Naigle, 2025-04-29 A novel of overcoming deep loss taking risks and learning that life and love often surprises you when you least expect it from the USA Today bestselling author of The Shell Collector Bringing to life characters you can't help but fall in love with Nancy Naigle goes straight to the heart with this story of tragedy turned to triumph A poignant reminder to never give up hope Sheila Roberts author of The Best Life Book Club Feeling adrift after the loss of her husband Rosemary sets out to visit an old friend on Whelk's Island undeterred by the threat of a hurricane Before the storm hits she finds herself at Tug's Diner where she quickly connects with the owner Tug But the storm destroys the diner compounding Tug's grief from losing his love the previous year The longer Rosemary stays the more she sees Tug's deep sadness and resolves to help him Together with Tug and friends Amanda and Paul they all pitch in to help the close knit community recover and rebuild As Amanda and Paul reconnect after losing touch during the storm their plans to take things slow seem increasingly impractical While Rosemary and Tug help the young couple navigate their relationship they also find themselves building a friendship that begins to restore them both But can that friendship convince them that love is possible for anyone who's willing to take a risk even those who never hoped they'd find it again      Perspectives On Loss John H. Harvey, 2014-01-14 Losses are integral to the human experience but they sometimes unfold in subtle ways Loss is not just about death but can encompass a number of situations such as those gradual losses experienced by the elderly loss of vision mental capacity or hope Intended to stimulate ideas and research in the new area of psychological aspects of loss this sourcebook collects the writing of a set of distinguished scholars representing psychology and related fields The author presents a case for a broadly construed field of loss both personal and interpersonal that would complement other fields such as death and dying traumatology and stress and coping No other volume is as comprehensive in its treatment of this intriguing subject The book begins with an introduction to the concept of loss and discusses the definition of the term and the salience of the topic in the general public in the 1990s Contributors were chosen to represent some of the most interesting current work on different types of loss and adaptation in the whole of the social and behavioral sciences Contents cover such diverse subjects as loss in intimate relationships disability chronic illness genocide sports unemployment and homelessness The book concludes with a commentary section on loss theory and research

UNHEARD VOICE Mir Imran,2024-10-20 In Unheard Voice Ayaan battles a debilitating illness that confines him to a hospital bed silencing his once vibrant dreams Meher his partner grapples with her own unhealed wounds and the weight of their unresolved issues As regret fills the silence between them they must confront the truth of their disconnect Will they find a way to truly listen to each other before it s too late This poignant tale explores the power of unspoken words and the enduring hope that love can bring even in the darkest of times Stronger

Gareth Thomas,2021-03-04 You re not born with resilience but you can find it on the journey with hard work belief and the help of those around you Gareth Thomas has learned to push on even when everything seems most futile His willingness to expose his deepest emotional frailties as a man and come through even stronger as a result has made him a national hero In the Sunday Times Bestseller PROUD Gareth focused closely on the intense experience of coming out in a very public arena of global sport STRONGER is the broader story of how Gareth has managed to deal with the adversity life has thrown at him across the years from childhood to his most recent gruelling announcement that he was HIV positive Soul Stripped Bare

Yvonne Donohoe,2021-01-22 In an era of happiness lattes and the quick fix Donohoe explores the natural but painful experience of grief The question on her lips is Am I Grieving Normally She soon discovers there is nothing normal about profound loss This beautifully written memoir and grief manual is healing and transformative for anyone experiencing loss Grief provided time to heal from the brokenness of loss my broken heart my broken spirit my broken life my broken future Meet courageous parents who all learnt that love transcends death and that grieving is like breathing we instinctively know how to do it Death stripped my son of his life yet grief provided the opportunity to strip away the protective walls I d built around mine Death was the doorway to his new life in spirit and as my precious son moved on I too was moving on My soul had been stripped bare in preparation for my rebirth CONTEMPORARY GLOBAL FICTION Sushmindar Jeet

Kaur,2024-10-26 In a world where boundaries are blurred and cultures clash Contemporary Global Fiction opens a doorway into the complex experiences and stories of our time With tales that traverse continents and cultures this anthology captures the turbulent realities facing individuals worldwide From shifting family structures and rising social inequities to the challenges of migration and identity the stories delve into the universal struggles that shape modern life This collection explores issues of migration and cultural dissonance with sensitivity such as in Ravinder Singh Sodhi's Why Did Philip Flip which contrasts Eastern and Western cultural perspectives and Avtar S Sangha's incisive Keerti Kalicharan and Karla which examines the tensions migration brings to both individuals and communities Each story reflects a vital conversation on coexistence and understanding in a globalized world The book also sheds light on movements for social justice with narratives addressing themes like disability caregiving and gender inequality Davina by Achingliu Kamei and May the Month of May by Molly Joseph depict the emotional journey of parents of differently abled children while O P Arora and Harmanjot Kaur explore gender and caste inequities questioning deep rooted social norms and heralding hope for change With loneliness now labeled a potential global epidemic this volume also reflects on isolation in the digital age Someeta Das's Ashray The Refuge offers a compelling story of resilience turning loneliness into a source of strength and inspiration The anthology's young writers add fresh perspectives such as Soumee Bhaumik's gripping depiction of addiction in Ordinary People and Sargun Singh's A Change in Perspective which confronts the harsh reality of war Edited with care by Dr Sushmindar Jeet Kaur Contemporary Global Fiction is an insightful anthology that captures the heartbeat of our times This powerful collection provides readers not only a retreat into fiction but also a poignant reflection of the world illuminating its challenges and its beauty one story at a time
