Skal, Jessica Rains, 2008-11-07 The first full length biography of the actor known for his roles in The Invisible Man Casablanca and other classics based on newly released interviews Given his childhood speech impediments and his origins in a destitute London neighborhood the ascent of Claude Rains to the stage and screen was remarkable Rains s difficulties in his formative years provided reserves of gravitas and sensitivity from which he drew inspiration for acclaimed performances in The Invisible Man Mr Smith Goes to

Washington Casablanca Notorious Lawrence of Arabia and other classic films In this book noted Hollywood historian David J Skal draws on more than thirty hours of newly released Rains interviews to create the first full length biography of the man nominated multiple times for an Academy Awards for Best Supporting Actor Skal s portrait also benefits from the insights of Jessica Rains who provides firsthand accounts of the enigmatic man behind her father s refined screen presence and genteel public persona As Skal shows numerous contradictions informed the life and career of Claude Rains He possessed an air of nobility and became an emblem of sophistication but he never shed the insecurities that traced back to his upbringing in an abusive and poverty stricken family Though deeply self conscious about his short stature Rains drew notorious ardor from female fans and was married six times His public displays of dry wit and good humor masked inner demons that drove Rains to alcoholism and its devastating consequences Skal s layered depiction of Claude Rains reveals a complex almost inscrutable man whose nuanced characterizations were in no small way based on the more shadowy parts of his psyche With unprecedented access to episodes from Rains s private life Skal tells the full story of the consummate character actor of his generation This highly readable biography written with the help of his daughter Jessica Rains reveals the witty talented man behind this universally respected Hollywood legend Tucson Citizen The Country House Revisited Tereza Topolovská ,2017-08-01 This monograph provides an insight into English country house fiction by twentieth and twenty first century authors with a focus on the works of E M Forster Evelyn Waugh Iris Murdoch Alan Hollinghurst and Sarah Waters The country house is explored within the wider social and cultural contexts of the period including contemporary architectural development The variety of literary depictions of the country house reflects the physical diversification of buildings which can be classified as such from smaller variants to formerly grand residences on the brink of physical collapse Within the scope of contemporary fiction architecture and poetics of space the country house given its uniquely integrating and exceptionally evocative qualities accentuates different conceptions of dwelling Consequently literary portrayals of the country house can be seen as both prefiguring and reflecting the contemporary practice of living Gothic Things Jeffrey Andrew Weinstock,2023-07-04 SHORTLISTED THE ALLAN LLOYD SMITH PRIZE FOR BEST MONOGRAPH Offering an innovative approach to the Gothic Gothic Things Dark Enchantment and Anthropocene Anxiety breaks ground with a new materialist analysis of the genre highlighting the ways that since its origins in the eighteenth century the Gothic has been intensely focused on ominous matter and thing power In chapters attending to gothic bodies spaces books and other objects Gothic Things argues that the Gothic has always been about what happens when objects assume mysterious animacy or potency and when human beings are reduced to the status of just one thing among many more powerful others In exploring how the Gothic insistently decenters the human Jeffrey Andrew Weinstock reveals human beings to be enmeshed in networks of human and nonhuman forces mostly outside of their control Gothic Things thus resituates the Gothic as the uncanny doppelganger of twenty first century critical and cultural theory lurking just beneath the surface and sometimes explicitly surfacing as it haunts considerations of how human beings interact with objects and their environment In these pages the Gothic offers a dark reflection of the contemporary nonhuman turn expressing a twenty first century structure of feeling undergirded by anxiety over the fate of the human spectrality monstrosity and apocalypse Substituting horror for hope the Gothic Weinstock explains has been a philosophical meditation on human relations to the nonhuman since its inception raising significant questions about how we can counter anthropocentric thought in our quest to live more harmoniously with the world around us

In the Shadow of the Phosphorus Dawn Rob True, 2021-05-27 Terrifying and enthralling a unique novel seething with violence I loved it Heidi James author of The Sound Mirror Carl reeling from the death of his brother is drowning in visions Followed by shadow men through the crumbling outer regions of the city Unable to trust those closest to him Doubting his own reality As a wave of brutal ritualistic gangland killings sweeps through the underworld Carl s involvement with a life he thought he had left behind catches up with him with terrifying results In the Shadow of the Phosphorous Dawn is the raw brilliant debut novel from Rob True operating at the bleeding edge of crime and psychedelic horror The Dublin review ,1881 Rat Girl Kristin Hersh,2010-08-31 One of the 25 Greatest Rock Memoirs of All Time Rolling Stone Magazine 8 Sensitive and emotionally raw it s also wildly funny The New York Times Book Review A powerfully original memoir of pregnancy and mental illness by the legendary founder of the seminal rock band Throwing Muses a magnificently charged union of Sylvia Plath and Patti Smith The Guardian Kristin Hersh was a preternaturally bright teenager starting college at fifteen and with her band Throwing Muses playing rock clubs she was too young to frequent By the age of seventeen she was living in her car unable to sleep for the torment of strange songs swimming around her head the songs for which she is now known But just as her band was taking off Hersh was misdiagnosed with schizophrenia Rat Girl chronicles the unraveling of a young woman s personality culminating in a suicide attempt and then her arduous yet inspiring recovery her unplanned pregnancy at the age of 19 and the birth of her first son Playful vivid and wonderfully warm this is a visceral and brave memoir by a truly original performer told in a truly original voice

Female Beauty Systems Christine Adams,Tracy Adams,2015-09-04 Female beauty systems everywhere are complex integrating markers of class status power and sexuality to perform the fundamental function of sorting individuals into categories of more or less desirable Heirs to the tradition of courtly love modern western female beauty systems tend to share the norm of man as pursuer woman as pursued having developed around the trope of the madly desiring poet or knight supplicating his aloof and lovely lady for her favor The apparent longevity of the courtly love tradition raises the question of whether the way in which it structures male desire in reaction to female beauty is part of a universal tendency an evolutionary adaptation despite clear evidence that female beauty systems are also in fact socially constructed and reflect enormous ambivalence about the power and performance of beauty Although modern western female beauty systems are routinely demystified and contested today the purveyors of culture that support them institutional intellectual artistic commercial and popular continue as they always have to construe women as objects of male desire Still within this basic structure the systems have varied greatly across time and space with women using beauty as a form of social capital in widely differing ways Moreover as individuals have begun to experience their bodies as malleable and endlessly transformable rather than unruly and unyielding many have begun to experience beauty less as a given and more as a project The nine essays collected here examine a number of different Western female beauty systems over the centuries considering how women have complied with contributed to profited or suffered from and resisted them
