Brasseaux, Keith P. Fontenot, 2004-11-01 In an extraordinary feat of research and intrepid historical navigation Carl A. Brasseaux and Keith P. Fontenot serve as guides through the labyrinthian and often harrowing world of Louisiana bayou steamboat journeys of the mid to late nineteenth century The bayou country's steamboat saga mirrors in microcosm the tale of America's most colorful and most highly romanticized transportation era But Brasseaux and Fontenot brace readers with a boldly revisionist picture of the opulent Mississippi River floating palaces stripped down utilitarian freight haulers belching smoke from twin stacks churning through shallow swamps and narrow tributary streams and encountering such hazards as shoals sawyers stumps highwater and dry bed seasons and the remains of vessels claimed by those treacheries For decades steamboats transported goods passengers and mail between New Orleans and south Louisiana's vibrant interior agricultural region bearing testimony to the resourcefulness ingenuity and tenacity of crews in conquering the challenges posed by a forbidding environment Brasseaux and Fontenot marshaled a monumental array of information including sources long buried in courthouses private collections and the records of the Army Corps of Engineers They offer data on some five hundred steamboats keelboats and barges known to have operated in the bayou country This book is the first major study of a fascinating slice of the steamboat industry showcasing a trade critically important to New Orleans s prosperity but largely forgotten in southern historiography until now Encompassing economic social transportation and environmental history it captures the period just before the iron horse emerged as America s undisputed master of inland conveyance The Nightcrawler King William Fagaly,2020-12-21 While growing up in rural Indiana during World War II William Fagaly began his first venture collecting and selling earthworms to locals from which he was christened with a childhood moniker The Nightcrawler King Memoirs of an Art Museum Curator is a narrative of Fagaly s life told in two parts first his childhood experiences and second his transformation into an adult art museum curator and administrator in Louisiana With a career that coincided with the dramatic growth of museums in the United States Fagaly adds a unique perspective to New Orleans history which highlights Louisiana history and establishes how it resonates around the nation and world Offering a rare and revealing inside look at how the art world works Fagaly documents his fifty years of experience of work unusually spent at a single institution the New Orleans Museum of Art During this past half century he played an active role in the discovery and appreciation of new areas of art particularly African self taught and avant garde contemporary He organized numerous significant art exhibitions that traveled to museums across the country and authored the accompanying catalogs Fagaly s cherished memories and the wonderful people who have touched his life are showcased in this memoir friends family university professors museum colleagues art historians visual artists musicians art dealers art collectors patrons and partners even his cats Boys' Life ,1930-04 Boys Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America Published since 1911 it contains a proven mix of news nature sports history fiction science comics and Scouting Airman's Information Manual ,1971 Thorns of a Tainted Rose, 1881 Ross Osborn,2016-05-05 Ms Barbara Juliet Adams a for hire writer from New York City whod recently broke off a one sided engagement with a self centered fool who saw equal rights for women but a detriment to the weaker sex now ventures her prideful way deep down into a still bitter South on an elegant riverboat the Southern Rose hoping for inspiration for her latest historical account Again We Are One the rebuilding of the defeated South and runs a smitten foul of Mr Sterling Able a most dangerous riverboat gambler veteran of the Southern Stars and Bars and noted bottom dealer is quite taken too by this brash quick talking high stepping beautiful Yank which fast spreading Southern gossip lends is sure to come to unwise folly as the courting two near the Magic city New Orleans for there are boyhood enemies in steadfast plot of Mr Sterling Ables Yanks smitten demise So venture down with Ms Barbara into the land of cotton for old times there were or are not forgotten depending how one sees Southern and Northern right
