised with new preface introduction      Contextualizing Urban Narratives through the Socio-Spatial Dialectic Ankur Konar,2024-03-26 This book examines how urban narratives explore the complexities of city life including the diversity of its inhabitants the challenges of urbanization and the impact of social and economic disparities They may delve into such topics as crime poverty gentrification and the struggle for identity and belonging in different bustling metropolis settings like Delhi Mumbai Kolkata Benaras Edinburgh and Glasgow This monograph provides a lens through which authors and storytellers examine and reflect upon the complexities challenges and opportunities of urban life It seeks to reiterate how the discourse of urban narratives refers to the specific language themes and ideas that are commonly found in stories set in urban environments and encompasses the ways in which urban spaces are portrayed the issues and conflicts that arise within these settings and the social cultural and political commentary that is often embedded in these narratives Smoldering

City Karen Sawislak,1995-12-15 Examines the various debates the city faced after the Chicago fire in dealing with homelessness the care and feeding of much of the population and the problem of rebuilding amidst political chaos and people working at cross purposes Explains the events that led up to the Chicago fire intensely dry conditions a 20 m p h southwest wind and an unfortunate spark at 10 oclock on the night of Oct 8 all combined to turn Chicago into a vast ocean of flame The rift between the immigrant working class and the wealthy native born Chicagoans made Catherine O Leary and her famous cow a perfect scapegoat for anti Irish anti working class invective Provides historical maps plates and engravings with an epilogue and notes

Social Theory Today Anthony Giddens,1987 Social theory has undergone dramatic changes over the past fifteen years The aim of this book is to provide a comprehensive survey of those changes and an authoritative statement on current trends of development in social thought The contents of the book range in a systematic way across the major traditions of social theory prominent today Among the topics covered are the relationships between modern social theory and the classics of the late eighteenth and nineteenth centuries the connections between social theory and mathematical social science and the logical status of generalizations in the social sciences Traditions of thought discussed include behaviourism symbolic interactionism Parsonian theory analytical theory structuralism and post structuralism ethnomethodology structuration theory world systems theory Marxism and critical theory Sowing the American Dream David Blanke,2000 From 1840 to 1900 midwestern Americans experienced firsthand the profound economic cultural and structural changes that transformed the nation from a premodern agrarian state to one that was urban industrial and economically interdependent Midwestern commercial farmers found themselves at the heart of these changes Their actions and reactions led to the formation of a distinctive and particularly democratic consumer ethos which is still being played out today By focusing on the consumer behavior of midwestern farmers Sowing the American Dream provides illustrative examples of how Americans came to terms with the economic and ideological changes that swirled around them From the formation of the Grange to the advent of mail order catalogs the buying patterns of rural midwesterners set the stage for the coming century Carefully documenting the rise and fall of the powerful purchasing cooperatives David Blanke explains the shifting trends in collective consumerism which ultimately resulted in a significant change in the way that midwestern consumers pursued their own

regional identity community and independence

Reengaging the Prospects of Rhetoric Mark J.

Porrovecchio, 2010-02-25 Reengaging the Prospects of Rhetoric reanimates the debate over the function and scope of rhetoric Providing a contemporary response to the volume The Prospect of Rhetoric 1971 this volume reconceptualizes that classic work to address the challenges facing the study of rhetoric today With contributions from today's leading rhetorical scholars Reengaging the Prospects of Rhetoric offers response essays to each chapter of the original work Each scholar uses his/her essay as a forum in which to address three questions As a historical document why is this essay important In terms of contemporary theory and/or practice what is the significance of the essay How can the issues raised therein be profitably addressed in the future These provocative engagements suggest that while the study of rhetoric has gained much ground in the intervening decades there is more work to be done to reestablish the primacy of rhetoric in contemporary society This volume provides students and scholars of rhetoric with a strong foundation in the issues that have shaped contemporary rhetorical theory and criticism It offers them an accessible introduction to the challenges facing future iterations of rhetorical theory and criticism As a standalone text or a supplemental resource for undergraduate and graduate courses in the history of rhetoric or contemporary rhetorical theory it will help to shape rhetoric's future role in communication studies and will foster interdisciplinary dialogues about the topic Whose Public Space? Ali

Madanipour, 2010-01-21 Public spaces mirror the complexities of urban societies as historic social bonds have weakened and cities have become collections of individuals public open spaces have also changed from being embedded in the social fabric of the city to being a part of more impersonal and fragmented urban environments Can making public spaces help overcome this fragmentation where accessible spaces are created through inclusive processes This book offers some answers to this question through analysing the process of urban design and development in international case studies in which the changing character level of accessibility and the tensions of making public spaces are explored The book uses a coherent theoretical outlook to investigate a series of case studies crossing the cultural divides to examine the similarities and differences of public space in different urban contexts and its critical analysis of the process of development management and use of public space with all its tensions and conflicts While each case study investigates the specificities of a particular city the book outlines some general themes in global urban processes It shows how public spaces are a key theme in urban design and development everywhere how they are appreciated and used by the people of these cities but also being contested by and under pressure from different stakeholders 9/11: Mental Health in the Wake of Terrorist Attacks Yuval Neria, Raz

Gross, Randall D. Marshall, Ezra S. Susser, 2006-09-14 Does terrorism have a unique and significant emotional and behavioral impact among adults and children In what way does the impact of terrorism exceed the individual level and affect communities and specific professional groups and test different leadership styles How were professional communities of mental health clinicians policy makers and researchers mobilized to respond to the emerging needs post disaster What are the lessons learned from the work conducted after 9 11 and the implications for future disaster mental health work and preparedness efforts Yuval Neria and his team are uniquely placed to answer these questions having been involved in modifying ongoing trials and setting up new ones in New York to address these issues straight after the attacks No psychiatrist mental health professional or policy maker should be without this book      Borderline Slavery Susan Tiano, Moira Murphy-Aguilar, 2016-04-08 Exploring human trafficking in the US Mexico borderlands as a regional expression of a pressing global problem Borderline Slavery sheds light on the contexts and causes of trafficking offering policy recommendations for addressing it that do justice to border communities complex circumstances This book focuses on both sexual and labor trafficking proceeding thematically from global to regional levels to provide an empirically grounded theoretically informed and policy relevant approach which examines the problem through the eyes of scholars and researchers from various fields as well as journalists public officials law enforcement personnel victims advocates and NGO representatives Discussing the multinational networks global economics and personal motives that fuel a multibillion dollar trade in human beings as cheap labor Borderline Slavery suggests future directions for effective policies and law enforcement strategies to prevent the advance of human trafficking As such it will be of interest to both policy makers and scholars across the social sciences working in the fields of migration exploitation and trafficking      Urban Space and Representation Maria Balshaw, Liam Kennedy, 1999-12-20 Theories of urban space have become the focus of a great deal of work by scholars in cultural geography urban studies and critical theory This volume contributes to that debate by analysing the relationship between theories of urban space and literary and visual representations of the city an emergent area of confluence in literary film and cultural studies The contributors address themes such as visual culture and spectacle class and capital community and public space and nation diaspora and belonging Cities covered include New York Chicago Jerusalem Paris London Birmingham and Freetown Sierra Leone Artists and writers discussed include Piet Mondrian Nella Larsen Rudolph Fisher Amos Oz David Grossman Sarah Schulman Jonathan Larsen Charles Dickens Wilkie Collins Paul Auster and Wayne Wang      Urban Ethnography Richard E. Ocejo, 2019-10-22 Showcasing the ideas analysis and perspectives of experts in the method conducting research on a wide array of social phenomena in a variety of city contexts this volume provides a look at the legacies of urban ethnography s methodological traditions and some of the challenges its practitioners face today      My Blue Heaven Becky M. Nicolaides, 2002-05-02 In the 1920s thousands of white migrants settled in the Los Angeles suburb of South Gate Six miles from downtown and adjacent to Watts South Gate and its neighboring communities served as L A s Detroit an industrial belt for mass production of cars tires steel and other durable goods Blue collar workers built the suburb literally from the ground up using sweat equity rather than cash to construct their own homes As Becky M Nicolaides shows in My Blue Heaven this ethic of self reliance and homeownership formed the core of South Gate s identity With post World War II economic prosperity the community s emphasis shifted from building homes to protecting them as residents tried to maintain their standard of living against outside threats including the growing civil rights movement through grassroots conservative politics based on an ideal of white homeowner rights As the citizens of South Gate struggled to defend their segregated American Dream of suburban community they fanned the flames of racial inequality that erupted in the 1965 Watts riots
