Doreen Fowler,2013-05-06 In an original contribution to the psychoanalytic approach to literature Doreen Fowler focuses on the fiction of four major American writers William Faulkner Richard Wright Flannery O Connor and Toni Morrison to examine the father s function as a border figure Although the father has most commonly been interpreted as the figure who introduces opposition and exclusion to the child Fowler finds in these literary depictions fathers who instead support the construction of a social identity by mediating between cultural oppositions Fowler counters the widely accepted notion that boundaries are solely sites of exclusion and offers a new theoretical model of boundary construction She argues that boundaries are mysterious dangerous in between places where a balance of sameness and difference makes differentiation possible In the fiction of these southern writers father figures introduce a separate cultural identity by modeling this mix of relatedness and difference Fathers intervene in the mother child relationship but the father is also closely related to both mother and child This model of boundary formation as a balance of exclusion and relatedness suggests a way to join with others in an inclusive multicultural community and still retain ethnic racial and gender differences Fowler s model for the father s mediating role in initiating gender race and other social differences shows not only how psychoanalytic theory can be used to interpret fiction and cultural history but also how literature and history can reshape theory Bob Dylan—All the Songs Philippe Margotin, Jean-Michel Guesdon, 2017-02-07 The most comprehensive account of Bob Dylan's Nobel Prize winning work yet published with the full story of every recording session every album and every single released during his nearly 60 year career Bob Dylan All the Songs focuses on Dylan's creative process and his organic unencumbered style of recording It is the only book to tell the stories many unfamiliar even to his most fervent fans behind the more than 500 songs he has released over the span of his career Organized chronologically by album Margotin and Guesdon detail the origins of his melodies and lyrics his process in the recording studio the instruments he used and the contribution of a myriad of musicians and producers to his canon Fault Lines Jonathan Jansen, Cyrill Walters, 2020-03-31 What is the link if any between race and disease How did the term baster as mixed race come to be mistranslated from incest in the Hebrew Bible What are the roots of racial thinking in South African universities How does music fall on the ear of black and white listeners Are new developments in genetics simply a backdoor for the return of eugenics For the first time leading scholars in South Africa from different disciplines take on some of these difficult questions about race science and society in the aftermath of apartheid This book offers an important foundation for students pursuing a broader education than what a typical degree provides and a must read resource for every citizen concerned about the lingering effects of race and racism in South Africa and other parts of the world Theatres of Value Danielle Rosvaly, 2024-07-01 Theatres of Value explores the idea that buying and selling are performative acts and offers a paradigm for deeper study of these acts the dramaturgy of value Modeling this multifaceted approach the book explores six case studies to show how and why Shakespeare had value for nineteenth century New Yorkers In considering William Brown's African Theater P T Barnum's American Museum and Lecture Hall Fanny Kemble's American reading career the Booth family brand the memorial statue of Shakespeare in Central Park and an 1888 benefit performance of Hamlet to theatrical impresario Lester Wallack Theatres of Value traces a history of audience engagement with Shakespearean cultural capital and the myriad ways this engagement was leveraged by theatrical businesspeople Bob Dylan: What the Songs Mean Michael Karwowski, 2019-11-08 The meaning of Bob Dylan's songs has long been debated by fans critics and academics When in 2016 Dylan was awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature the significance of his songs was confirmed Yet their meaning has never been demonstrably explained The New Humor in the Progressive Era R. DesRochers, 2014-07-24 By tracing the effects of unprecedented immigration the advent of the new woman and the little known vaudeville careers of performers like the Elinore Sisters Buster Keaton and the Marx Brothers DesRochers examines the relation between comedic vaudeville acts and progressive reformers as they fought over the new definition of Americanness Shakespeare's Tercentenary Monika Smialkowska, 2023-12-21 The worldwide commemorations of the three hundredth anniversary of Shakespeare's death were held amid the global upheaval of the First World War As empires battled for world domination and nations sought self determination diverse communities vied to claim

Shakespeare as their own to underpin their sense of collective identity and cohesion Unearthing previously unknown Tercentenary events in Europe the British Empire and the USA Monika Smialkowska demonstrates that the 1916 Shakespeare commemorators did not speak with one unified voice Tributes by marginalised social ethnic and racial groups often challenged the homogenising narratives of the official celebrations Rather than the traditionally patriotic Bard used to support totalising versions of national or imperial identity this study reveals Shakespeare as a site of debate and contestation in which diverse voices local and global nationalist and universalist militant and pacifist combined and clashed in a fascinating open ended dialogue
