Irregular Connections Andrew P. Lyons, Harriet Lyons, 2004-12-01 Irregular Connections traces the anthropological study of sex from the eighteenth century to the present focusing primarily on social and cultural anthropology and the work done by researchers in North America and Great Britain Andrew P and Harriet D Lyons argue that the sexuality of those whom anthropologists studied has been conscripted into Western discourses about sex including debates about prostitution homosexuality divorce premarital relations and hierarchies of gender class and race Because sex is the most private of activities and often carries a high emotional charge it is peculiarly difficult to investigate At times such as the late 1920s and the last decade of the twentieth century sexuality has been a central concern of anthropologists and focal in their theoretical formulations At other times the study of sexuality has been marginalized The anthropology of sex has sometimes been one of the main faces that anthropology presented to the public often causing resentment within the discipline Andrew P Lyons is an associate professor of anthropology at Wilfrid Laurier University Harriet D Lyons is an associate professor of anthropology at the University of Waterloo
