Wilson Friedrich Schleiermacher, 1890 The Pursuit of Happiness Sarah Heaner Lancaster, 2010-12-08 People want to be happy Nothing could be more obvious and yet this common and evident goal is not as easy to achieve as it is to desire The Christian tradition has understood happiness to be gained through relationship with God and it has much to say about what will make us truly happy and what will not This book examines happiness from a Christian perspective using John Wesley as the focus of study because he understood happiness with God to be the very goal of Christian life He also understood that Christian happiness needed to acknowledge the difficulties of life This book seeks to learn from the wisdom of the past in order to imagine how Christians today might talk about happiness in a way that is faithful to the tradition and engages the world as well Pastoral Sermons and Occasional Sermons Ronald Knox, Ronald Arbuthnott Knox, 2002 The highly esteemed Catholic convert writer and apologist Ronald Knox a master of the English language was well regarded for his gifts both of writing and preaching This volume combines both skills as it is a collection of his homilies on all the important themes of the spiritual and moral life and on his favorite saints men and women of history who were inflamed with the love of Christ In his always descriptive profound and witty style Knox covers a very wide variety of pastoral themes for Christian living and growth in spiritual perfection Themes such as The Fatherhood of God The Sermon on the Mount The Gifts of God The Triumph of Suffering The Divine Sacrifice and dozens more In his occasional sermons on saints and Christian heroes he shows how these heroes of history struggled with many of the same spiritual battles that modern believers encounter daily and overcame them with faith courage character and virtue These are the shining witnesses of the truth and charity we all Transformational Words Roger Hayes, 2011-01-09 In Transformational Words I hope to provide you with simple yet profound biblical truths that will cause you to think act repent and or rejoice The reason that I created this volume is for those reading to be edified within their spirit I pray that my sermons may inspire you the reader to find a new depth in relationship with Jesus Do not be conformed to this world but be transformed by the renewal of your mind that by testing you may discern what is the will of God what is good and acceptable and perfect Romans 12 2 Pro-justice Ethics Richard A. Hughes, Richard Hughes, 2009 Pro Justice Ethics From Lament to Nonviolence is an original work within Christian social ethics and is based upon the civil rights movement the philosophy of nonviolence and the biblical lament tradition The author formulates the justice imperative as an ethic of duty and defines justice as an act of protesting preventing and remedying injustices that cause human suffering Formally injustice is the violation of fairness equality and dignity but in its primal form injustice is child abuse Birth and death are discussed from a justice perspective beyond the dichotomy of pro life and pro choice Special attention is devoted to the injustices of globalization international human rights abuses and corporate violations of the natural rights of water in the earth commons Book Jacket Disruptive Inclusion Jen Smith, 2024-03-31 What is Christian adult learning What guestions are raised when Christian faith and learning meet Many existing approaches primarily address issues such as curriculum content or teacher character Building on the work of John Hull Disruptive Inclusion approaches the intersection of theology and pedagogy suggesting that the christianness of Christian adult learning is best expressed by the posture adopted by learners not only via what is taught and by whom Specifically Jen Smith claims that a key to Christian adult learning posture is how learners include the unexpected and disruptive in their learning Drawing on key resources such as the biblical narrative Christian tradition liturgy community and her own experiences Jen takes us on a deeply personal and practical journey into disruptive inclusion and invites us to re imagine what effective Christian adult learning might look like in the classroom pulpit and online learning settings The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Victorian Women's Writing Lesa Scholl, Emily Morris, 2022-12-15 Since the late twentieth century there has been a strategic campaign to recover the impact of Victorian women writers in the field of English literature However with the increased understanding of the importance of interdisciplinarity in the twenty first century there is a need to extend this campaign beyond literary studies in order to recognise the role of women writers across the nineteenth century a time that was

Lose,2013-12-01 The world is changing and preaching needs to do the same With that change the notion of truth need not be surrendered in a postmodern age but it must be approached differently David Lose argues that preaching is a confession made openly for the hearers to embrace and engage in the midst of the real lived world they experience The Church Eclectic ,1907 The Christian World Pulpit ,1914
