D., 2024-07-30 This is our time Whether you are in the middle of your work years near the end of your work years or into your retirement years it's an exciting time to be an older adult We have so much more living loving and learning to do and so much more to share We only get to be here once and we don't know how much time we have left What we do know is time is a non renewable resource Once passed it cannot be replaced made up or anything else It is gone leaving us with much regret So make the most of it The game is not over In fact the game is just beginning The purpose of this book is to encourage and empower each of us to ignite our spirit identify our purpose take action continue to grow get out and play This is our time to do what we love connect to our purpose and live life to the fullest To experience life in all its abundance Space,

Philosophy and Ethics William H. U. Anderson, 2025-01-28 Space is infinitely interesting Space has both scientific and cultural currency because it has captured the imagination of human beings from ancient times until today What seemed like science fiction centuries and only decades ago is now science fact Technological developments present and on the cusp are putting more and more of space into our hands That is both exciting and frightening at the same time think Lovecraft This book attempts to speak to the philosophical and ethical issues raised by space Who owns space Who should pay for space exploration and what is the impact on human beings on earth today What happens if we re not alone in the universe What is the value and meaning of space exploration What are the ethical implications of AI and Technology in relation to space exploration what if they get away from us Questions Questions Questions The Call for Chapters for this book Space Philosophy and Ethics read For space science people this conference is a platform to discuss the subconscious philosophical and ethical implications of their research that have been in the back of their minds while researching For philosophers and non specialists it is an opportunity to learn together and struggle to find solutions for the philosophical and ethical quandaries that space science exploration and technology present to humanity The approaches to space seem endless Physics as Aristotle discovered inevitably leads to metaphysics and metaphysics always have ethical concerns The book loosely follows this outline It begins and ends with the metaphysical implications of space the spiritual if you will It leads with poetry That seems appropriate since while we may ask many questions regarding space we are likely to find very few answers Then the book briefly looks at the ethical implications of AI and Technology for space exploration There are chapters that deal with the material ethics of space commerce and ontology Telos and Axiology Value are also explored This book hopes to facilitate human struggle with the ethical implications of space rather than presuming to solve all its problems

What We Love: Reflections on Ministry, Leadership, and Mission Myk Habets, John Tucker, 2018-03-08 Leadership is a quality that often goes underappreciated or unrecognised in New Zealand church life But this is not how it should be Leadership is a godly and biblical quality and those with such gifts are to be celebrated and cherished This volume is a tribute to one such gifted leader Charles Hewlett eighth Principal of Carey Baptist College 2010 2017 Structured around the theme of What We Love a saying Charles would repeat often throughout his principalship faculty and students reflect on biblical theological and applied themes central to Christian thought and practice today More than an in house tribute this volume will be of interest and use to pastors and practitioners looking for considered reflections on ministry leadership and mission today Harvest Us Home Rachel Callahan, Rea McDonnell, 2000 In biblical tradition the fiftieth year is a holy year the year of jubilee Jubilee is a time when Israel was to set captives free return to one s homeland recover and reclaim one s roots and family Harvest Us Home proclaims good news for those in their fiftieth year and beyond setting them free from old wounds and expectations giving them hope for a fruitful future Using imagery from nature and drawing on psychology contemporary spirituality and Scripture Rachel Callahan and Rea McDonnell invite mature readers to tend themselves their relationships their memories and their future in cooperation with the gardener God who carefully tends and harvests all people From the riches of Scripture they offer readers a vision of aging as a time of great wisdom and grace They draw on contemporary books on aging including sociological psychological medical and philosophical studies They include poignant accounts of their own experience of aging as well as the voices of others who write deeply and reflectively of their own journey through the later years of life Who or What Is It All About?: A Worshipping Musician's Guide to Theology

Wimber,Katherine Welby-Roberts,2019-04-19 The world is changing culture is shifting Never has safety and security been more desired What shakes also spills Pressure spills to the surface And when struggles become visible safety becomes more invaluable We only encounter true freedom and wholeness when we know we can speak and hear truth with no fear of retribution Look at the ministry of Jesus He created spaces of safety He also never blamed people for how they got sick Jesus invitations are never based on whose struggles are more easily dealt with In His Kingdom in His house and under His care there is no us and them Jesus said over and over that He came for the sick the broken the oppressed depressed those caught in chains He came for us Each person as well as every part of who we are body soul and spirit matters to God And if it matters to God it must matter to us With the world changing so are people s struggles In years past what worked in prayer and ministry may not work today because people's concerns and experiences of personal difficulties have changed. And just with anything else we should be growing in how we learn and deliver ministry. God wants to bring people into wholeness. And one of the greatest acts of kindness we can do is provide a safe place in order to witness people's struggles so that we may love, care for, and pray and minister to them more effectively.
